Pope,2007-10 Much work in the field of theology and film lacks a really theological focus This book suggests a methodology based on the recognition of the imagination as the fundamental category in producing and interpreting film The argument is presented that the imagination holds theological significance when it is conceived of in certain ways As a result the book adopts the paradigmatic imagination an imagination which works within the paradigms of scripture or theological imagination one grounded in theological forms which is both noetic it is the image making faculty of the mind and almost ontological it is that which draws human beings into the future which they are able to construct or bring into being Once the theological paradigmatic imagination has been identified and justified its insights will be applied to Jesus films and Christ figure films asking whether or not they provide us with valid Christological understanding Films with redemptive or salvific themes are discussed as is the popularity of mythical stories and animation The final chapter will make the case that the engagement of the theological imagination with film is a method in practical theology Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series ,1955 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration the copyright date the copyright registration number etc The Routledge Handbook of Indian Indie Cinema Jayjit Sarkar,Anik Sarkar,2025-04-22 This handbook offers a critical introduction to Indian Indie cinema exploring its subversion of dominant ideas aesthetics and narratives its inclusion of marginal and alternative experiences and ideologies its relationship with audiences and its defiance of norms followed by commercial Bollywood cinema It takes a critical look at independent and alternative films in India that cover a wide range of genres regions textual forms and languages These films may be regional experimental in style or feature innovative and timely sociopolitical interventions The handbook contextualises this cinema historically and addresses the key issues concerning its significance A definitive guide to independent Indian films this volume provides acritical understanding of the many experimentations undertaken by alternative voices and filmmakers in India offers new conceptual engagements that widen perspectives on minor and regional cinema and covers a wide range of films while touching upon current and new filmmaking trends emerging cinematic styles film production and key filmmakers These analyses of the Indie film industry and films in India are an essential read for students and researchers of media and film studies film studies cultural studies world cinema and contemporary cinema besides being of interest to film buffs
