Marking the Land William A Lovis, Robert Whallon, 2016-02-26 Marking the Land investigates how hunter gatherers use physical landscape markers and environmental management to impose meaning on the spaces they occupy The land is full of meaning for hunter gatherers Much of that meaning is inherent in natural phenomena but some of it comes from modifications to the landscape that hunter gatherers themselves make Such alterations may be intentional or unintentional temporary or permanent and they can carry multiple layers of meaning ranging from practical signs that provide guidance and information through to less direct indications of identity or abstract highly symbolic signs of sacred or ceremonial significance This volume investigates the conditions which determine the investment of time and effort in physical landscape marking by hunter gatherers and the factors which determine the extent to which these modifications are symbolically charged Considering hunter gatherer groups of varying sociocultural complexity and scale Marking the Land provides a systematic consideration of this neglected aspect of hunter gatherer adaptation and the varied environments within which they live

Psychic Threats and Somatic Shelters Nitza Yarom, 2014-11-13 There is increasing recognition within psychoanalysis and related therapies that awareness of the body is important in understanding and treating patients. Psychic Threats and Somatic Shelters explores the ways in which adults and children become acquainted with the range of physical issues that arise within their psychoanalytic or psychological treatments. Nitza Yarom discusses in a practical and clinically focused way the large variety of physical outlets which today's person uses to shelter from the many troubles and restrictions that are placed on everyday life. Her book is divided into two main sections: Somatic Shelters which explores the variety of physical symptoms encountered by patients including problems with weight and eating with sensation through sight, sound, smell and taste in movement through hyper activity or rigidity and through the communication of physical pain. Embodied dialogue in which the author updates the use of the basic technical principles of psychoanalysis to involve the body in the treatment including transference and counter transference between analyst and patient. In Psychic Threats and Somatic Shelters the emotional communication of these body narratives are vividly demonstrated in the treatments presented here: the interaction in the consulting room is revealed in bodily resonance and its therapeutic effects. This book is written for psychoanalysts and psychotherapists, psychologists, body therapists, family therapists, social workers and art/movement therapists.

Land of Stark Contrasts Manuel Mejido Costoya, 2021-04-06 An important new volume showcasing a wide range of faith based responses to one of today's most pressing social issues: challenging us to expand our ways of understanding. Land of Stark Contrasts brings together the work of social scientists, ethicists and theologians exploring the profound role of religion in understanding and responding to homelessness and housing insecurity in all corners of the United States from Seattle, San Francisco and Silicon Valley to Dallas and San Antonio to Washington D.C. and Boston. Together the essays of Land of Stark Contrasts chart intriguing ways forward for future initiatives to address the root causes of homelessness. In this way they are essential reading for practical theologians, congregational leaders and faith based nonprofit organizers exploring how to combine spiritual and material care for homeless individuals and other vulnerable populations. Social workers, nonprofit managers and policy specialists seeking to understand how to partner better with faith based organizations will also find the chapters in this volume an invaluable resource. Contributors include James V. Spickard, Manuel Mejido Costoya and Margaret Breen, Michael R. Fisher Jr., Laura Stivers, Lauren Valk, Lawson Bruce, Granville Miller, Nancy A. Khalil, John A. Pay Dirt Richard Herzog, 2021-10-25 I will always love you. I will never leave you. Richard Herzog heard those sweet words from his high school teacher just three months after his sixteenth birthday. Love and security were two missing pieces of his childhood and Richard wanted and needed them more than anything. But those words would haunt him for nearly forty years. Raised in the City that Care Forgot and in an environment which taught less than it cared Richard spent his formative years helping and supporting others friends neighbors and an English teacher After a student placed a condom box on the teacher s desk Richard felt compelled to help her He was an ordinary freshman attempting an extraordinary feat but she was no ordinary person A former college homecoming queen she was smart beautiful and had a passion for literature and one student She had taken her marriage vows her degree and her knowledge to an all male Catholic school located one mile south of the Mississippi River where the Big Muddy runs west until it bends north into the setting sun What began as platonic progressed into a period in which she weaved him into a web of sex lies and broken promises After she had ended the relationship Richard spiraled down a destructive path until he crossed the bridge onto the road of twelve step recovery Honest painful and often funny Pay Dirt is a beautifully written memoir that tells a story of lost innocence sexual abuse addiction perseverance and ultimately redemption      Maverick Mistress Cort Martin,1988      Dove Arising Karen Bao,2016 On a lunar colony fifteen year old Phaet Theta does the unthinkable and joins the Militia when her mother is imprisoned by the Moon s oppressive government Then her mother is arrested The only way to save her younger siblings from the degrading Shelter is by enlisting in the Militia the faceless army that polices the Lunar bases and protects them from attacks by desperate Earth dwellers Training is brutal but it s where Phaet forms an uneasy but meaningful alliance with the preternaturally accomplished Wes a fellow outsider Rank high save her siblings free her mom that s the plan Until Phaet s logically ordered world begins to crumble      Land Law in African Countries Oleg Igorevich Krassov,2022 The monograph studies the key aspects of land law of African countries customary land tenure laws customary rights to water forest cattle grazing the influence of colonial epoch on customary land tenure systems and the rights of African women to land Characteristic features of land and water rights under Islamic law are provided The current state of formal land law in the countries of North West Central and East Africa is analyzed including the following the right of ownership to land and other natural resources types of various rights to land and natural resources and the relationship of formal law and customary land tenure systems For students graduate students and teachers of law schools employees of legislative executive and judicial authorities as well as for all those interested in land civil law and comparative legal studies      Tombstone Temptress E. anticipate new forms of cultural encounter For her Babel is an organic construction site at which she fuses theoretical analysis and case studies of artists writers and thinkers like William Kentridge Orhan Pamuk and Immanuel Kant Her skilful interrogations then allow her to paint a portrait of art and culture that abolishes the horizon as a barrier to vision and reclaims it as a place of contact and relation By combining the Babylonian concept of the encounter and the planetary concept of the whole earth Neef creates a space an astro culture in which she can examine topics as varied as language translation media modernity migration and the moon In doing so she instigates a renewed cultural understanding receptive to the kinder forms of cultural encounter and globalisation she hopes will come The Dugum Dani Karl G.

Heider,2017-07-12 For many years anthropologists have speculated about primitive warfare its place in a particular culture its form and its consequences on other tribes This full scale ethnography of the Dugum Dani centers on the issue of hostility between groups of human beings and the place and function of violence Warfare like rituals and kinship alliances is part of a total culture and for this reason Professor Heider has approached the Dani from a holistic point of view Other aspects of Dani life and organization are shown in interrelationship with the institution of warfare such as the social ecological and technological elements in the Dani way of life Professor Heider examines particularly the role of warfare itself in terms of the particular needs and lack of them The first section of this book documents the Dani and their warfare and provides one of the most detailed accounts of tribal life available The second section focuses on the material aspects of Dani culture to explore the interrelationships of the material objects with the other aspects of Dani culture this analysis is especially interesting since the Dani moved from a stone age culture to steel tools during the period of study itself Professor Heider also notes the distinctive aspects of Dani culture the paucity of color number and other attribute terms the near absence of art their five year post partum sexual abstinence and other traits that seem to suggest that the Dani have little interest in intellectual elaboration or sex and that despite their warfare they are not a particularly aggressive people Including previously unpublished photographs and descriptions of tribal life and warfare this book provides anthropologists with a full and vivid account of Dani culture and with new insights into the general problems of human aggression Fur News and Outdoor
