The Tertiaries Companion Third Order Secular of St. Francis, 1954

Fictive Orders and Feminine Religious Identities, 1200-1600 Alison More, 2018-02-17 Any visitor to Belgium or the Netherlands is immediately struck by the number of convents and beguinages begun in both major cities and small towns Their number and location in urban centres suggests that the women who inhabited them once held a prominent role Despite leaving a visible mark on cities in Europe much of the story of these women known variously as beguines tertiaries klopjes recluses and anchoresses remains to be told Instead of aspiring to live as traditional religious they transcended normative assumptions about religion and gender and had a very real impact on their religious and secular worlds The sources for their tale are often fragmentary and difficult to interpret However careful scrutiny allows their voices to be heard Drawing on an array of sources including religious rules sermons hagiographic vitae and raparia Fictive Orders and Feminine Religious Identities traces the story of pious laywomen between the thirteenth and sixteenth centuries It both emphasizes the innovative roles of women who transcended established forms of institutional religious life and reveals the ways in which historiographical habits have obscured the dynamic and fluid nature of their histories By highlighting the development of irregular and extraregular communities and tracing the threads of monasticisation that wove their way around pious laywomen this book draws attention to the vibrant and dynamic culture of feminine lay piety that persisted from the later middle ages onwards
