New Perspectives on the Nativity Jeremy Corley,2009-09-17 The infancy narratives represent some of the most beautiful and intriguing passages in the Gospels The stories they relate are also arguably the most well known in the Christian tradition from the child in the manger to the Magi paying homage to the infant Jesus However there have been relatively few attempts to consider the stories of the Nativity from modern academic perspectives examining them from feminist perspectives political standpoints in cinematic representations as well as more standard but up to date academic approaches New Perspectives on the Nativity attempts to redress this providing a fresh insights on these crucial Christian texts from a cast of distinguished contributors At the outset Henry Wansbrough surveys scholarship on the infancy narratives since Raymond Brown s landmark study The Birth of the Messiah 2nd edition 1993 Thereafter four chapters deal with Luke s infancy story Ian Boxall demonstrates how the narrative offers subtle foreshadowings of the passion and resurrection Barbara Reid surveys Luke s portrayal of three female prophets Elizabeth Mary and Anna who prepare for the later presentation of Jesus as a prophet Leonard Maluf suggests a new understanding of Zechariah s canticle the Benedictus by situating it firmly in its Jewish background Finally Nicholas King indicates how the inn of the nativity prefigures the later journey of the gospel message The next four contributions are concerned with Matthew s narrative Warren Carter shows how the conflict between the infant Jesus and the ruling powers is repeated more dramatically in the life and death of the adult Christ Benedict Viviano proposes that the three stages in Matthew s genealogy of Jesus belong within a grand scheme of seven ages of salvation history Bernard Robinson investigates Matthew s nativity story within the context of biblical and Greco Roman history writing Christopher Fuller highlights the carnivalesque approach to the Magi story in Pasolini s classic film The Gospel According to St Matthew Three final essays focus on the religious value of the infancy stories Ann Loades reflects on late 20th century poems dealing with the nativity John Kaltner explores the references to Jesus birth found in Islamic tradition Finally Thomas O Loughlin argues that contemporary preoccupations with historical investigation can blind us to the mystery presented in the nativity stories      The Advent of Peace Mary Grey,2011-09-22 A major theme in the Gospels is peace indeed Jesus proclaimed Peace I leave with you my peace I give to you Yet when we look at the world peace can seem an elusive dream Mary Grey looks at how the Advent story encourages forgiveness and reconciliation both essential for peace and how the Gospels can be key tools to help Christians work towards peace She ties the Advent story in with current situations in the UK and in the Middle East and the book has both a personal and a global outlook The book will make ideal reading for Advent and Christmas either on your own or in a group It is sure to challenge you to ask how can I help to make peace a reality for all God's children

The Spirit of Witness Martyn Percy, 2023-02-28 The term witness has become synonymous with evangelism but true witnessing is usually found in dissenting it refuses to bow to idols or to take the easy road or deny Christ and all he died for This collection is rooted in that belief that having the mind of Christ means we will do things differently It offers practical resources for pastoral care that celebrates people on the margins of the church and provides liturgies for those who suffer racism or injustice who experience tragedy and loss who raise their voices in protest or lament and more These texts do not carry the stamp of approval of any church body but will bring the light of the gospel where it is needed Arranged in six sections it includes contributions from well known and new voices covering the themes of Witness in Ordinary Time Communion Birth and Baptism United in Love Suffering Presence Death and

Resurrection

The Humble Church Martyn Percy, 2021-03-31 In this bold and provocative invitation Martyn Percy imagines what the post pandemic Church might look like and sets out what it needs to learn It argues that the Church needs to stop obsessing about itself its size its strategies to shore up decline its waning public influence and rediscover how to live as the body of Christ In other words what does it need to do in order to become more like Christ As Christ poured out his life for the sake of others he considers ways in which the Church might imitate Christ in practice today Whenever Jesus visited anywhere beyond the confines of the Jewish community he immediately became socially useful and so this extols such virtues as humble service in the community not because it is an effective way to grow the Church but because it is faithful to Christ's own example Avoiding responses such as exasperation righteous anger at shortcomings or wishful thinking about returning to the past he sets out a vision for the Church's future that is both biblical and christological Incisive imaginative and engagingly written this will resonate deeply with many lay and ordained members of the Church

Creative Ideas for Evening Prayer Jan Brind, Tessa Wilkinson, 2005 Other than Evensong or Taize style meditation what else is there for evening prayer Here is a resource that fills this gap to overflowing It offers dozens of simple ready made outlines that are rich with ideas for using visual imagery music light and other symbols with suggestions for getting everyone present actively involved Developed and used over many years in local churches by the authors every idea in this book has been tried and tested The result is an imaginative resource to inspire worship that is simple memorable and beautiful As well as round the year celebrations there are also extra ideas for public occasions such as a time of tragedy or for a peace vigil

The Deep End Triona Doherty, Jane Mellett, 2021-09-01 The Deep End invites readers to come on a journey through the story of Luke's Gospel and to follow Jesus as he makes his way to Jerusalem Through a series of reflections on the Sunday Gospels of Year C it offers a fresh perspective for anyone who wants to explore how the Gospels are relevant for today Jane and Triona believe the Word is alive and active Heb 4:12 and through it we can reflect on the complexities of our lives Today in a world threatened by ecological break down inequality and division the message of Jesus as presented by Luke has much to say to us Jesus is someone who has come to deeply challenge people's expectations and bring about God's dream for the world where the last will be first We are invited to hear God's voice within and find our way as followers of Jesus of Nazareth cultivating inclusiveness compassion and a love which can turn the world upside down The book includes tips for prayer and meditation to nourish ourselves along the way as well as practical suggestions for building communities of welcome and love There is a particular focus on our call to care for God's creation There will be many surprises and challenges as we travel through the year Luke's Gospel offers a radical vision which inspires and gives hope and invites us to continue the narrative
