Sherpa Of Khumbu People Place Change:

Managing and Adapting to Global Change in Tourism Places Alan A. Lew, 2017-10-02 Today more than ever communities need to develop resilience strategies to adapt to the varied and often unpredictable forces of global change The focus of this collection of articles from Tourism Geographies is on global change in tourism places Global change incorporates social and economic globalization which is arguably the most important process to have shaped the development of modern tourism since the nineteenth century and climate change which is likely to be the most significant factor influencing human behavior and livelihood in the coming decades The organization of these articles reflects a traditional geography approach which starts with an emphasis the physical geography foundations of the human condition especially through the issue of climate change This is then broadened by a series of insightful comparative studies of how tourism communities react adapt and relate to their changing natural and social conditions This collection of papers addresses major issues and adaptive paths for tourism destinations as they face the challenges of our contemporary world This book was published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Claiming the High Ground Stanley F. Stevens, 1996 Stanley Stevens brings new ecological and historical perspectives to his study of a subsistence society in ever increasing contact with the outside world The Sherpas of the Mount Everest region famous for their mountaineering exploits have frequently been depicted as victims of the world's highest altitude tourist boom But have the Sherpas and their homeland been transformed by tourism He is the first to analyze the complex interaction of local environmental knowledge cultural beliefs and socio economic and political conditions in changing sherpa subsistence strategies land use practices and local resources management institutions Claiming the High ground is must reading for all those interested peoples and concerned about the conservation of the earth's high places Anthropology and Climate Change Susan A. Crate, Mark Nuttall, 2023-11-30 In this third edition of Anthropology and Climate Change Susan Crate and Mark Nuttall offer a collection of chapters that examine how anthropologists work on climate change issues with their collaborators both in academic research and practicing contexts and discuss new developments in contributions to policy and adaptation at different scales Building on the first edition's pioneering focus on anthropology's burgeoning contribution to climate change research policy and action as well as the second edition's focus on transformations and new directions for anthropological work on climate change this new edition reveals the extent to which anthropologists' contributions are considered to be critical by climate scientists policymakers affected communities and other rights holders Drawing on a range of ethnographic and policy issues this book highlights the work of anthropologists in the full range of contexts as scholars educators and practitioners from academic institutions to government bodies international science agencies and foundations working in interdisciplinary research teams and with community research partners The contributions to this new edition showcase important new academic research as well as applied and practicing approaches They emphasize human agency in the archaeological record the rapid development in the last decade of community based and community driven research and disaster research provide rich ethnographic insight into worldmaking practices interventions and collaborations and discuss how and in what ways anthropologists work in policy areas and engage with regional and global assessments This new edition is essential for established scholars and for students in anthropology and a range of other disciplines including environmental studies as well as for practitioners who engage with anthropological studies of climate change in their work

Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia Jelle J.P. Wouters, Michael T. Heneise, 2022-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia is the first comprehensive and critical overview of the ethnographic and anthropological work in Highland Asia over the past half a century Opening up a grand new space for critical engagement the handbook presents Highland Asia as a world region that cuts across the traditional divides inherited from colonial and Cold War area divisions the Indian Subcontinent South Asia Southeast Asia China East Asia and Central Asia Thirty two chapters assess the history of research identify ethnographic trends and evaluate a range of analytical themes that developed in particular settings of Highland Asia They cover varied landscapes and communities from Kyrgyzstan to India from Bhutan to Vietnam and bring local voices and narratives relating trade and tribute ritual and resistance pilgrimage and prophecy modernity and marginalization capital and cosmos to the fore The handbook shows that for millennia Highland Asians have connected far flung regions through movements of peoples goods and ideas and at all times have been the enactors repositories and mediators of world historical processes Taken together the contributors and chapters subvert dominant lowland narratives by privileging primarily highland vantages that reveal Highland Asia as an ecumene and prism that refracts and generates global history social theory and human imagination In the currently unfolding Asian Century this compels us to reorient and re envision Highland Asia in ethnography in theory and in the connections between this world region made of hills highlands and mountains and a planetary context The handbook reveals both regional commonalities and diversities generalities and specificities and a broad orientation to key themes in the region An indispensable reference work this handbook fills a significant gap in the literature and will be of interest to academics researchers and students interested in Highland Asia Zomia Studies Anthropology Comparative Politics Conceptual History and Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Central Asian Studies and South Asian Studies as well as Asian Studies in general

