Making Peace With Conflict Practical Skills For Conflict Transformation:

Living with Conflict Susan Robson, 2013-11-22 In Living with Conflict A Challenge to a Peace Church Susan Robson explores the discomforts and denials that can arise when an organization committed to doing good suspects that it is not living up to its declared aims This case study of Quakers in the United Kingdom closely examines the challenge of living constructively despite ever present internal conflicts Drawing on ideas from contemporary organizational theory Robson's study points the way forward for Quakers and other value based groups Living with Conflict compares the evolution of the Quaker peace testimony to the experience of other peaceful churches in both their relationships to the wider world and how they handle congregational conflict It analyzes conflicts in small church congregations looking at triggers and responses past and present describing the consequences of challenging community narratives and creating counter narratives Students of peace and conflict studies organizational studies and the sociology of religion will find this study thought provoking Living with Conflict is also for anyone who has ever joined an organization they thought was welcoming and safe working together for the common good only to see it unravel into a flurry of acrimonious e mails slammed doors tears legal proceedings even tragedy

Peace Skills Ronald S. Kraybill, 2001-03-02 Part of the Peace Skills Set this Manual is designed as a take home resource to support workshop participants as they return to their communities and both apply their mediation skills and share their insights with others It covers conflict analysis the role of mediation the stages of mediation communication skills and working with group conflicts and in cross cultural settings

Ambassadors of Reconciliation: Diverse Christian practices of restorative justice and peacemaking Ched Myers, Elaine Enns, 2009 Restorative justice refers to a social movement that seeks to repair interpersonal communal and social injustices without recourse to violence or retribution Volume two analyzes the contemporary terrain of restorative justice and peacemaking in North America and profiles the exemplary work of nine practitioners who incarnate the scriptural vision in real life contexts of profound violence and injustice

Reconcile John Paul Lederach, 2014-08-11 Emotionally powerful and full of practical advice and resources PUBLISHERS WEEKLY Reconcile Conflict Transformation for Ordinary Christians by international mediator John Paul Lederach serves as a guidebook for Christians seeking a scriptural view of reconciliation and practical steps for transforming conflict Originally published as The Journey Toward Reconciliation and based on Lederach's work in war zones on five continents this revised and updated book tells dramatic stories of what works and what doesn't in entrenched conflicts between individuals and groups Lederach leads readers through stories of conflict and reconciliation in Scripture using these stories as anchors for peacemaking strategies that Christians can put into practice in families and churches Lederach who has written twenty two books and whose work has been translated into more than twelve languages also offers new lenses through which to view conflict whether congregational conflicts or global terrorism A new section of resources created by mediation professionals professors and pastors offers tools for understanding interpersonal church and global conflict worship resources books and websites for further study and invitations to action in everyday life Free downloadable study guide available here Proverbs in Communication: A conflict Resolution Perspective , Introduction to Christian Ethics Ellen Ott Marshall,2018-10-30 All Christians read the Bible differently pray differently value their traditions differently and give different weight to individual and corporate judgment These differences are the basis of conflict The question Christian ethics must answer then is What does the good life look like in the context of conflict In this new introductory text Ellen Ott Marshall uses the inevitable reality of difference to center and organize her exploration of the system of Christian morality What can we learn from Jesus creative use of conflict in situations that were especially attuned to questions of power What does the image of God look like when we are trying to recognize the divine image within those with whom we are in conflict How can we better explore and understand the complicated work of reconciliation and justice This innovative approach to Christian ethics will benefit a new generation of students who wish to engage the perennial questions of what constitutes a faithful Christian life and a just society Taming Intractable Conflicts Chester A. Crocker,Fen Osler Hampson,Pamela R. Aall,2004 Some conflicts seem to defy resolution Marked by longevity recurrent violence and militant agendas these intractable conflicts refuse to be settled either on the battlefield or at the negotiating table The longer they fester the stronger the international community s inclination to lose heart and to turn away But explain the authors of this provocative volume effective mediation in intractable conflicts is possible if the mediator knows what to do and when to do it Written from the mediator s point of view Taming Intractable Conflicts lays out the steps involved in tackling the most stubborn of conflicts It first puts mediation in a larger context exploring why mediators choose or decline to become involved what happens when they get involved for the wrong reasons and the impact of the mediator s institutional and political environment It then discusses best mediation tradecraft at different stages at the beginning of the engagement when the going gets very rough during the settlement negotiations and in the post settlement implementation stage Forceful concise and highly readable Taming Intractable Conflicts serves not only as a hands on guide for would be mediators but also as a powerful argument for students of conflict management that intractable conflicts are not beyond the reach of mediation Love Letter to a Conflicted Church Richard P. Olson,2010-01-01 The book is organized into three divisions and as the title implies there is a brief letter in the form of a New Testament epistle to the contemporary church a portion of which begins each chapter The first division reexamines the gifts and redemptive possibilities of anger and conflict The barriers to healthy anger conflict are considered and addressed In the second attention is given to conflicts surrounding the Bible There is a chapter on conflict and reconciliation in the Bible followed by suggestions on how people who read the Bible differently from each other can resolve some of those differences Consideration is also given to discovering biblical priorities for the contemporary church The third division offers vistas of change and reconciliation Parables of hope and promise are provided Insights from the studies of persons and communities as well as ethics and theology are summarized There is reflection on those unresolved conflicts that continue in spite of our best efforts Then moral imagination is engaged to visualize the opportunities for a church that moves beyond its present stalemates Transforming Church Conflict Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger, Theresa F. Latini, 2013-01-01 Using real world case studies and examples Hunsinger and Latini helpfully guide pastors and lay leaders through effective and compassionate ways to deal with discord Peace Research Abstracts Journal, 2003 Teaching Peace Through Popular Culture Laura L. Finley, 2023-11-01 Drawing from many disciplinary areas this edited volume illustrates the many ways that popular culture can be used to teach peace and justice Chapters address such topics as teaching about racism domestic violence structural violence conflict analysis decolonization critiques of capitalism and peacebuilding showing how different forms of popular culture can be utilized to enhance student learning Contributors provide both theoretical backgrounds and concrete lessons using TV film music graphic novels and more John Howard Yoder Mark Nation, 2006-01-05 John Howard Yoder 1927 1997 was a leading Christian witness against violence articulating a theology from his own tradition so powerful that it compelled people from many other traditions to take notice The war on terror the temptations of nationalism and the painful divisions between those who call themselves followers of Jesus signal our need to hear Yoder's voice again at the beginning of the twenty first century In his book Mark Thiessen Nation provides an insider's introduction to Yoder demonstrating how a committed Mennonite could also be profoundly evangelical in his witness and broadly catholic in his Christian sensibilities Taking us into Yoder's life and writings Nation explores Yoder's context his keen interest in the Anabaptist tradition his sustained engagement with other Christians and other faiths and his claim that pacifism is inherent to Jesus message

