Lying on the Postcolonial Couch Rukmini Bhaya Nair, 2002      Lying on the Postcolonial Couch Rukmini Bhaya Nair, 2002      Polygamy, Policy and Postcolonialism in English Marriage Law Zainab Naqvi, 2023-01-25 Slaves mistresses concubines the English courts have used these terms to describe polygamous wives in the past but are they still seen this way today Using a critical postcolonial feminist lens this book provides a contextualized exploration of English legal responses to polygamy Through the legacies of British imperialism the book shows how attitudes to polygamy are shaped by indifference and hostility towards its participants This goes beyond the law as shown by the stories of women shared throughout the book negotiating their identities and relationships in the UK today Through its analysis the book demonstrates how polygamy and polygamous wives are subjected to imperialist and orientalist discourses which dehumanise them for practising a relationship that has existed for millennia      Weird English Evelyn Nien-Ming Ch'ien, 2005-10-31 The third book in the seventh series of the exciting adventure stories that are as gripping as a computer game Great for boys with a huge collectability factor bolstered by the collectors cards in the back of the books and links to an excellent interactive website Evil Wizard Malvel is steering the land of Tavana towards total destruction Tom must stop him by defeating six rampaging Beasts and sending them back to their rightful homes Krestor the Crushing Terror awaits him Don't miss CONVOL THE COLD BLOODED BRUTE HELLION THE FIERY FOE MADARA THE MIDNIGHT WARRIOR ELLIK THE LIGHTNING HORROR CARNIVORA THE WINGED SCAVENGER      The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature      Reading Postcolonial Theory Bibhash Choudhury, 2016-02-26 This book is an essential introduction to significant texts in postcolonial theory It looks at seminal works in the moments of their making and delineates the different threads that bind postcolonial studies Each chapter presents a comprehensive discussion of a major text and contextualises it in the wake of contemporary themes and debates The volume Studies major texts by foremost scholars Edward W Said Chinua Achebe Albert Memmi Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Paul Carter Homi Bhabha Frantz Fanon Ashis Nandy Robert J C Young Ngugi wa Thiongo and Sara Suleri Shifts focus from colonial experience to underlying principles of critical engagement Uses accessible jargon free

language Focused engaging and critically insightful this book will be indispensable to students and scholars of literary and cultural studies comparative literature and postcolonial studies      Edinburgh Companion to the Postcolonial Middle East Ball Anna Ball,2018-11-14 This Edinburgh Companion seeks to develop a postcolonial framework for addressing the Middle East The first collection of essays on this subject it assembles some of the world's foremost postcolonialists to explore the critical theoretical and disciplinary possibilities that inquiry into this region opens for postcolonial studies Throughout its twenty four chapters its focus is on literary and cultural critique It draws on texts and contexts from the late nineteenth to the early twenty first centuries as case studies and deploys the concept of post colonial modernity to reveal the enduring impact of colonial and imperial power on the shaping of the region And it covers a wide and significant range of political social and cultural issues in the Middle East during that period including the heritage of Orientalism in the region the roots and contemporary branches of the Israel Palestine conflict colonial history state formation and cultures of resistance in Egypt Turkey the Maghreb and the wider Arab world the clash of tradition and modernity in regional and transnational expressions of Islam the politics of gender and sexuality in the Arab world the ongoing crises in Libya Iraq Iran and Syria the Arab Spring and the Middle Eastern refugee crisis in Europe      Postcolonial Literary History and Indian English Fiction ,      The Postcolonial Careers of Santha Rama Rau Antoinette Burton,2007-09-26 Antoinette Burton uses a mid twentieth century Indian American authors career to analyze broader issues of postwar Americas understanding of itself and the wider world

