Pushing The Limits Disabled Dykes Produce Culture:

Pushing the Limits Shelley Tremain, 1996 This is a ground breaking anthology of fiction poetry song personal narrative and artwork by disabled dykes The result is a fascinating work which will enrich gay communities and contribute to the efforts of anti ableist and disability groups Foucault and the Government of Disability Shelley Tremain, 2015-06-02 An up to date edition of a foundational collection Historical Dictionary of the Lesbian and Gay Liberation Movements JoAnne Myers, 2013-09-19 Not so long ago hardly anything was said of the Lesbian Liberation Movement and the Gay Liberation Movement indeed the terms gay and lesbian were not even used if some other expression could be found Today by contrast hardly a day passes when something important does not occur and is carried by the major media and disseminated on more personal levels through blogs and the social media If anything there is perhaps too much news and not enough information Obviously a book like this cannot keep up with the news but it can do something equally important when it comes to information by reminding us of the past and what has been going and just how fast events are moving The Historical Dictionary of the Lesbian and Gay Liberation Movements covers the history of this movement through a cross referenced dictionary with over 1000 entries on specific countries and regions influential historical figures laws that criminalized same sex sexuality various historical terms that have been used to refer to aspects of same sex love and contemporary events and legal decisions Including a comprehensive chronology and bibliography this book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone interested in learning more about the struggle for equality The A to Z of the Lesbian Liberation Movement JoAnne Myers, 2009-08-20 The Lesbian Liberation Movement is both a movement that encompasses liberating a sexual practice from stigmatization and a political movement challenging the dual oppression of women by the patriarchy s assumption of male supremacy and heterosexuality Over the years much has been written on homosexuality and the Gay Liberation Movement yet much of the focus has been on male homosexuals especially male homosexual activity and the politics that activity raises The A to Z of the Lesbian Liberation Movement Still the Rage is a comprehensive overview and resource guide for one of the most invisible social political movements the Lesbian Liberation Movement This book helps to make the still active movement visible the history successes setbacks controversies and issues This book is a good resource for those studying this social political movement containing a chronology contextual overview dictionary entries that cover persons laws terminology issues and countries and an extensive bibliography of primary resources and current work

Things No Longer There Susan Krieger, 2005-05-05 Things No Longer There is a lovingly crafted collection of personal stories about the author s struggle toward enlightenment while losing her eyesight It is also more broadly about invisible landscapes places of the heart that linger long after they have disappeared from the world outside In these ten brief tales and one novella length intimate drama Susan Krieger takes us on a series of adventures in vision a journey both inward and to various parts of the country We travel with her as she goes birdwatching before sunrise in the New Mexico desert learns to walk with a white cane revisits an old love returns to a summer camp of her youth and reflects on the nature of blindness and sight Krieger's touching memoir explores the ways that outer landscapes may change and sight may be lost but inner visions persist giving meaning jarring the senses with a very different picture than what appears before the eyes This book will reward both the general reader and those interested in disability studies feminist ethnography and lesbian studies

Beyond Expectation Jacquelyne Luce, 2010-01-01 An in depth study of lesbian bi and queer women's experiences of thinking about and trying to become a parent Beyond Expectation draws on eighty two narrative interviews conducted during the late 1990s in British Columbia Jacquelyne Luce chronicles these women's experiences which took place from 1980 to 2000 during a period that saw significant changes to the governance of assisted reproduction and the status of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender parents and same sex partners Beyond Expectation looks closely at the changing contexts in which women's experiences occurred and draws attention to complex issues such as contracting relationships mediating understandings of biology and genetics and decision making amidst various social legal and medical developments Luce skillfully juxtaposes the stories of her interviewees with the wider public discourses about lesbian bi queer parenting and reproductive technology and highlights gaps in existing legislative reforms Most importantly Beyond Expectation foregrounds the lived experiences of lesbian bi and queer women as they negotiate kinship at the intersection of reproduction technology and politics

Crossroads, Directions and A New Critical Race Theory Francisco Valdes, Angela Harris, Jerome McCristal Culp, 2011-02-07 Its opponents call it part of the lunatic fringe a justification for black separateness the most embarrassing trend in American publishing It is Critical Race Theory But what is Critical Race Theory How did it develop Where does it stand now Where should it go in the future In this volume thirty one CRT scholars present their views on the ideas and methods of CRT its role in academia and in the culture at large and its past present and future Critical race theorists assert that both the procedures and the substance of American law are structured to maintain white privilege The neutrality and objectivity of the law are not just unattainable ideals they are harmful actions that obscure the law's role in protecting white supremacy This notion so obvious to some so unthinkable to others has stimulated and divided legal thinking in this country and increasingly abroad The essays in Crossroads Directions and a New Critical Race Theory all original address this notion in a variety of helpful and exciting ways They use analysis personal experience historical narrative and many other techniques to explain the importance of looking critically at how race permeates our national consciousness

Digital Disability Gerard Goggin, Christopher Newell, 2003 Media representation of and for the disabled has been recharged in recent years with the expansion of new media worldwide Interactive digital communications such as the Internet new varieties of voice and text telephones and digital broadcasting have created a need for a more innovative understanding of new media and disability issues This engaging analysis offers a global perspective on how people with disabilities are represented as users consumers viewers or listeners of new media by policymakers corporations programmers and the disabled themselves

Disability and Masculinities Cassandra Loeser, Vicki Crowley, Barbara Pini, 2017-05-02 In recent years attending to diversity in the cultivation of embodied identity has been given additional impetus as a result of intersectionality theory Despite this a key gap remains in terms of knowledge about masculinity and disability This book addresses this lacuna through ten empirical chapters organised through the inter related themes of corporeality pedagogy and the critique of otherness Each of the chapters positions the subject of masculinity and disability as a site of cultural pedagogy by affirming different ways of knowing of masculinity beyond dominant ideologies that normalise a particular masculine body and relegate disabled masculinities to the position of abnormal Other Part One focuses on pedagogy Through the materialities of medicalized colonialism imprimaturs of relational genealogies compounding differences and an analytical exposition of some of the neo colonial conditions of the Global South within spatially considered places of the Global North Chapter 1 examines the denial of human rights to the Indigenous Anishinaabe community of Shoal Lake 40 in Canada Chapter 1 theorises masculine corporeality in terms that take seriously First Nations national and transnational body politics seriously Chapter 2 examines the ways that movement and affect serve as a form of pedagogy for boys with autism spectrum in schools Part Two's focus on corporeality includes an examination of the nexus of disability and diagnosis in the context of transgender men's experiences of mental health and a discussion of the ways that intersex individuals who identify as men and have experienced genital normalising surgery actively negotiate pluralised masculinities. The focus on media in Part Three encompasses a study of the misinterpellation of the disabled male subject in Australian male literature, research on the discursive strategies utilised in media representations of disabled veterans in Turkey, and an analysis of the political implications of depictions of masculinity, disability and sexualities in a variety of television programs. Part Four's theme of self-stylisation takes up the questions of men's reconstructions of masculinity in light of Lyme Disease, the potential pleasures of heterosexuality for young men with a hearing disability in the realm of Australian Rules Football, and the diverse ways that disabled men negotiate patriarchal masculinity in intimate relationships.
