The Times I've Known Leon Delmanehy,2010-05 He was born right at the beginning of the swinging 1960s in London England His family strive to make ends meet but for a variety of reasons a few short years later they move back to Catholic Ireland with his two Irish parents and one sister There wasn't much happening in Ireland those days But tumultuous changes were in the offing as backwoods Ireland was to be transformed into a model of economic and social ideals In many ways the author's story reflects these events as both he and his country are carried along by the tidal wave of progression This tale follows him from

Cosmopolitan London to the most rural of Ireland's green pastures into small towns and then its capital Dublin In this his first book he attempts to tell his life's story with not only his country but also the whole wide world as a backdrop to show more clearly the astonishing advancements and the terrible incongruity of mankind as it contrives to kill maim and starve each other alongside the destruction of our beautiful planet And in this he readily identifies the complex nature of his own character that mirrors in many ways the awful truth about the human condition It is this duality of his nature that has brought him to this point in his life to where he stands now today All of what's contained between these sheets is factual but the author fervently wishes they weren't But as with the tidal ebb life goes on and with it hope And love Hartwell Road Reg Darling,2009-02-05 This book will likely induce tears as it transports you through reflections on the connections and losses in your own life a process at once painful and glorious This is a book that will speak directly to the non conforming spirits of the baby boom generation especially as we navigate the mounting upheavals and uncertainties of the 21st Century and come to grips with our own impending mortality

God's Shining Forth Andrew R. Hay,2017-04-24 God's Shining Forth offers a theological presentation of divine light in which the leading motif is the doctrine of the Trinity More precisely this study is organized around a double trinitarian theme God is light in himself and from himself God is radiant in relation to human creatures This double affirmation is expounded by considering its extensions in the work of God's grace in ecclesiology and in the nature of theological intelligence The chosen conversation partners in this study are some of the leading pro Nicene trinitarian theologians of the fourth century plus John Calvin Karl Barth and a selection of contemporary authors Andrew Hay argues that the scriptural statement God is light is best understood as a confession of the eternal fully realized life of the triune God in its wholly gratuitous electing reconciling and illuminating human creatures in the darkness of sin and death

ILLUMINATION AND THE LIGHT WITHIN Laing Z. Matthews,2025-09-20 Illumination is not spectacle It is not the glow of charisma or the rush of ecstatic visions In the alchemical tradition illumination is the quiet unveiling of the inner gold the radiance that was always present waiting for the vessel to be cleansed and the heart made ready In this fourth volume of The Philosopher s Stone series Laing Z Matthews continues his profound exploration of inner alchemy guiding readers into the mysteries of illumination coherence and embodied light Where earlier volumes explored the fire that burns away illusion here we step into the calm brilliance that follows the gentle but unshakable presence of the awakened self This book is not for those seeking quick enlightenment or theatrical powers It is written for practitioners seekers and adepts who have walked through dissolution and calcination and now find themselves on the threshold of a quieter deeper transformation Illumination is not about becoming more it is about becoming transparent so that the light of spirit shines unobstructed Inside these pages you will discover The Alchemy of Inner Gold why illumination is less about gaining and more about uncovering the eternal gold hidden in the depths of being The Opening of the Inner Eye how perception shifts when light becomes intelligence revealing patterns correspondences and a clarity beyond thought The Sacred Fire Refined how the fierce flames of earlier stages soften into a clear radiance that does not consume but sustains Divine Union the meeting point of body breath and spirit where human limitation dissolves into divine luminosity When Light Walks illumination as lived presence not in visions or peak experiences but in the quiet way the illumined one moves through the world Matthews draws on the great streams of alchemy and mysticism Hermetic Christian Daoist Kabbalistic while keeping the voice clear direct and modern Rather than collapsing these traditions into a blur he allows each to speak showing how they converge in the human experience of light Quotations from Zosimos Plotinus the Gospel of Thomas and Daoist and Tibetan masters appear not as academic footnotes but as sparks of a fire still burning Throughout the emphasis remains practical and embodied Illumination is not an escape from flesh but its transfiguration The radiant body described here is not metaphor it is the coherence of breath spirit and matter when aligned with the source Readers are warned against premature displays of light or inflation of ego reminded that the gold is not for performance but for service This is not a beginner s manual It assumes prior exposure to meditation inner work or earlier volumes of this series Illumination cannot be manufactured or forced it is received when the vessel is ready Matthews provides careful signs safeguards and reflections so the reader can recognize authentic light from illusion and move with integrity For those who have felt glimpses of radiance during silence in breath in dream or in rare moments of clarity this book offers language and structure for what until now may have seemed unspeakable It affirms that illumination is not reserved for the rare few it is the natural flowering of a disciplined surrendered life The Philosopher s Stone Volume IV Illumination and the Light Within is both a manual and a mirror It does not hand down formulas it reflects the truth already stirring within In these pages you will not be told what to believe but invited to become transparent enough to see and feel directly A Light to the Gentiles Adrian L. van Kaam,2009-04-30 Reading A Light to the Gentiles a classic biography by the renowned spiritual writer and psychologist Adrian van Kaam has as much potential to change each reader s life as the light of divine grace changed the life of Venerable Francis Libermann son of a Rabbi and a Christian convert whose destiny rested in the hands of Divine Providence It is clear that the author s love for Libermann deeply affected his own understanding of the dynamics of purifying formation illuminating reformation and unifying transformation The Jew of Saverne understood the Paschal Mystery as few Christians have Libermann carried the cross his crucifying epiphany with the joy of his resurrection epiphany letting go of the old man of flesh and becoming a new man in Christ Jesus This is at once a work of exquisite scholarship and a labor of love that highlights the brilliance of a founder of a religious community a great educator and evangelizer a suffering servant and a man of immense gentleness and compassion for abandoned souls everywhere No other life of Libermann so fills our spirit heart mind and soul as this one
