

The background of the entire page is a photograph of a sunset or sunrise. The sky is a deep, vibrant red and orange, with a faint rainbow visible on the left side. The water in the foreground is dark and calm, reflecting the colors of the sky. A small, distant boat is visible on the horizon line.

Rainbows And Rain Finding Comfort In Times Of Loss:

Rainbows and Rain Peggy Waterfall, 2005-10-26 Grief and loss are universal experiences which are shared by all but rarely discussed openly. As a result many of us feel alone and isolated when we are in the grip of the crushing emotions that accompany the death of someone we love. Nothing prepares us for the barrage of bewildering behaviors, thoughts and reactions that so often follow a loss. When author Peggy Waterfall watched both parents and her life partner die within one year, she emerged with a unique perspective on the timeless experience of grief and loss. In Rainbows and Rain Finding Comfort in Times of Loss, we learn that it is possible to find joy again but we must first learn to grieve. We also learn that we are often unable to express to others what we are experiencing and can find ourselves at a loss to adequately convey our feelings. We want desperately to find the right words so that we can explain our strange behavior to our families, our co-workers, our friends. This book helps us to understand the importance of being patient with ourselves and is the first step in healing.

Grief Quest Peggy Waterfall, 2006-03 Grief Quest is a guided journal for your grief journey. Designed by Peggy Waterfall, author of Rainbows and Rain Finding Comfort in Times of Loss, this spiral bound lined journal has prompts to get you started without assuming where your thoughts will take you. Newly bereaved individuals, hospice and bereavement counselors, and grief groups will find this especially helpful. Begin the journey, start your grief quest with this very special journal.

If You Want the Rainbow, Welcome the Rain Anne O'Neil, 2013-06-19 Sufi poet Ghalib said, "Held back, unvoiced grief bruises the heart." This is the story of a heart bruised for many years and the hurt around that. After her father dies of liver cancer, the author finally awakens and steps into a spiritual and sober life, including healing from grief, from despair, from decades of inauthentic living. This hopeful story illustrates what is possible when grief is honored and transcended. With admirable honesty, O'Neil recounts her journey from family dysfunction and alcoholism to a life of spiritual exploration and understanding. Susan Richards, NY Times bestselling author, "Her honesty is compelling and her journey offers many lessons. I could not stop reading this book." Sally Helgesen, author The Female Advantage: The Female Vision, "This book is courageous, human, insightful, and truly inspiring. It will help many readers immensely." Kimberly Hughes, Sacred Self Living: Healing Grief, Finding Peace. Louis LaGrand, 2011-10 Featuring specific how-tos that ultimately lead the reader toward inner peace, Healing Grief Finding Peace offers an innovative approach to grieving. Readers can choose whichever coping techniques suit them best and learn to actively take back their lives, one step at a time. Based in part on the survival skills workshops given by the author to the bereaved as well as professional grief counselors, the 101 coping strategies are presented in a practical, easy-to-use format where the reader can begin with immediate access to whatever speaks to their needs the most. To

Bring Comfort and Consolation Paddy Shannon, 2022-05-19 In 2012 the author was invited by the Parish Pastoral Council in Newcastle Co. Down to help establish a Bereavement Ministry in the Parish. Unable to find exactly the course structure he was looking for, he designed his own course. He has divided it into five sections: The Human Experience of Grief, drawing on my own experiences and what some of the leading experts in grief have written The Liturgy of Mourning as used in the Catholic Church Grief in the Scriptures setting elements of section 1 within a scriptural context A selection of suggested Scripture readings with reflections and some sample prayers of intercession These are intended to be used by ordained and lay ministers for their personal reflection and in preparing funeral homilies They may also be of solace to grieving people A selection of prose poems and prayers This book is directed primarily to those involved in bereavement ministry The Murder of Rachel Wanda Moran,2011-05-02 At 1 45am on New Year s Day Rachel Moran left her mother s house to make the 20 minute walk back to her own flat She never arrived Rachel was just like many women of her age loved by her family adored by her boyfriend and with a bright future ahead of her Her fatal mistake was to walk the mile or so alone to feed the kittens she and her boyfriend kept She was taken from the street and brutally murdered by Michael Little Her body wasn t discovered for a month In an attempt to make sense of what happened that night and in the months that followed her mother kept a diary of what happened A harrowing and heart wrenching story the murder of Rachel Moran will stay with you forever