Spaces of Global Cultures Anthony King,2004-08-02 SDraws on social cultural and postcolonial writings and architectural evidence from various cities around the world to examine existing theories of globalization and also develop new ones      Rule by Numbers U. Kalpagam,2014-08-20 This book examines aspects of the production of statistical knowledge as part of colonial governance in India using Foucault's ideas of governmentality The modern state is distinctive for its bureaucratic organization official procedures and accountability that in the colonial context of governing at a distance instituted a vast system of recordation bearing semblance to and yet differing markedly from the Victorian administrative state The colonial rule of difference that shaped liberal governmentality introduced new categories of rule that were nested in the procedures and records and could be unraveled from the archive of colonial governance Such an exercise is attempted here for certain key epistemic categories such as space time measurement classification and causality that have enabled the constitution of modern knowledge and the social scientific discourses of economy society and history The different chapters engage with how enumerative technologies of rule led to proliferating measurements and classifications as fields and objects came within the purview of modern governance rendering both statistical knowledge and also new ways of acting on objects and new discourses of governance and the nation The postcolonial implications of colonial governmentality are examined with respect to both planning techniques for attainment of justice and the role of information in the constitution of neoliberal subjects      Modern Indian Literature as Cosmopolis Didier Coste,2024-10-09 This book redefines modern Indian literature from a cosmopolitan comparative perspective inclusive of literature in English from India and the diaspora in native languages and works by non Indians It shows how since the mid 19th century Indian literary modernity pursued the conjunction of the sensuous and ethical spiritual that characterized its three traditions Sanskrit Persian and folk culture while the encounter both receptive and oppositional with the West vastly expanded the Indian literary sphere Aesthetics and ethics are not antithetical in the Indian cultural space but the quest for an exclusive Indian identity versus universalist approaches offsets concerns for social justice as well as enjoyable embodied communication The literary constellation in many languages now formed in and around India can be better apprehended as a virtual Cosmopolis a commonwealth of elaborate emotions The versatile figure of Hanuman metaphorically flies across this Ocean of Stories to make us discover new worlds of experience

Reframing Critical, Literary, and Cultural Theories Nicoletta Pireddu, 2018-09-04 This book participates in the ongoing debate about the alleged death of theory and the current post theoretical condition arguing that the finitude of theoretical projects does not mean end but rather contingency and transformation of thinking beyond irreconcilable doctrines Contributors from different cultural and scholarly backgrounds and based in three different continents propose new areas of investigation and interpretive possibilities reopening dialogues with past and present discourses from a plurality of perspectives and locations After a first section that reassesses the status and scopes of critique theory and literature the book foregrounds new or neglected critical vocabulary literary paradigms and narrative patterns to reread texts at the intersection with other branches of the humanities history philosophy religion and pedagogy It then explores geopolitical cultural and epistemological domains that have been historically and ideologically overdetermined such as postsocialist postcolonial and cosmopolitan spaces recodifying them as unstable sites of both conflicts and convergences By acknowledging the spatio temporal and cultural delimitations of any intellectual practice the book creates awareness of our own partiality and incompleteness but treats boundaries as zones of contact exchange and conceptual mobility that promote crossings and connections

