Inge Fernbach Rabe was born in Germany in 1924 nine years before Adolf Hitler's rise to power Her early childhood years were marked with love laughter and happiness Early in 1933 her innocent and carefree world began to crumble It began slowly with name calling At first she didn't know the meaning of the word Jew Although her grandfather had been Jewish Inge had been raised in a Christian family Under the German laws of the time she was considered half Jewish and therefore racially impure Her family bore the full brunt of Nazi economic sanctions when her Papa's business was ruined Soon she was experiencing the pain of rejection when many of her friends were no longer allowed to play with her and the disappointment of being deprived of educational opportunities Inge and her family endured difficulties that had previously been unthinkable She was sustained through tragic circumstances by her loving mother and a deep faith in God as her Heavenly Father She rejoiced when Allied forces finally liberated the people of Germany and looked forward to building a new life After struggling for ten years in post war Germany she decided to immigrate to the United States Her new adventure began on April 4 1955 As an immigrant she had to master a new language learn new customs earn a living and catch up on her education Although she often found herself in difficult circumstances the kindness of the American people kept her going Years later happily married and with a son and daughter she looked back on her struggles and thanked God for seeing her through to better times Happiness doesn't last forever though Her husband passed away unexpectedly leaving her to care for two young children Once again she would have to rely on faith and determination to survive And once again she would discover that God's blessings do arrive in the midst of hardship Inge is retired now and fills her days with gardening and writing      Basic Camp Management Armand B. McMillan,2022-06-09 My sand life my pebble life My life measured out in tides coming in and going out My life measured out in games of trying to spot the sea first My life measured out in the delicious and indulgent sadness that comes from leaving a holiday cottage for the last time and for the first time in several days it isn't raining but at least the kids have had a great time and let's face it so have you Warm and darkly funny this sublimely crafted book transports you in a blue Ford Zephyr with an AA route map a granny in the back and a bingo hall on the horizon to the world of childhoods by the sea Specifically Ian's memories of childhood ones we'll all identify with endless sunny days on the beach done to a turn fish and chips legendary games of cricket tea and cakes and family crammed into a tiny caravan holiday cottages that live forever buckets of shells a busted fishing net and enough sand to make a beach with the tide out way out In this nostalgic collection of reminiscences with the odd poem thrown in journey with Ian as he walks barefoot to the sea to see the sun rise He is attacked by seagulls and midges and wasps He eats a lot of fish and chips and it's always the best yet He nearly avoids a frisbee He searches for jazz in Scarborough He walks He even tries to run But mostly he savours the sea and our seaside moments and our seaside dreams If you want a shot of salty sea air a tussle with a seagull and the congenial companionship of someone described as relentlessly jolly The Guardian this will be a joyous and moving read      The Sword of
