Insights 1 I had a conversation with Ozawa about the Beethoven Third Piano Concerto in C minor on November 16 2010 We spent three hours discussing the concerto and took occasional breaks to prevent Ozawa from tiring 2 The speech by Bernstein is included in this live recording that I have here He said that he was conducting the Brahms Piano Concerto according to the interpretation of Glenn Gould with which he did not agree He said that he was conducting it because Gould was so valid and serious an artist that he had to take his conception seriously 3 The piano part is slow and it sounds fine especially if you've never heard anyone else play it It's like a relaxed tune from the countryside But it must be difficult for the performer to stretch it out like this 4 In a concert who is the boss the soloist or the conductor The conductor begins working on the music two weeks before the performance but the soloist can be wrestling with it for six months or more The Toronto Symphony Toronto Symphony, 1967 Boston Symphony Orchestra James H.