Space, Place and Religious Landscapes Darrelyn Gunzburg, Bernadette Brady, 2020-10-01 Exploring sacred mountains around the world this book examines whether bonding and reverence to a mountain is intrinsic to the mountain constructed by people or a mutual encounter Chapters explore mountains in England Scotland Wales Italy Ireland the Himalaya Japan Greece USA Asia and South America and embrace the union of sky landscape and people to examine the religious dynamics between human and non human entities This book takes as its starting point the fact that mountains physically mediate between land and sky and act as metaphors for bridges from one realm to another recognising that mountains are relational and that landscapes form personal and group cosmologies

The book fuses ideas of space place and material religion with cultural environmentalism and takes an interconnected approach to material religious landscapes In this way it fills the gap between lived religious traditions personal reflection phenomenology historical context environmental philosophy myths and performativity In defining material religion as active engagement with mountain forming and humanshaping landscapes the research and ideas presented here provide theories that are widely applicable to other forms of material religion Nature-based Tourism in Peripheral Areas Colin Michael Hall, Stephen W. Boyd, 2005-01-01 Nature based Tourism in Peripheral Areas provides a comprehensive examination of this form of tourism development as it occurs within alpine forest sub polar island coastal and marine environments This book goes beyond much of the debate surrounding ecotourism and the impacts of tourism in vulnerable environments to place nature based tourism in a wider regional context particularly when for many peripheral regions tourism remains one of the key opportunities for economic development Therefore a central theme that is present throughout many of the chapters is the role that nature based tourism can play as the catalyst for larger regional development of regions The book will serve as essential reading to senior undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses in tourism and related degrees where the major focus is on tourism that occurs within peripheral regions It will also serve as a key reference to researchers and professionals interested in the role of tourism as a regional development tool

Living in the Middle Donna M. Sherpa, 1994

The Lawudo Lama Jamyang Wangmo, 2013-09-23 The Lawudo Lama presents two life stories along with an extended introduction laying out their social and cultural context It takes place in the Mount Everest region of Nepal the home of the famous Sherpa guides where the people practice Tibetan Buddhism and revere the local lamas and yogis The stories are centered in Lawudo a small village in the Khumbu region and the central figure is the renowned Lawudo Lama The first Lawudo Lama portrayed Lama Kunzang Yeshe 1864 1946 was a yogi of the Nyingma lineage who spent much of his life meditating in a cave near Lawudo and his life is reconstructed through meticulous research of written and oral histories The second story is of Kunzang Yeshe's reincarnation a monk of the Gelug lineage known as Lama Zopa Rinpoche whose story is given in a first person narrative Lama Zopa is well known in the West as the author of several books and as the Spiritual Director of the Foundation for the Preservation of the Mahayana Tradition FPMT which has more than 100 affiliate Buddhist centers worldwide Lama Zopa Rinpoche travels and teaches extensively to large audiences and has thousands of students The Lawudo Lama will appeal to travelers to Nepal to Buddhist practitioners and to scholars trying to understand the culture of the region It is well documented and is accompanied by more than 125 color and black and white photos drawings lineage charts and maps

