Robson,2015-04-25 When the first edition of Raincoast Chronicles was produced by a couple of novice publishers in the unlikely location of Pender Harbour in 1972 it boldly announced that it was going to put BC character on the record Printed in sepia ink and decorated with the rococo flourishes characteristic of that extravagant era the unclassifiable journal cum serial book about life on the BC coast struck a nerve and in time became something very close to what it set out to be a touchstone of British Columbia identity Soon the term Raincoast which had been coined by the editors was appearing on boats puppet theatres interior decorating firms and at least one other publishing enterprise Raincoast Chronicles also created another publishing enterprise Harbour Publishing Many of the stories that started out as articles in the Chronicles grew into books and so the White family was more or less forced to get into book publishing to deal with them That undertaking went on to publish some six hundred books and counting about every possible aspect of BC and in 2014 celebrated its fortieth anniversary in the biz To honour that occasion this special double issue of Raincoast Chronicles takes a tour down memory lane selecting a trove of the most outstanding stories in all those Harbour books and republishing them in one volume Here are some of Canada s most exciting and iconic writers Al Purdy Anne Cameron Edith Iglauer Patrick Lane and Grant Lawrence to start a long list Here also are stories of disasters at sea scarcely believable bush plane feats eerie events at coastal ghost towns and a First Nations elder who has seen so many sasquatches he finds them sort of boring Full of great drawings and photos this jumbo anniversary edition of Raincoast Chronicles is a feast of great Pacific Northwest storytelling International Books in Print ,1991 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Canadian Books in Print ,2003 God's Little Ships Michael L.

Hadley,1995 The men and women of the Columbia Coast Mission ships legendary figures in the history of the BC coast are brought vividly to life in this readable well researched volume From 1904 to the mid 1970s the mission sent out ships in all kinds of weather delivering medical care and non sectarian spiritual support to logging camps Native villages and white settlements in 20 000 square miles of rugged coastline John Antle who founded the mission was a devout and practical Christian who measured his success in services to BC s outposts rather than material wealth or number of converts Immortalized in Margaret Craven s I Heard the Owl Call My Name and in the hearts and memories of families all over the coast the mission was a glad bold organization that could be as rough cut and unconventional as the individuals it served

Small Matters Mona Gleason,2013 An innovative study of the struggle for healthy children in early twentieth century Canada Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler,2000 A Bridge of Ships James Pritchard,2011-05-20 In A Bridge of Ships James Pritchard tells the story of the rapidly changing circumstances and forceful personalities that shaped government shipbuilding policy He examines the ownership and expansion of the shipyards and the role of ship repairing as well as recruitment and training of the labour force He also tells the story of the struggle for steel and the expansion of ancillary industries Pritchard provides a definitive picture of Canada's wartime ship production assesses the cost more than 1 2 billion and explains why such an enormous effort left such a short lived legacy The story of Canada's shipbuilding industry is as astonishing as that of the nation's wartime navy The personnel of both expanded more than fifty times yet the history of wartime shipbuilding remains virtually unknown With the disappearance of the Canadian shipbuilding industry from both the land and memory it is time to recall and assess its contribution to Allied victory BCLA Reporter British Columbia Library Association, 1994