The Postsecular Imagination Manav Ratti, 2013-01-04 The Postsecular Imagination presents a rich interdisciplinary study of postsecularism as an affirmational political possibility emerging through the potentials and limits of both secular and religious thought While secularism and religion can foster inspiration and creativity they also can be linked with violence civil war partition majoritarianism and communalism especially within the framework of the nation state Through close readings of novels that engage with animism Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam and Sikhism Manav Ratti examines how questions of ethics and the need for faith awe wonder and enchantment can find expression and significance in the wake of such crises While focusing on Michael Ondaatje and Salman Rushdie Ratti addresses the work of several other writers as well including Shauna Singh Baldwin Mahasweta Devi Amitav Ghosh and Allan Sealy Ratti shows the extent of courage and risk involved in the radical imagination of these postsecular works examining how writers experiment with and gesture toward the compelling paradoxes of a non secular secularism and a non religious religion Drawing on South Asian Anglophone literatures and postcolonial theory and situating itself within the most provocative contemporary debates in secularism and religion The Postsecular Imagination will be important for readers interested in the relations among culture literature theory and politics Minor Universality / Universalité mineure Markus Messling, Jonas Tinius, 2023-08-21 The circulation and entanglements of human beings data and goods have not necessarily and by themselves generated a universalising consciousness The global and the universal in other words are not the same The idea of a world society remains highly contested Our times are marked by the fragmentation of a double relativistic character the inevitable critique of Western universalism on the one hand and resurgent identitarian and neo nationalistic claims to identity on the other Sources of an argumentation for a strong universalism brought forward by Western traditions such as Christianity Marxism and Liberalism have largely lost their legitimation All the while manifold and situated narratives of a common world that re address the universal are under way of being produced and gain significance This volume tracks the development and relevance of such cultural and social practices that posit forms of what we call minor universality It asks Where and how do contemporary practices open up concrete settings so as to create experiences reflections and agencies of a shared humanity With contributions by Isaac Bazi Anil Bhatti Jean Luc Chappey Elsie Cohen Leyla Dakhli Souleymane Bachir Diagne Nicole Fischer Albert Gouaffo Stefan Helgesson Fatma Hotait Christopher M Hutton Ananya Jahanara Kabir Mario Laarmann Rukmini Bhaya Nair Olivier Remaud Gis le Sapiro B n dicte Savoy Maria Anna Schiffrers Laurens Schlicht Sergio Ugalde Quintana H l ne Thierard Khadija von Zinnenburg Carroll Interpreting Homes in South Asian Literature Malashri Lal, Sukrita Paul Kumar, The search for the location in which the self is at home has been one of the primary projects of modern literature all over the world Interpreting Homes South Asian Literature attempts to map the narratives of the home in South Asian literature from the advance of modernity on the subcontinent till the present day It aims to read more than the domestic into representations of the home to explore not only the geographical but also the psychological and material connotations of home Its goal is to disassemble the concept of home in all its incarnations as confinement as stability as security as myth and as desire The book problematises home and its experience in different contexts It investigates if and how home changes its significations when articulated from different locations in different languages and by different subjects paying particular attention to ideological determinants like gender and class The editors of the anthology have encouraged contributors to also address diaspora writing and to achieve the widest possible comparative perspective Though the focus has been kept on literature some papers deal with cultural narratives of home in oral and folk mediums The collection comprises of an Introduction and 18 original essays divided into six thematic sections

Skin Colour Politics Nina Kullrich, 2022-02-14 The global practice of skin bleaching is predominantly understood as an internalized legacy of colonialism and an embodiment of Western ideals of beauty This book offers a new perspective on fair skin preference in India it challenges the assumption that desires for light skin are always a desire of whiteness Rather than talking back to the colonial centre skin colour politics reorganise and reinforce social distinctions in Indian societies which are neither exclusively local nor global Based on primary research conducted in Delhi this multi dimensional study shows how skin colour intersects with and reproduces other categories of social distinction primarily gender class caste race region and religion It historically embeds fairness as an Indian precolonial yet transnational ideal of beauty The bleached body emerges as an active and thus potentially resistant part of negotiating social status within multiple power relations and complex beauty regimes By mapping a whole geography of skin colours in India this book shows how fair skin as a locally embedded beauty norm and whiteness as a global cultural imperative interrelate

A Cosmopolitan Approach to Literature Didier Coste, 2022-12-30 This cross disciplinary approach to literary reading of any provenance based on an experimental cosmopolitan epistemology de and recontextualizes the texts from the points of view of multiple cultures and historical moments enriching interpretation and aesthetic experience beyond the backgrounds of the present reader and the origin of a particular literary discourse Trusting the authority of an author or an original text and ignoring the fundamental plurilingualism of the literary experience obstructs the wealth of cosmopolitan reading in a globalized and fragmented world A thorough critique of both local and overarching theories in clear dissent from the binaries of decolonial theory and the overextension of nomadic theory supports a precise research and teaching methodology at variance with past trends of Comparative and World Literature Considering literature as the aestheticized use of language which is universal the many analyses provided can be extrapolated to other genres eras and cultural areas

Teaching Anglophone South Asian Women Writers Deepika Bahri, Filippo Menozzi, 2021-06-15 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching South Asian women s writing in English including consideration of colonization and imperialism Partition war migration and diaspora tradition and modernity global capitalism climate change gender and sexuality and intersectionality Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in postcolonial literature world literature and women s studies
