Bilić,2020-02-13 This book uncovers some of the major moments in the fragile and still poorly known herstory of feminist lesbian engagement in Serbia and Croatia By treating the trauma of war homophobia and neoliberal capitalism as a verbally impenetrable experience that longs to be narrated this monograph explores the ways in which feminist lesbian language has repeatedly emerged in the context of strong patriarchal silencing that has surrounded the armed conflicts of the Yugoslav succession With an abundance of empirical material Bili illuminates a range of courageous but sometimes contested and controversial activist responses to the challenges posed by the violent intersection of misogyny lesbophobia poverty and nationalism The book renders visible a surprising diversity of activist initiatives and the resilience of transnational affective ties which testify to the creativity of lesbian activist mobilisations in the ambivalent semi peripheral space that used to be Yugoslavia Trauma Violence and Lesbian Agency in Croatia and Serbia will be of interest to scholars and students