Shadows Point to Rainbows Linda Franklin,2020-04-07 Down through history dogs have been great friends to humans Dog owners know how remarkably dogs can adapt They are intelligent compassionate loyal and protective Shadows Point to Rainbows An Unwanted Dog Becomes an Injured Boy s Best Friend is a tribute to one German shepherd who was providentially assigned to a young man living in north central Oregon With a tap at the door Champion came into young Jed Franklin s life His mother faithfully recounts how this loving and faithful friend stood by his master helping him recover from a life threatening life changing accident when he was eight years old so he could grow into manhood This touching and faith building story about a gift of God wrapped in fur was written to share lessons and encouragements from the providential events of the life of a boy growing up with his dog Rather than withdrawing into himself the young man was able to see the rainbows of life that follow the clouds Prospero's Daughter Elizabeth Nunez,2007-12-18 A spellbinding new novel from acclaimed author Elizabeth Nunez Prospero s Daughter is a brilliantly conceived retelling of Shakespeare s The Tempest set on a lush Caribbean island during the height of tensions between the native population and British colonists Addressing questions of race class and power it is first and foremost the story of a boy and a girl who come of age and violate the ultimate taboo Cut off from the main island of Trinidad by a glistening green sea Chacachacare has few inhabitants besides its colony of lepers and a British doctor who fled England with his three year old daughter Virginia An amoral genius Peter Gardner had used his talents to unsavory ends experimenting often with fatal results on unsuspecting patients Blackmailed by his own brother Peter ends up on the small island as England s empire is starting to crumble On Chacachacare Peter experiments chiefly on the wild Caribbean flora and on the dark skinned orphan Carlos whose home he steals Though Peter considers the boy no better than a savage he nonetheless schools the child alongside his daughter But as Carlos and Virginia grow up under the same roof they become deeply and covertly attached to one another When Peter discovers the pair s secret and accuses Carlos of a heinous crime it is up to a brusque insensitive English inspector to discover the truth During his investigation a disturbing picture begins to emerge as a monstrous secret is finally drawn into the light From the Hardcover edition Jan's Rainbow; Stories of Hope; How Those We Have Loved and Lost Stay in Touch Lindsay Collier, 2002-06-05 It was just one day after Lindsay Collier's wife of forty years Jan lost her battle with ovarian cancer that a beautiful rainbow surrounded their home in upstate New York where family members were gathered to celebrate her life Since that time there have been many amazing experiences that have provided some very compelling proof that Jan is not very far away And Lindsay a former engineer engineers always need proof is not one who is prone to fantasy which makes these occurrences all the more believable He also tells about some other rather amazing experiences that he and his family have had following losses of other loved ones These stories alone will make a believer out of you But there is much more Lindsay also found that as he related these stories to friends and associates he would often find that they would frequently offer their own stories about how lost loved ones had made contact with them The stories were amazing and revolved around everything from dragonflies to birds to lights and clocks changing to things appearing out of nowhere There are more than twenty five of these included in the book all of which will leave you feeling very good and a little less lonely for those you have lost Lindsay made a commitment to learn as much as he could from his loss and to help others to find ways to survive their loss He has spoken to a number of bereavement groups about how to survive loss and shares these insights in Jan's Rainbow His suggestions and ideas on dealing with loss come from true experience Before taking early retirement Lindsay was the Creative Thinking Guru for Kodak so his ideas tend to be different As he says Losing a loved one is a life changing experience and it requires some very creative thinking to get through it There are some wonderful and very different tips for dealing with loss included that will ease the journey through the bereavement process Included are ways to re frame your thinking how to use positive humor in your healing and the use of metaphors to expand your thinking or finding innovative ways to survive and much much more This book is a must for anyone who has lost a loved one or knows of someone who has It is the ultimate feel good book for helping people to deal with losing a loved one You'll cry you'll laugh and you'll be lifted to a new level of hope A substantial portion of the proceeds of this book will be donated to Gilda's Club of Rochester New York an organization built in memory of Gilda Radner which provides help to women with cancer Jan's Rainbow Lindsay Collier, 2002 It was just one day after Lindsay Collier's wife of forty years Jan lost her battle with ovarian cancer that a beautiful rainbow surrounded their home in upstate New York where family members were gathered to celebrate her life Since that time there have been many amazing experiences that have provided some very compelling proof that Jan is not very far away And Lindsay a former engineer engineers always need proof is not one who is prone to fantasy which makes these occurrences all the more believable He also tells about some other rather amazing experiences that he and his family have had following losses of other loved ones These stories alone will make a believer out of you But there is much more

Lindsay also found that as he related these stories to friends and associates he would often find that they would frequently offer their own stories about how lost loved ones had made contact with them. The stories were amazing and revolved around everything from dragonflies to birds to lights and clocks changing to things appearing out of nowhere. There are more than twenty-five of these included in the book, all of which will leave you feeling very good and a little less lonely for those you have lost. Lindsay made a commitment to learn as much as he could from his loss and to help others to find ways to survive their loss. He has spoken to a number of bereavement groups about how to survive loss and shares these insights in Jan's Rainbow. His suggestions and ideas on dealing with loss come from true experience. Before taking early retirement, Lindsay was the Creative Thinking Guru for Kodak, so his ideas tend to be different. As he says, Losing a loved one is a life-changing experience and it requires some very creative thinking to get through it. There are some wonderful and very different tips for dealing with loss included that will ease the journey through the bereavement process. Included are ways to re-frame your thinking, how to use positive humor in your healing, and the use of metaphors to expand your thinking or finding innovative ways to survive and much, much more. This book is a must for anyone who has lost a loved one or knows of someone who has. It is the ultimate feel-good book for helping people to deal with losing a loved one. You'll cry, you'll laugh, and you'll be lifted to a new level of hope. A substantial portion of the proceeds of this book will be donated to Gilda's Club of Rochester, New York, an organization built in memory of Gilda Radner which provides help to women with cancer.

What to Do When Life Falls Down Around You Elizabeth B. Brown, 2020-04-21 In this practical and encouraging book, trusted author Elizabeth B. Brown shows you not only how to survive life's difficulties but how to move beyond them to a place of strength and confidence. Assuring you that you are not alone, Brown helps you face your situation with a sense of hope, find people you can trust to walk alongside you, and move through the most difficult times with strength. You were not made for a life defined by the chaos of crises; you were made to persevere through trouble and come out the other side stronger.

Marie, 2019-05-14 The Way to the Kingdom of Love and Peace is based on a true story of survival through disease, abuse, and divorce. Donna Marie lost contact with her biological dad growing up. She started writing one Father's Day when she came across some old letters she received from her dad that he sent to her when she was a young adult. She shares these letters with you along with the trials she faced on her journey in search of love in all the wrong places. She also shares her testimony of how she finally found true love. What she wants is for you to discover on her journey, and yours is that you are loved beyond measure; there is hope and dreams can come true.
