Major Douglas And Alberta Social Credit:

Major Douglas and Alberta Social Credit Bob Hesketh, 1997 The Social Credit Movement had a Broad and significant impact on the social and political history of Alberta A number of authors have examined this phenomenon usually focusing on the economic and social conditions that influenced Social Credit s rise to power Major Douglas and Alberta Social Credit Ideology however is the first work dedicated expressly to the intellectual history of the Social Credit government of the 1930s and 1940s Bob Hesketh challenges us to revise previous thinking about Social Credit by placing new emphasis on the influence of Major C H Douglas s conspiracy based ideology on the Aberhart and Manning governments The author is the first to contend that Douglas s beliefs were strongly influenced by the infamous anti Semitic book The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion Douglas believed that a Jewish financial conspiracy with the single goal of enslaving mankind was orchestrating world events Hesketh analyses the shared ground between Douglas s conspiratorial thinking and the fundamentalism of Aberhart and Manning He suggests that both Premiers understood and applied Douglas s teachings to a wide variety of government policies from the famous monetary bills to numerous lesser known economic diversification initiatives This book develops important new interpretations of Social Credit s behaviour as a movement party and government providing an unprecedented focus on ideology It will be an essential reference for historians and political scientists concerned with the history of Social Credit in Alberta The Social Credit Movement in Alberta John A. Irving, 1959-12-15 On the night of August 22 1935 as Canadians listened to their radios they heard with amazement and incredulity that the first Social Credit government in the world had been elected that day in the province of Alberta Before the tabulation of votes was completed telephone calls from New York and London headlines in newspapers spot news in broadcasts had confirmed the slogan of Social Crediters The Eyes of the World are on Alberta The morning after the election a number of people lined up at the city hall in Calgary to collect the first installment of the Social Credit dividend of 25 monthly which they confidently believed would be immediately forthcoming from their new government This quotation from Professor Irving s book indicates how the apparent suddenness of the Social Credit rise to power and the magnitude of the victory aroused world wide comment Why had the doctrines of Social Credit promoted unsuccessfully in the British Commonwealth and the United States for nearly twenty years achieved political acceptance in Alberta Why had the people of Alberta elected to public office persons so little experienced in the economic and political world as William Aberhart and his Social Credit colleagues Professor Iving answers these questions and analyses systematically and comprehensively the rise of the movement as a phenomenon of mass psychology His study based mainly on interviews supplemented with references to private papers newspapers and government sources provides a truly fascinating record Social Classes and Social Credit in Alberta Edward Bell, 1993 The Social Credit party in Alberta has traditionally been presented as petty bourgeois in its ideology and appeals reflecting what was believed to be the dominant class in the province at the time Edward Bell challenges these widely held interpretations of the ideology popular class basis and behaviour in office of the early Social Credit movement 1932 40 Social Credit Fouad Sabry, 2024-04-15 What is Social Credit Social credit is a distributive philosophy of political economy developed by C H Douglas Douglas attributed economic downturns to discrepancies between the cost of goods and the compensation of the workers who made them To combat what he saw as a chronic deficiency of purchasing power in the economy Douglas prescribed government intervention in the form of the issuance of debt free money directly to consumers or producers in order to combat such discrepancy How you will benefit I Insights and validations about the following topics Chapter 1 Social credit Chapter 2 Factors of production Chapter 3 Stock exchange Chapter 4 William Aberhart Chapter 5 Richard Gavin Reid Chapter 6 Pigouvian tax Chapter 7 C H Douglas Chapter 8 Alberta Social Credit Party Chapter 9 Great Depression in Canada Chapter 10 Consumption economics Chapter 11 Labour power Chapter 12 Prosperity certificate Chapter 13 ATB Financial Chapter 14 Social Credit Party of Great Britain and Northern Ireland Chapter 15 Cooperative federalism economics Chapter 16 Commodity Marxism Chapter 17 1937 Social Credit backbenchers revolt Chapter 18 Bankers Toadies incident Chapter 19 Social Credit Board Chapter 20 Economic democracy Chapter 21 Subsidy II Answering the public top questions about social credit III Real world examples for the usage of social credit in many fields Who this book is for Professionals undergraduate and graduate students enthusiasts hobbyists and those who want to go beyond basic knowledge or information for any kind of Social Credit Social Discredit Janine Stingel, 2000 In Social Discredit Janine Stingel exposes a crucial yet previously neglected part of Social Credit history the virulent anti Jewish campaign it undertook before during and after the Second World War While most Canadians acknowledged the perils of race hatred in the wake of the Holocaust Social Credit intensified its anti Semitic campaign By examining Social Credit s anti Semitic propaganda and the reaction of the Canadian Jewish Congress Stingel details their mutual antagonism and explores why Congress was unable to stop Social Credit s blatant defamation She argues that Congress s ineffective response was part of a broader problem in which passivity and a belief in quiet diplomacy undermined many of its efforts to combat intolerance Stingel shows that both Social Credit and Congress changed considerably in the post war period as Social Credit abandoned its anti Semitic trappings and Congress gradually adopted an assertive and pugnacious public relations philosophy that made it a champion of human rights in Canada Social Discredit offers a fresh perspective on both the Social Credit movement and the Canadian Jewish Congress substantively revising Social Credit historiography and providing a valuable addition to Canadian Jewish studies Alberta Premiers of the Twentieth Century University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 From the optimism associated with provincial status in 1905 through the trials of Depression and war the boom times of the post war period and the economic vagaries of the 1980s and the 1990s the twentieth century was a time of growth and hardship development and change for Alberta and its people And during the century twelve men from a variety of political parties and from very different backgrounds led the government of this province The names of some like William Aberhart Ernest Manning and Peter Lougheed are still household names while others like Arthur Sifton Herbert Greenfield and Richard Reid have been all but forgotten Yet each in his unique way for better or for worse helped to mould and steer the destiny of the province he governed These are their stories Language, Communication and the Economy Guido Erreygers, Geert Jacobs, 2005-11-24 This volume brings together a number of wide ranging transdisciplinary research articles on the interface between discourse studies and economics It explores in what way economics can contribute to the analysis of discursive practices in various institutional settings as well as investigating what role discourse studies can play in economic research The contributors are linguists communication scholars economists and other social scientists drawing on various traditions including Critical Discourse Analysis Cognitive Linguistics ethnography and the literature on the rhetoric of economics and on economic storytelling All articles are essentially empirical focusing on the details of actual language use The type of data analysed ranges from the minutes of university policy meetings and large scale corpora of newspaper language over books of economic theory from both well respected economists and monetary cranks to cartoons from The Economist The Social Credit Phenomenon in Alberta Alvin Finkel, 1989-01-01 In this account of the Social Credit transformation Alvin Finkel challenges earlier works which focus purely on Social Credit monetary fixations and religiosity C. B. Macpherson William Leiss, 2009-04 Crawford Brough Macpherson an extremely influential writer and teacher and Canada's pre eminent political theorist won an international reputation for his controversial interpretation of liberalism In the first book to examine the entire range of Macpherson's writings William Leiss seeks to place that interpretation of liberalism within the overall framework of Macpherson's intellectual development The Petite Bourgeoisie F.
