

SHE'S LIKE THE SWALLOW

Newfoundland Folk Song
Arranged by CARL STROMMEN

Tenderly (♩ = ca. 84-88)

The first system of the musical score is in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major (two flats). It consists of three measures. The vocal line (treble clef) has whole rests in all three measures. The piano accompaniment (grand staff) begins with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic. The right hand plays a series of eighth notes, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note bass line. A performance instruction "(pedal carefully throughout)" is written below the bass line.

The second system of the musical score contains the first line of lyrics: "She's like the swal - low that flies so". It begins with a measure rest (marked "4") followed by a ritardando (rit.) and mezzo-piano (mp) section. A boxed number "5" indicates the start of the "a tempo" section. The piano accompaniment mirrors the vocal line's tempo changes, with a ritardando in the first measure and "a tempo" thereafter.

The third system of the musical score contains the second line of lyrics: "high. She's like the riv - er that nev - er runs". It begins with a measure rest (marked "8"). The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody.

My Friend the Swallow Jane Duncan,2015-08-27 She was very small with fragile birdlike bones and although she had slept in the white shirt and shorts she still looked fresh and airy as if she had just flown in from the open sky When Janet Sandison returns to her Caribbean home from a holiday in Scotland she finds her husband Twice Alexander wonderfully restored to his old self full of hope for the future and no longer haunted by the illness which had shadowed their lives for several years Sir Ian has made him Manager of the Paradise sugar mills with gawky young Mackie as his assistant but Janet senses that almost the main contribution to his recovery is the arrival on the island of a girl who is keeping house for a team of young social workers whom the island has nicknamed the Teeth and Feet people For Twice this is the daughter he has never had but for Janet the relationship is more complicated The girl has flown into Janet's house and Twice's heart but seems somehow always ready to take wing again like the swallows of Janet's beloved childhood home Reachfar This is a wise story of ends and beginnings for the lives of not only Janet and her husband but of all their friends in St Jago and in Scotland are moving on changing and developing in a way which holds sadness and fortitude gaiety and love all woven together with that mixture of humour hard sense and understanding which make Jane Duncan's novels such engrossing reading
