Sleeping in a Field Christopher D. Owens, 2001-05 At age 24 Dave Crider s life is at a crossroads and he is consumed by a deep and seemingly irresolvable angst Nearly paralyzed by his existential fears he seeks solace from cut and dried academia a nagging boss and a failing romantic relationship via excessive drinking fantasies of exotic women and his immersion into the rock and roll subculture At the end of a very long and self destructive semester Dave embarks on a road trip in an attempt to regain some sense of balance in his off kilter life Little can he imagine the spiritual and emotional roller coaster ride that awaits him on this soul searching journey Set amidst a swirling backdrop of late 1970 s hedonistic excess Sleeping in a Field captures the confusion and youthful anxiety of the times in a poetic fast paced first person narrative

Wild Animals in Captivity H. Hediger, 2013-09-17 Wild Animals in Captivity covers some of the mistaken notions concerning the conditions of animals in captivity most of which are the result of an anthropomorphic approach to the subject This book is composed of 12 chapters and starts with an overview of the historical development of zoological gardens The succeeding chapters deal with the territorial requirements and sociological factors in the wild life These topics are followed by discussions of the wild animal s transition behavior from freedom to captivity the physiological and psychological aspects of animal captivity and the motive and situation of animal escapes Other chapters emphasize the physical and biological environment of animals in captivity The final chapters examine the problems related to feeding patterns and nutrition of captive animals These chapters also explore the relationship between human and animal their capacity to be tamed and trained This book will prove useful to zoologists
