bombing of Air India Flight 182 from Vancouver two suspects are finally on trial for the crime Ashwin Rao an Indian psychologist trained in North America comes back to do a study of comparative grief interviewing people who lost loved one in the attack What he neglects to mention is that he too had family members who died on the plane Then to his delight and fear he becomes embroiled in the lives of one family that remains unable to escape the undertow of the tragedy As Ashwin finds himself less and less capable of providing the objective advice this particular family seeks his surprising emotional connection to them pushes him to face his own losses The Ever After imagines the lasting emotional and political consequences of a real life act of terror confronting what we might learn to live with and what we can live without
