A Companion to Javier Marías David K. Herzberger, 2011 This book provides the most comprehensive study to date of the full range of Marias writing including discussion and analysis of his literary and intellectual formation his development as a novelist and short story writer and his unique perspective offered in nearly twenty five years of newspaper columns on topics ranging from religion to football Above all Marias is examined as a writer of fictions As a translator of several canonical works from English to Spanish Marias came to appreciate the preciseness of words as well as their ambiguity their capacity to represent as well as their propensity to distort The author examines Marias s constant awareness of how language can be used to construct stories as the foundation for engaging the world as well as for imagining it The nature of Marias s storytelling and the way in which he imagines form the principal focus of this Companion Publisher description

Things that Matter William L. Randall, Matte Robinson, 2023-11-30 Many of us have particular things in our lives photographs paintings old letters books furniture jewellery or clothing that hold special meaning for us Often they correspond to pivotal memories and can be central to our sense of self and our life narratives all the more so as we age Things That Matter sheds important light on the intricate intertwining of mementos with stories and vice versa in most people s lives The book explores the significance of cherished objects within the life stories of nine participants in a qualitative study of the links between reminiscence and resilience in later life The researchers who conducted the study represent a variety of fields including gerontology social work ministry nursing literature and education The book details how life stories can be fraught with a wide range of insights and questions from the memories that get stirred up as people embark on the process of life review prompted by the challenges and changes of aging Shedding light on the complex emotional psychological and spiritual findings of the study Things That Matter ultimately reveals the intricacy of personal narrative and the incredible ways in which things and stories are interwoven in our lives over time

Tell Me a Story Robert J. Hater, 2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother s death and its impact on him This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church pastors homilists catechetical leaders catechists and teachers parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories

insight that the unexamined life is not worth living Reading Our Lives The Poetics of Growing Old investigates the often overlooked inside dimensions of aging Despite popular portrayals of mid and later life as entailing inevitable decline this book looks at aging as potentially a process of poesis a creative endeavor of fashioning meaning from the ever accumulating texts memories and reflections that constitute our inner worlds At its center is the conviction that although we are constantly reading our lives to some degree anyway doing so in a mindful matter is critical to our development in the second half of life Drawing on research in numerous disciplines affected by the so called narrative turn including cognitive psychology neuroscience and the psychology of aging authors Randall and McKim articulate a vision of aging that promises to accommodate such time honored concepts as wisdom and spirituality one that understands aging as a matter not merely of getting old but of consciously growing old

Exemplary Stories Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, 1998 Even more popular in their day than Don Quixote Cervantes's Exemplary Stories 1613 surprise challenge and delight Ranging from the picaresque to the satirical Cervantes's Exemplary Stories defy the conventions of heroic chivalric literature through a combination of comic irony moral ambiguity realism and sheer mirth With acute narrative skill and deft characterisation drawing on colloquial language and farce Cervantes creates a tension between the everyday and the literary the plausible and the improbable While encouraging us to reach our own moral conclusions he also persuades us to accept the coincidental and the incredible two boys indulge their life of crime at a time of public prayer a young nobleman undergoes a change of identity at the behest of not a princess but a mere gypsy girl and most fantastically talking dogs philosophize in a ward full of syphilitics By placing the extraordinary within the contexts of the ordinary the Exemplary Stories chart new novelistic territory and demonstrate Cervantes at his most imaginative and innovative This new translation captures the full vigour of Cervantes's wit and makes available two rarely printed tales The Illustrious Kitchen Maid and The Power of Blood

Available Light Clifford Geertz, 2001-07-22 In this collection of essays Clifford Geertz explores the nature of his anthropological work in relation to a broader public serving as the foremost spokesperson of his generation of scholars those who came of age after World War II Geertz who once considered a career in philosophy begins by explaining how he got swept into the revolutionary movement of symbolic anthropology At that point his work began to encompass not only the ethnography of groups in Southeast Asia and North Africa but also the study of how meaning is made in all cultures or to use his phrase to explore the frames of meaning in which people everywhere live out their lives His philosophical orientation helped him to establish the role of anthropology within broader intellectual circles and led him to address the work of such leading thinkers as Charles Taylor Thomas Kuhn William James and Jerome Bruner In this volume Geertz comments on their work as he explores questions in political philosophy psychology and religion that have intrigued him throughout his career but that now hold particular relevance in light of postmodernist thinking and multiculturalism Available Light offers discussions of concepts such as nation identity country and self with a reminder that like symbols in general their meanings are not categorically fixed but grow and change through time and place      Master Storytelling and Captivate Any Audience - How to Inspire, Lead, and Persuade Silas Mary, 2025-02-17 Storytelling is one of the most powerful tools for connecting with people and influencing them Master Storytelling and Captivate Any Audience teaches you how to craft and deliver compelling stories that inspire action engage your audience and leave a lasting impact Whether you're speaking in public leading a team or marketing your product storytelling is a critical skill This book covers the principles of effective storytelling from structure to delivery and shows you how to use storytelling to communicate your message in a way that captivates and persuades Master the art of storytelling and become a leader who can inspire influence and connect with anyone      The Accident at

Sanborn Corners.....and Other Minnesota Short Stories J. L. Larson, 2013-06 Minnesota is known for frigid weather thousands of lakes and Scandinavian humor But in this anthology of ten short stories J L Larson shows a different side of the state via unique tales of conflict adventure and intrigue that often transport characters outside its borders In July of 1970 at a benign looking intersection in the middle of Minnesota farmland a fateful mishap occurs yet again What is it about this seemingly nondescript junction that makes it such a repetitive and bloody deathtrap Is it the terrain the weather the drivers or a combination of these and maybe a few other factors In another story a paper company executive and his wife must cope with an empty nest and the loss of his job He's doing fine until he receives a strange late night call about his self-centered malicious nemesis from the old job In tale after tale Larson showcases eclectic characters who embark on adventures that include a disaster on a popular lake an emotional confrontation in a university classroom the mysterious travel exploits experienced by a young man with his uncle and the recurring dramatic impact on a young teen as his life moves forward following a seemingly insignificant encounter The Accident at Sanborn Corners and Other Minnesota Short Stories is an entertaining compilation of situations and themes that illustrate how various characters cope with the unexpected in life

The Politics of (M)Othering Obioma Nnaemeka, 2005-08-04 This collection is a study of African literature framed by the central and multi-faceted idea of mother motherland mothertongue motherwit motherhood mothering looking at the paradoxical location of mother as both central and marginal Whilst the volume stands as a sustained feminist analysis it engages feminist theory itself by showing how issues in feminism are in African literature recast in different and complex ways      The Best Short Stories of 1919 Edward Joseph Harrington O'Brien, 1920      The Complete Works of F.
