Religion And Custom In A Muslim Society The Berti Of Sudan:

Religion and Custom in a Muslim Society Ladislav Holý, 1991-07-26 Among the Berti of Northern Darfur Sudan as among many Muslim societies the formal religious practices are predominantly the concern of men while local unorthodox customary rituals are performed mainly by women It is usual to dismiss such local popular practices as pre Islamic survivals but Professor Holy shows that the customary rituals constitute an integral part of the religious system of the Berti Carefully analysing the symbolic statements made in Berti rituals Professor Holy demonstrates that the distinction between the two classes of rituals is an expression of the gender relationships characteristic of the society He also examines the social distribution of knowledge about Islam and explains the role of the religious schools in sustaining religious ideas The work is not only an ethnographic study of ritual belief and gender in an African society It also makes a significant contribution to current anthropological discussion of the interpretation and meaning of rituals and symbols The Sudan Handbook John Ryle, 2011 The handbook offers a concise introduction to all aspects of the country rooted in a broad historical account of the development of the Sudanese state from publisher description Religion and Sexuality in Cross-Cultural Perspective Stephen Ellingson, M. Christian Green, 2014-03-18 Issues of sexuality and gender are hotly contested in both religious communities and national cultures around the world In the social sciences religious traditions are often depicted as inherently conservative or even reactionary in their commitments to powerful patriarchal and pronatalist sexual norms and gender categories In illuminating the practices of religious traditions in various cultures these essays expose the diversity of religious rituals and mythologies pertaining to sexuality In the process the contributors challenge conventional notions of what is normative in our sexual lives Transformation Des Identités Féminines Eva Evers Rosander, 1997 Contains 13 essays which discuss formal women's organizations informal associations related to rural and semiurban organization of work women's religious associations and individual strategies outside the framework of associations Submitting to God Sylva Frisk, 2009 This study of the everyday religious practice of pious women within Kuala Lumpur's affluent Malay middle class reveals that women play an active part in the Islamization process by organizing and participating in public programs of religious education transforming the traditionally male dominated space of the mosque and breaking men's monopoly over positions of religious authority Sylva Frisk is a lecturer in the School of Global Studies at Gothenburg University Sweden

Social Reproduction and History in Melanesia Robert John Foster, 1995-04-27 In much of Melanesia the process of social reproduction unfolds as a lengthy sequence of mortuary rites feast making and gift giving through which the living publicly define their social relations with each other while at the same time commemorating the deceased In this study Robert J Foster constructs an ethnographic account of mortuary rites in the Tanga Islands Papua New Guinea placing these large scale feasts and ceremonial exchanges in their historical context and demonstrating how the effects of participation in an expanding cash economy have allowed Tangans to conceive of the rites as customary in opposition to the new and foreign practices of business His examination synthesizes two divergent trends in Melanesian anthropology by emphasizing both the radical differences between Melanesian and Western forms of sociality and the conjunction of Melanesian and Western societies brought about by colonialism and capitalism In the City of the Marabouts Geert Mommersteeg, 2011-09-11

From the opening pages amidst the throes of Ramadan during the hottest and driest season in Mali Dutch ethnographer Geert Mommersteeg welcomes readers into the religious culture of a historic city uniquely filled with Islamic scholars known as marabouts This finely crafted English language translation provides a remarkable contribution to the study of Islamic practices and beliefs observed in local contexts in sub Saharan Africa with a focus on the interrelationship between public and secret knowledge of maraboutage in everyday reality This inviting personal narrative of an anthropologist's long term fieldwork in Djenné for centuries a center of West African culture scholarship and architecture is full of valuable methodological insights Mommersteeg with unassuming honesty becomes absorbed in the knowledge of the Holy Word and slowly enters the closed world of religious practice in which marabouts serve as intermediaries between God and their clients While marabouts do not claim to be all knowing they do know how God can be addressed most effectively which amulets are the most powerful and which alms are best for nudging the future in the right direction Islamic Homosexualities Will Roscoe, Stephen O. Murray, 1997-02-01

Infibulation Esther Hicks, 2018-01-16 Infibulation is the most extreme form of female circumci sion It plays an important role in the Islamic societies of northeastern Africa Until now the social significance and function of this practice has been poorly understood In this volume Hicks analyzes female circumcision as a cultural trait embedded in a historically traditional milieu and shows why it cannot be treated in isolation as a single issue destined for elimination
