Holmes is a fictional detective of the late 19th and early 20th centuries who first appeared in publication in 1887. He is the creation of Scottish born author and physician Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. A brilliant London based detective, Holmes is famous for his intellectual prowess and is renowned for his skillful use of deductive reasoning, somewhat mistakenly seen as inductive reasoning and astute observation to solve difficult cases. He is arguably the most famous fictional detective ever created and is one of the best known and most universally recognizable literary characters in any genre. Conan Doyle wrote four novels and fifty six short stories that featured Holmes. All but four stories were narrated by Holmes' friend and biographer Dr John H. Watson, two having been narrated by Holmes himself and two others written in the third person. The first two short novels appeared in Beeton's Christmas Annual for 1887 and Lippincott's Monthly Magazine in 1890. The character grew tremendously in popularity with the beginning of the first series of short stories in The Strand Magazine in 1891, further series of short stories and two serialized novels appeared almost right up to Conan Doyle's death in 1930. The stories cover a period from around 1878 up to 1903 with a final case in 1914.

The Hound of the Baskervilles Arthur Conan Doyle, Sir, 2011-07-17. We owe 1902's The Hound of the Baskervilles to Arthur Conan Doyle's good friend Fletcher Bobbles Robinson, who took him to visit some scary English moors and prehistoric ruins and told him marvelous local legends about escaped prisoners and a 17th century aristocrat who fell afoul of the family dog. Doyle transmogrified the legend generations ago: a hound of hell tore out the throat of devilish Hugo Baskerville on the moonlit moor. Poor accursed Baskerville Hall now has another mysterious death: that of Sir Charles Baskerville. Could the culprit somehow be mixed up with secretive servant Barrymore, history obsessed Dr Frankland, butterfly chasing Stapleton or Selden, the Notting Hill murderer at large? Someone's been signaling with candles from the mansion's windows. Nor can supernatural forces be ruled out. Can Dr Watson left alone by Sherlock Holmes to sleuth in fear for much of the novel save the next Baskerville, Sir Henry, from the hound's fangs? Many Holmes fans prefer Doyle's complete short stories, but their clockwork logic doesn't match the author's boast about this novel: it's a real Creeper. What distinguishes this particular Hound is its fulfillment of Doyle's great debt to Edgar Allan Poe it's full of ancient woe low moans a Grimpen Mire that sucks ponies to Dostoyevskian deaths and locals digging up Neolithic skulls without next of kins consent The longer one stays here the more does the spirit of the moor sink into one's soul Watson realizes Rank reeds and lush slimy water plants sent an odour of decay while a false step plunged us more than once thigh deep into the dark quivering mire which shook for yards in soft undulations around our feet it was as if some malignant hand was tugging us down into those obscene depths Read on but reader watch your step

The Hound of the Baskervilles Illustrated Sir Arthur Conan Doyle,2021-01-03 Dr James Mortimer calls on Sherlock Holmes in London for advice after his friend Sir Charles Baskerville was found dead in the yew alley of his manor on Dartmoor in Devon The death was attributed to a heart attack but according to Mortimer Sir Charles s face retained an expression of horror and not far from the corpse the footprints of a gigantic hound were clearly visible According to an old legend a curse runs in the Baskerville family since the time of the English Civil War when a Hugo Baskerville abducted and caused the death of a maiden on the moor only to be killed in turn by a huge demonic hound. Allegedly the same creature has been haunting the manor ever since causing the premature death of many Baskerville heirs. Sir Charles believed in the plague of the hound and so does Mortimer who now fears for the next in line Sir Henry Baskerville. Even though he dismisses the curse story as nonsense, Holmes agrees to meet Sir Henry in London as soon as Sir Henry arrives from Canada where he has been living. He is a young and jovial good-looking fellow, sceptical toward the grim legend and eager to take possession of Baskerville Hall even though he has just found an anonymous note in the mail warning him to stay away from the moor. When someone shadows Sir Henry while he is walking down a street, however, Holmes asks Watson to go with the young man and Mortimer to Dartmoor in order to protect Sir Henry and search for any clues about who is menacing his life. Sherlock Holmes examines Dr Mortimer's walking stick. Sir Henry Baskerville. Holmes sees a clue in the Baskerville portrait. Watson meets Stapleton. Watson meets Miss Stapleton. The hound killed by Holmes. The trio arrives at Baskerville Hall, an old and imposing manor in the middle of a vast park managed by a butler and his wife, the housekeeper. The estate is surrounded by the moor and borders the Grimpen Mire, where animals and humans can sink to death in quicksand. The news that a convict named Selden, a murderer, has escaped from the nearby Dartmoor Prison and is hiding in the nearby hills adds to the barren landscape and the gloomy atmosphere. There are inexplicable events during the first night keeping the guests awake and only in the daylight can Watson and Sir Henry relax while exploring the neighborhood and meeting the scattered and idiosyncratic residents of the district. Watson keeps on searching for any lead to the identity of whoever is threatening Sir Henry's life and faithfully sends the details of his investigation to Holmes. Among the residents, the Stapletons' brother and sister stand out. Jack is overfriendly and a bit too curious toward the newly arrived while Beryl, a rare beauty, seems all too weary of the place and attempts to warn Sir Henry of danger.
