Experiencing Music and Visual Cultures Antonio Cascelli,Denis Condon,2021-01-31 Bringing the research of musicologists art historians and film studies scholars into dialogue this book explores the relationships between visual art forms and music The chapters are organized around three core concepts threshold intermediality and synchresis which offer ways of understanding and discussing the interplay between the arts of sounds and images Refuting the idea that music and visual art forms only operate in parallel the contributors instead consider how the arts of sound and vision are entwined across a wide array of materials genres and time periods Contributors delve into a rich variety of topics ranging from the art of Renaissance Italy to the politics of opera in contemporary Los Angeles to the popular television series Breaking Bad Placing these chapters in conversation this volume develops a shared language for cross disciplinary inquiry into arts that blend music and visual components integrates insights from film studies with the conversation between musicology and art history and moves the study of music and visual culture forward

The Subject in Art Catherine M. Soussloff, 2006-10-04 Argues that the modern subject did not emerge from psychoanalysis or existential philosophy but rather within early twentieth century Viennese portraiture

The Ethics of Seeing Jennifer Evans, Paul Betts, Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann, 2018-01-09 Throughout Germany's tumultuous twentieth century photography was an indispensable form of documentation Whether acting as artists witnesses or reformers both professional and amateur photographers chronicled social worlds through successive periods of radical upheaval The Ethics of Seeing brings together an international group of scholars to explore the complex relationship between the visual and the historic in German history Emphasizing the transformation of the visual arena and the ways in which ordinary people made sense of world events these revealing case studies illustrate photography's multilayered role as a new form of representation a means to subjective experience and a fresh mode of narrating the past

Atmospheres of Projection Giuliana Bruno, 2022-10-20 Bringing together cultural history visual studies and media archaeology Bruno considers the interrelations of projection atmosphere and environment Projection has long been transforming space from shadow plays to camera obscuras and magic lantern shows Our fascination with projection is alive on the walls of museums and galleries and woven into our daily lives Giuliana Bruno explores the histories of projection and atmosphere in visual culture and their continued importance to contemporary artists who are reinventing the projective imagination with atmospheric thinking and the use of elemental media To explain our fascination with projection and atmosphere Bruno traverses psychoanalysis environmental philosophy architecture the history of science visual art and moving image culture to see how projective mechanisms and their environments have developed over time She reveals how atmosphere is formed and mediated how it can change and what projection can do to modify a site In so doing she gives new life to the alchemic possibilities of transformative projective atmospheres Showing how their environmentality produces sites of exchange and relationality this book binds art to the ecology of atmosphere
