Margolies,1990 Rehema a nine year old girl who lives in the mountains of Tanzania accompanies her father to Arusha City and visits the Ngorongoro Crater Exploring Our World Kathleen M. Hollenbeck,1997 Inquiry-Based Global Learning in the K-12 Social Studies Classroom Brad M. Maguth,Gloria Wu,2020-05-10 This book edited by experienced scholars in the field brings together a diverse array of educators to showcase lessons activities and instructional strategies that advance inquiry oriented global learning Directly aligned to the College Career and Civic Life C3 Framework for Social Studies State Standard this work highlights ways in which global learning can seamlessly be interwoven into the disciplines of history economics geography civics psychology sociology and anthropology Recently adopted by the National Council for the Social Studies the nation s largest professional organization of history and social studies teachers the C3 Framework prioritizes inquiry oriented learning experiences across the social studies disciplines in order to advance critical thinking problem solving and participatory skills for engaged citizenship Envisioning Eden Noel B. Salazar,2010-11-01 As tourism service standards become more homogeneous travel destinations worldwide are conforming yet still trying to maintain or even increase their distinctiveness Based on more than two years of fieldwork in Yogyakarta Indonesia and Arusha Tanzania this book offers an in depth investigation of the local to global dynamics of contemporary tourism Each destination offers examples that illustrate how tour guide narratives and practices are informed by widely circulating imaginaries of the past as well as personal imaginings of the future Multidisciplinary Units for Prekindergarten Through Grade 2 Jeri Carroll,M. G. (Peggy) Kelly,Tonya L. Witherspoon,2003 Includes dozens of exciting lesson plans and activities as well as essays examining pedagogical and classroom management issues unique to this age group Every Day a Holiday Elizabeth Raum,2001 Matches quality children s books with each day of the year to provide a focus for story time The lessons in this book will help children develop creative connections between reading and the world around them introducing them to many other people and places throughout the world Doing History Linda S. Levstik,Keith C. Barton,2011-01-26 Now in its fourth edition this popular text offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The central assumption is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and data analysis examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts In each chapter the authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory thus providing specific examples of successful activities and placing them in a theoretical context that allows teachers to adapt and apply them in a wide variety of settings New in the Fourth Edition Expanded coverage of world history in two new chapters Integration of new technologies to support history instruction Updated classroom examples bibliographies and references
