Reading In Detail Aesthetics And The Feminine:

Reading in Detail Naomi Schor, 2013-10-18 Who cares about details As Naomi Schor explains in her highly influential book we do but it has not always been so The interest in detail in art in literature and as an aesthetic category is the product of the decline of classicism and the rise of realism But the story of the detail is as political as it is aesthetic Secularization the disciplining of society the rise of consumerism the invention of the quotidian have all brought detail to the fore In this classic work of aesthetic and feminist theory now available in a new paperback edition Schor provides ways of thinking about details and ornament in literature art and architecture and uncovering the unspoken but powerful ideologies that attached gender to details Wide ranging and richly argued Reading in Detail presents ideas about reading and viewing that will enhance the study of literature and the arts

Woman and Chinese Modernity Rey Chow, We live in an era in which the critique of the West has become not only possible but mandatory Where does this critique leave those peoples whose entry into culture is precisely because of the history of Western imperialism already Westernized This is the primary question Rey Chow addresses in Woman and Chinese Modernity Book cover

Embodying Beauty Malin Pereira, 2021-12-12 First Published in 2000 This study stands alone in pairing black and white American women writers across the twentieth century on the intertwined issues of female beauty and literary aesthetics Other studies published during the late 1980s and early 1990s such as Aldon Lynn Nielsen's Reading Race White American Poets and the Racial Discourse in the Twentieth Century 1988 Dana B Nelson's The Word in Black and White Reading Race in American Literature 1638 1867 1992 Eric J Sundquist's To Wake the Nations Race in the Making of American Literature 1993 and Laura Doyle's Bordering on the Body The Racial Matrix of Modern Fiction and Culture 1994 have also engaged in the process of reading racialist discourse in white texts or in attempting to construct a dialogue between black and white texts None however has been concerned with female beauty and literary aesthetics in relation to twentieth century American women writers and race New Feminist Art Criticism Katy Deepwell,1995 This text reviews feminist art strategies as they emerged in the late 1980s and early 1990s in America and the UK It draws together the views of prominent practitioners critics academics and curators on a broad range of controversial issues The central focus of the book is feminism s engagement with psychoanalysis and post modernism and its aim of deconstructing the borders between art and craft and theory and practice Feminist politics in the art world are also investigated through discussion of the negotiations of feminist curators responses to feminist exhibitions issues surrounding pornography and the censorship of women s work and the role of feminist teaching on fine art and design degree courses The book covers a variety of art work including installation work painting textiles and photography British Television Drama J. Bignell,S. Lacey,2014-05-12 Featuring leading scholars of British television drama and noted writers and producers from the television industry this new edition of British Television Drama evaluates past and present TV fiction since the 1960s and considers its likely future The Romance of Origins Gayle Margherita,2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas Autobiography and Questions of Gender Shirley Neuman,2015-08-14 Originally published in 1991 Addressing the ways in which the ideology of gender and its social construction determine autobiographical self representations the essays here consider several women s works in the light of the social and historical conditions which enabled their production Some examine diaries as a feminine form and ask about the ways in which thematic content such as childbirth can or cannot be represented in diaries and public discourse at different historical junctures Others show the pressures of gender roles and how they have led to new genres in which self representation is often a refraction of the representation of others With the tools of gender theory the representation of hermaphroditism masculinity and male bodies is analysed and the ways in which gender intersects with racial sexual and class ideologies is also looked at in seeing autobiography as a form of agency in self construction The Forms of the Affects Eugenie Brinkema,2014-05-12 What is the relationship between a cinematic grid of color and that most visceral of negative affects disgust How might anxiety be a matter of an interrupted horizontal line or grief a figure of blazing light Offering a bold corrective to the emphasis on embodiment and experience in recent affect theory Eugenie Brinkema develops a novel mode of criticism that locates the forms of particular affects within the specific details of cinematic and textual construction Through close readings of works by Roland Barthes Hollis Frampton Sigmund Freud Peter Greenaway Michael Haneke Alfred Hitchcock S ren Kierkegaard and David Lynch Brinkema shows that deep attention to form structure and aesthetics enables a fundamental rethinking of the study of sensation In the process she delves into concepts as diverse as putrescence in French gastronomy the role of the tear in philosophies of emotion Nietzschean joy as a wild aesthetic of repetition and the psychoanalytic theory of embarrassment Above all this provocative work is a call to harness the vitality of the affective turn for a renewed exploration of the possibilities of cinematic form Married, Middlebrow, and Militant Teresa Mangum, 1998 Examines the life and work of this daring nineteenth century author and women's rights advocate Body Work Peter Brooks, 1993 The desire to know the body is a powerful dynamic of storytelling in all its forms Peter Brooks argues that modern narrative is intent on uncovering the body in order to expose a truth that must be written in the flesh In a book that ranges widely through literature and painting Brooks shows how the imagination strives to bring the body into language and to write stories on the body From Rousseau Balzac Mary Shelley and Flaubert to George Eliot Zola Henry James and Marguerite Duras from Manet and Gauguin to Mapplethorpe writers and artists have returned in fascination to the body the inescapable other of the spirit Brooks's deep understanding of psychoanalysis informs his demonstration of how the epistemophilic urge the desire to know guides fictional plots and our reading of them It is the sexual body that furnishes the building blocks of symbolization eventually of language itself which then takes us away from the body Yet mind and language need to recover the body as an other realm that is primary to their very definition Brooks shows how and why the female body has become the field upon which the aspirations anxieties and contradictions of a whole society are played out And he suggests how writers and artists have found in the woman's body the dynamic principle of their storytelling its motor force This major book entertains and teaches Brooks presumes no special knowledge on the part of his readers His account proceeds chronologically from Rousseau in the eighteenth century forward to contemporary artists and writers Body Work gives us a set of analytical tools and ideas primarily from psychoanalysis narrative and film studies and feminist theory that enable us to read modern narrative afresh Deciphering Culture Jane Crisp, Kay Ferres, Gillian Swanson, 2000 This key title explores the issues of representation subjectivity and sexuality focusing in particular on the ways that representations are used to form identities in different spheres of life Materiality in Modernist Short Fiction Laura Oulanne, 2021-05-30 Materiality in Modernist Short Fiction provides a fresh approach to reading material things in modern fiction accounting for the interplay of the material and the cultural This volume investigates how Djuna Barnes Katherine Mansfield and Jean Rhys use the short story form to evoke the material world as both living and lived and how the spaces they create for challenging gendered social norms can also be nonanthropocentric spaces for encounters between the human and the nonhuman Using the unique knowledge created by literary works to spark new conversations between phenomenology cognitive studies and new materialisms complemented with a feminist perspective this book explores how literature can touch the basic experience of being in feeling and making sense of a material world that is itself alive and active From a sensitive reading of how three women used the material world to make their readers see feel and question the norms shaping our experience this volume draws a theory of reading affective materiality that illuminates modernism and the short story form but also reaches beyond them The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