Vital Christianity David L. Weaver-Zercher, William H. Willimon, 2005-08-23 Challenge theses debilitating distinctions between spirituality and social justice by exploring the numerous threads that can and should connect these two components of holistic Christian living Organizational Conflict Josiane Fahed-Sreih, 2022-08-17 This book is a collection of chapters on organizational conflict It discusses the different types of conflict and how to deal with them Whether it is a relationship conflict task conflict or process conflict dealing with conflict requires analyzing the organization and its members and finding the root cause of the issue Acedia and the Transformation of Spiritual Malaise Wayne Morris, 2019-05-24 Fr Martin McAlinden's research focussed on the spiritual malaise experienced by many priests in the Catholic Church in Ireland In response he developed a theology rooted in the ancient notion of acedia and used this as a way of talking about the spiritual crises many priests experience and how this spiritual malaise might be transformed How to Become a Creative Church Leader John Nelson, 2008-02-28 A companion to the popular Creative Church Leadership this co publication with MODEM focuses on the practical skills necessary for dynamic leadership in the local church A wide range of experienced church leaders and management gurus reflect on key components of successful contemporary church leadership including part one which discusses people leading a team choosing and mentoring assistants leading lay ministers and volunteers how to delegate how to resolve conflict part two which describes organisation leading churches of different sizes leading multiple congregations relating to the local community initiating and completing projects how to chair meetings and part three which discusses up close and personal what kind of a leader are you getting your work life balance right thinking strategically preaching with a purpose and much more The Just War And Jihad R. Joseph Hoffmann, 2010-05 The articles collected in this volume represent the independent and considered thinking of internationally known scholars from a variety of disciplines concerning the relationship between religion and violence with special reference to the theories of just war and jihad technical terms that arise in connection with the theology of early medieval Christianity and early Islam respectively The contributors include Hector Avalos Charles K Bellinger Bahar Davary Carol Delaney J Harold Ellens Reuven Firestone R Joseph Hoffmann Judith Lichtenberg Pauletta Otis Gabriel Palmer Fernandez Laura Purdy Joyce E Salisbury Regina M Schwartz and Robert B Tapp In the present global and political climate the significant conversation about why religions provoke conflict and whether any religion is truly harmless cannot be ignored Identity Crises and Indigenous

Religious Traditions Elijah Obinna, 2017-02-10 This book highlights the complex identity crises among many Christians as they negotiate their new identities religious ideas and convictions as both Christians and members of Nigerian African societies of indigenous religious traditions and identities Through an interdisciplinary interpretation of religious practices and educational issues in teaching and ritual training the author provides tools to help analyse empirical cases These include the negotiation processes among Christians with focus on the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria PCN and members of the Ogo society within the Amasiri Afikpo North Local Government Area Ebonyi state in South eastern Nigeria Identifying the power dynamic identity role and influence of indigenous religions on Christians and the Ogo society this book reveals the limited interactions between many Christians and members of the Ogo society Questions explored include what makes the Ogo society an integral part of the socio religious life of Amasiri and what powers and identity does it confer on the initiates how is the PCN within Amasiri responding to the Ogo society through its religious practices such as baptism confirmation local auxiliary ministries and organisational structure and how does the understanding and application of conversion within the PCN impact on its members response to the Ogo society Demonstrating how complex religious identities and practices of Nigerian African Christians can balance mission influenced Christianity with indigenous religious traditions and identities this book recognises the importance of appropriating the powers of indigenous cultures ingenuity and creativity in the construction and preservation of community identities As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Christian theology indigenous religious practice and African lived religion Engaging Our Theological Diversity Unitarian Universalist Commission on Appraisal, 2005 The Principal's Guide to Managing School Personnel Richard D.