Religious Tourism and the Environment Kiran A. Shinde, Daniel H. Olsen, 2020-09-30 The remarkable growth in religious tourism across the world has generated considerable interest in the impacts of this type of tourism Focusing here on environmental issues this book moves beyond the documentation of environmental impacts to examine in greater depth the intersections between religious tourism and the environment Beginning with an in depth introduction that highlights the intersections between religion tourism and the environment the book then focuses on the environment as a resource or generator for religious tourism and as a recipient of the impacts of religious tourism Chapters included discuss such important areas as theological views environmental responsibility and host perspectives Sacred Natural Sites Bas Verschuuren, Robert Wild, Jeffrey McNeely, Gonzalo Oviedo, 2012-06-25 Sacred Natural Sites are the world's oldest protected places This book focuses on a wide spread of both iconic and lesser known examples such as sacred groves of the Western Ghats India Sagarmatha Chomolongma Mt Everest Nepal Tibet and China the Golden Mountains of Altai Russia Holy Island of Lindisfarne UK and the sacred lakes of the Niger Delta Nigeria The book illustrates that sacred natural sites although often under threat exist within and outside formally recognised protected areas heritage sites Sacred natural sites may well be some of the last strongholds for building resilient networks of connected landscapes They also form important nodes for maintaining a dynamic socio cultural fabric in the face of global change The diverse authors bridge the gap between approaches to the conservation of cultural and biological diversity by taking into account cultural and spiritual values together with the socio economic interests of the custodian communities and other relevant stakeholders 2002 American Alpine Journal , This special anniversary collection includes the 100 biggest accomplishments of American mountaineers the most important voice in American climbing the best books by American climbers and more Climbers of 2001's hottest new routes includes Kenton Cool Jonathan Copp Stefan Glowacz Alex and Tom Huber Stephen Koch Tim O'Neill Dean Potter Marko Preselj Mark Richey Raphael Slawinski and more The Sherpas and Their Original Identity Serku Sherpa, Yana Wengel, 2023-04-11 This book offers a cultural and historical perspective on the Sherpa people exploring how their traditional way of life has been impacted by such factors as urbanisation modernisation globalisation and tourism Though Nepal is a small country it is rich in ethnic religious linguistic and cultural resources Various communities living in Nepal including the Sherpas have their own original cultures traditions and practices Despite outside influence the Sherpa people have preserved their distinct lifestyle which encompasses a unique history culture religion language cuisine and set of traditions It was only after the summit of Everest in 1953 that domestic and foreign scholars began to take an interest in documenting the Sherpa people's way of life The Sherpa's language is an oral one and with this comes difficulties Various translations into other languages have caused mistranslations and a loss of meaning Written by a Sherpa this book seeks to overcome these linguistic barriers and bring Sherpa culture to the reader Serving as a collection of knowledge from distinguished scholars of the Sherpa community religious leaders intellectuals social workers and community organisations this book is a unique auto ethnographic work which bridges the gap between researchers speaking other languages and Sherpa people Gaiety of Spirit Frances Klatzel, 2011-11-29 Since the birth of modern mountaineering the term Sherpa has been used to refer to Himalayan men working as guides on expeditions in and around the area of Mount Everest Known mostly for their remarkable mountaineering skills and expertise Sherpas are much more than mere high altitude porters The Sherpas are an extraordinary ethnic people who settled the remote valleys in the Himalayas about 500 years ago and whose culture is steeped in the rich philosophical traditions of Himalayan Buddhism As distinguished British Himalayan mountaineer Eric Shipton wrote the temperament and character of the Sherpas have won them a large place in the hearts of the Western travellers Their most enduring characteristic is their extraordinary gaiety of spirit For three decades writer and naturalist Frances Klatzel has lived and worked with Sherpas near Mount Everest During this time she has gained intimate access and a profound knowledge of the people helping to create the Sherpa Cultural Centre at Tengboche the largest Buddhist monastery in the region Infused with the author's own reflections and experiences and complete with colour photos highlighting Sherpa life from the metaphysical to the everyday Gaiety of Spirit will take the reader on a magnificent journey toward a richer level of understanding of Sherpa culture traditions symbols belief and history Headstrap Nandini Purandare, Deepa Balsavar, 2024-04-01 2024 Banff Mountain Book Competition Climbing Literature Winner 2024 Boardman Tasker Award for Mountain Literature This captivating chronicle delves into the untold story of a tribe of people who have played a significant role in mountain exploration and climbing in the Himalayas Situated in northern India Darjeeling was developed as a colonial retreat by the British in the early 1830s and soon became famous for its tea gardens attracting locals from around the region Nepal and Tibet in search of work When Darjeeling became the jumping off point for early Himalayan expeditions workers from the Sherpa and Bhutia communities soon established themselves as the preferred high altitude porters bringing fame entwined with tales of valor courage and sacrifice to the city These are some of their stories Over the course of a decade authors Nandini Purandare and Deepa Balsavar conducted a series of interviews with Sherpas from Darjeeling as well as their family members descendants friends and contemporary climbers Headstrap weaves a vivid tapestry of this particular Sherpa community giving them the recognition in mountaineering literature that they deserve

Sherpas James F. Fisher, 1990-05 James Fisher combines the strengths of technical anthropology literary memoir and striking photography in this telling study of rapid social change in Himalayan Nepal The author first visited the Sherpas of Nepal when he accompanied Sir Edmund Hillary on the Himalayan Schoolhouse Expedition of 1964 Returning to the Everest region several times during the 1970s and 1980s he discovered that the construction of the schools had far less impact than one of the by products of their building a short take off and landing airstrip By reducing the time it took to travel between Kathmandu and the Everest region from a hike of several days to a 45 minute flight the airstrip made a rapid increase in tourism possible Beginning with his impressions of Sherpa society in pre tourist days Fisher traces the trajectory of contemporary Sherpa society reeling under the impact of modern education and mass tourism and assesses the Sherpa's concerns for their future and how they believe these problems should be and eventually will be resolved Translating Development Manfred Domrös, 2003 According to this book sustainable development which must attend to economy environment and society is achievable even in a country like Nepal which has a very weak socio economic framework
