A Second Edition of ... "The Era of Violence". Edited by C.L. Mowat Charles Loch MOWAT, 1968 The New Cambridge Modern History, 1962 The New Cambridge Modern History, 1968 The New Cambridge Modern History, 1980 The new Cambridge modern history: The shifting balance of world forces 1898-1945, ed. by C.L. Mowat, 1967 The New Cambridge Modern History: Volume 3, Counter-Reformation and Price Revolution, 1559-1610 R. B. Wernham, 1957 This volume examines the period of history which looks at counter reformation and the price revolution 1559 1610 Labour and Russia Andrew J. Williams, 1989 Failed Imagination? Andrew Williams, 2013-01-18 The main purpose of this book is to explain how mainly American but also British and other Western policy makers have planned and largely managed to create an international order in their own image the so called New World Order It shows how this seismic shift in international relations has developed through the major global wars of the twentieth and twenty first centuries It uses a wide variety of historical archival material to give the background to the current and historical American obsession with creating the world order one that both reflects the American national interest but also can be said to have established the major security economic organisational and normative pillars of our epoch In addition it provides excellent background reading for the current debate about American foreign policy and the origins of neo conservatism in international relations This edition updates a very successful first edition of the title with additional material to take into account changes in the global order since 2001 and the beginning of the War on Terror The Landings at Suvla Bay, 1915 Michael J. Mortlock, 2015-03-21 This work is an extensive analysis of the 1915 British landing at Suvla Bay one of the most mismanaged and ineffective operations of World War I Chapters examine the events that led to the landings on the Gallipoli peninsula provide a comprehensive report on the landings themselves and analyze the events and decisions contributing to their failure Appendices provide first hand accounts of the landings from period news articles military documents and personal correspondence Systems in Crisis Charles F. Doran, 1991-07-26 Uncertainty is the watchword of contemporary world politics Monumental changes are occurring throughout the international system and statespeople are wrestling with peaceful solutions to the transformation in relative power of the USA Soviet Union and China Japan and in Europe In this book Charles Doran proposes a managed solution to peaceful change He presents a bold original and wide ranging analysis of the present balance of power of future

prospects for the international system and of the problems involved in this transformation Professor Doran demonstrates why such change has often been accompanied by world war providing new insights into the causes of the First World War But he argues systems change can be both peaceful and secure Developing a theory of the power cycle the author reveals the structural bounds on statecraft and shows how the tides of history can suddenly and unexpectedly shift against the state

World Political Systems after Polarity Nerses Kopalyan, 2017-06-14 What will the current global political order look like when American unipolarity ends Historically the power configurations of world political systems have been defined by four structures multipolarity tripolarity bipolarity and unipolarity These concepts inform both the formulation and the analysis of short term policies and long term grand strategies of powerful actors in the world political order and may be of profound importance to the future peace and stability of the global system The concept of nonpolarity however has never been addressed as a possible or a potential structural formulation in the nomenclature of global political systems This book provides a coherent conceptualization of nonpolarity and how diplomacy will operate in a more collective age and fits into the ongoing discussion about the nature of the political world order as we approach the end of the American century

Osthandel and Ostpolitik Robert Mark Spaulding, 1997-06-01 Eclipsed by the scope of the Atlantic economy obscured by Anglo German rivalry and nearly destroyed by the post 1945 division of Europe the flow of goods across East Central Europe has been nonetheless an immensely significant pattern of European economic exchange For Germany the Osthandel Eastern trade was both a blessing and a curse its bounty provided much of the raw material for the rise of German economic and political power in Europe while its lure tantalized German ambitions to the point of madness Despite the enduring importance of this commerce no monograph has yet made this pattern of trade the centerpiece of its treatment of German East European relations This study puts this important pattern of German East European trade into the center of discussion and views an extended period of German foreign policy toward Eastern Europe through this lens China and the Great War Guoqi Xu, 2005-02-24 Publisher Description Dignity of Labour for African Leaders Yamada, Shoko, 2018-04-12 From 1910 to the 1930s educating Africans was a major preoccupation in the metropole and in the colonies of imperial Britain This richly researched book untangles the discourse on education for African leaders which involved diverse actors such as colonial officials missionaries European and American educationists or ideologues in Africa and diaspora The analysis is presented around two foci of decision making one is the Memorandum on Education Policy in British Tropical Africa issued by the British Colonial Office in 1923 another is the Achimota School established on the Gold Coast Colony present day Ghana as a model school in 1927 Ideas brought from different sources were mingled and converged on the areas where the motivations of actors have coincided The local and the global was linked through the chains of discourse interacting with global economic political and social concerns The book also vividly describes how the ideals of colonial education were realized in Achimota School Failed Imagination? Andrew J. Williams, 1998 Francisco Gomez de Sandoval Duke of Lerma

1553 1625 is the last major unknown statesman in modern European history Patrick Williams brings him dramatically to life and challenges the assumptions that historians have made about him and about Spanish history at a time of profound crisis inviting a re evaluation of the phenomenon of government by favourites in this seminal period of European history Lerma served Philip III as his favourite and first minister between 1598 and 1618 His power dazzled contemporaries one petitioner telling Philip that he had come to see him because I could not get an appointment with the Duke of Lerma Within a decade of assuming office Lerma had raised his family from humiliating poverty to great riches and was the greatest patron of the arts in Europe His use of power provoked intense debate about the nature of corruption in government Yet Lerma remained deeply ambivalent about his position Determined to follow family tradition and retire into religious life to secure the salvation of his soul he secured a cardinalate in 1617 ending his life as a prince of the Church
