"Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915" James H. Rubin, 2017-07-05 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 This collection puts forward a more complex history of the relationship between art and music than has been described in earlier works including an intermixing of models and distinctions between approaches to them Individual essays from art history musicology and literature examine the growing influence of art upon music and vice versa in the works of Berlioz Courbet Manet Fantin Latour Rodin Debussy and the Pre-Raphaelites among other artists

The Aesthetics of Mythmaking in German Postwar Culture André Fischer, 2024-03-15 Myths are a central part of our reality But merely debunking them lets us forget why they are created in the first place and why we need them André Fischer draws on key examples from German postwar culture from novelists Hans Henny Jahn and Hubert Fichte to sculptor and performance artist Joseph Beuys and filmmaker Werner Herzog to show that mythmaking is an indispensable human practice in times of crisis Against the background of mythologies based in nineteenth century romanticism and their ideological continuation in Nazism fresh forms of mythmaking in the narrative visual and performative arts emerged as an aesthetic paradigm in postwar modernism Boldly rewriting the cultural history of an era and setting in transition The Aesthetics of Mythmaking in German Postwar Culture counters the predominant narrative of an exclusively rational Vergangenheitsbewältigung coming to terms with the past Far from being merely reactionary the turn toward myth offered a dimension of existential orientation that had been neglected by other influential aesthetic paradigms of the postwar period Fischer's wide ranging transmedia account offers an inclusive perspective on myth beyond storytelling and instead develops mythopoesis as a formal strategy of modernism at large

The Most Magic Word William L Moran, 2023-12-07 This book brings together a valuable collection of 14 previously published essays and one not published filled with insight and erudition by William L Moran He for many years was the Andrew Mellon Professor of the Humanities at Harvard University He had studied with W F Albright Benno Landsberger and Thorkild Jacobson and taught Assyriology at Harvard They include The Creation of Man in Atrahasis I 192-249 New Evident from Mari on the History of Prophecy The ANE Background of the Love of God in Deuteronomy The Babylonian Job and The epic of Gilgamesh A Document of Ancient Humanism The Catalog of the Gerhard Mayer Collection of Rainer Maria Rilke at the University of Illinois Library at Urbana-Champaign University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Library, 1988 Wartime Letters of Rainer Maria Rilke Rainer Maria Rilke, 1964-05-17 The letters Rilke wrote during the war and postwar years are of particular interest not only for whatever they may contain of the wisdom of the poet the artist and the humanitarian but for their analysis of the intellectual and spiritual currents of the time These letters give the account of Rilke's own state of mind and of his final approach to the threshold of his great works They show the rapid change he underwent after his reaction to the first excitement of the war how his dismay at the cruelty and confusion of war helped to render the poet in him speechless for many years how he nevertheless characteristically held to his own fundamental views throughout war and revolution and in spite of everything retained his belief in the capacity of humanity to create for itself a better future

Nodes of Translation Martin Christof-Fuchsle, Razak Khan, 2024-01-29 The volume examines translation of key German texts into the modern Indian languages as well as translation from the vernacular languages of South Asia into German Our key concerns are shifting historical contexts concepts and translation practices Bringing an intellectual history dimension to translation studies we explore the history of translation translators and sites of translation The organization of the volume follows some key questions Which texts were being translated At what point or period in time did this happen What were the motivations behind these translations Topics covered range from thematic nodes or clusters e.g. translations of Economics texts and ideas into Urdu or the translation of Marx and Engels into Marathi to personal endeavours such as the first Hindi translation of Goethe's Faust done by Bholanath Sharma in 1939 Missionary as well as Marxist activist translation work from Malayalam Tamil and Telugu is included too On the other hand German translations of

Tagore and Gandhi setting in shortly after 1912 are also examined Also discussed are political strategies of publication of translations from modern Indian languages guiding the output of publishing houses in the GDR after 1949 Further included are the translator s perspective and the contemporary translation and literary culture What happens through the process of linguistic translation in the realm of cultural translation What can a historical study of translation tell us about the history of Indo German intellectual entanglements in the long twentieth century The volume brings together multifaceted interdisciplinary research work from South Asian and German studies to answer some of these questions Wartime Letters of Rainer Maria Rilke, 1914-1921 Rainer Maria Rilke,1940 Structures of Epic Poetry Christiane Reitz,Simone Finkmann,2019-12-16 This compendium 4 vols studies the continuity flexibility and variation of structural elements in epic narratives It provides an overview of the structural patterns of epic poetry by means of a standardized stringent terminology Both diachronic developments and changes within individual epics are scrutinized in order to provide a comprehensive structural approach and a key to intra and intertextual characteristics of ancient epic poetry Briefwechsel [of] Rainer Maria Rilke [and] Helene von Nostitz Rainer Maria Rilke,1976 Dear Friend Eric Torgersen,2000-04 In 1908 Rainer Maria Rilke wrote his Requiem for a Friend in memory of Paula Modersohn Becker the German painter who had had a profound effect on him both personally and artistically and who had died a year earlier Modersohn Becker despite being one of the great modern painters is today remembered primarily as she is portrayed in that poem In Dear Friend Eric Torgersen looks at the relationship of these two great artists whose vexed seven year friendship was extraordinarily productive for both and offers an introduction to the life and work of Modersohn Becker a gifted and determined woman whose work stands comparison with that of any painter of her day Included in the book are sixteen illustrations as well as new translations by Torgersen of Rilke s Requiem for a Friend and of the love poems Rilke wrote for Becker shortly after they met Torgersen discusses Modersohn Becker s vital paintings including her unfinished portrait of Rilke He quotes extensively from the letters and journals of both figures translating many of Rilke s into English for the first time Finally Torgersen addresses the unanswered question of whether the two were ever lovers and offers new insights into Rilke s writing of Requiem for a Friend Jacket Rilke's Venice Birgit Haustedt,2019-09-15 For the Austrian poet and novelist Rainer Maria Rilke travel was not only integral to his work it was a way of life Venice stands out as a location of particular importance to Rilke and he visited the city ten times between 1897 and 1920 This city has inspired countless writers and artists but Rilke both enthralled and provoked by it reveals a striking and deeply felt love for the city He was as eager to explore the city s underbelly its deserted shipyards and back alleys as he was to experience its iconic sights of St Mark s and the Doge s Palace Staying in both simple guesthouses and the grand palaces of his patrons Rilke would walk prodigiously His contemporary Stefan Zweig commented that knowing every last corner and depth of the city was his passion and Rilke himself said his walking allowed him to grasp the whole breadth of the city In eleven walks Birgit Haustedt guides readers through Venice following the poet s footsteps Haustedt invites us to look on the beloved sights of the city through Rilke's eyes offering a new vision of this famed destination Rilke's Venice provides new insight into one of the finest and most widely recognized writers of the twentieth century It also acts as a literary travel companion and guidebook to Venice offering eleven detailed maps of walks through the city
