Shining Fragment:

Operation Columbus Hugh Walters, 2020-10-08 After the radiation bombardment from those mysterious structures on the Moon chronicled in The Domes of Pico it was inevitable of course that a lunar landing would have to be made and Chris thought too that it was inevitable that he should be chosen for the job But things didn't work out quite as planned There was an American candidate for the honour of piloting the first Western rocket to the Moon and the Russians had their own schemes for turning it into a Soviet satellite

Book of the Thousand Nights and One Night Unbekannt, 2016-08-22 One Thousand and One Nights is a collection of Middle Eastern and South Asian stories and folk tales compiled in Arabic during the Islamic Golden Age It is often known in English as the Arabian Nights from the first English language edition which rendered the title as The Arabian Nights Entertainment The work was collected over many centuries by various authors translators and scholars across West Central and South Asia and North Africa The tales themselves trace their roots back to ancient and medieval Arabic Persian Mesopotamian Indian Jewish and Egyptian folklore and literature In particular many tales were originally folk stories from the Caliphate era while others especially the frame story are most probably drawn from the Pahlavi Persian work Hazār Afsān which in turn relied partly on Indian elements

The Book of the Thousand Nights and One Night (Complete) Sir Richard Francis Burton, The present is I believe the first complete translation of the great Arabic compendium of romantic fiction that has been attempted in any European language comprising about four times as much matter as that of Galland and three times as much as that of any other translator known to myself and a short statement of the sources from which it is derived may therefore be acceptable to my readers Three printed editions more or less complete exist of the Arabic text of the Thousand and One Nights namely those of Breslau Boulac Cairo and Calcutta 1839 besides an incomplete one comprising the first two hundred nights only published at Calcutta in 1814 Of these the first is horribly corrupt and greatly inferior both in style and completeness to the others and the second that of Boulac is also though in a far less degree incomplete whole stories as for instance that of the Envier and the Envied in the present volume being omitted and hiatuses varying in extent from a few lines to several pages being of frequent occurrence whilst in addition to these defects the editor a learned Egyptian has played havoc with the style of his original in an ill judged attempt to improve it producing a medley more curious than edifying of classical and semi modern diction and now and then in his unlucky zeal completely disguising the pristine meaning of certain passages The third edition that which we owe to Sir William Macnaghten and which appears to have been printed from a superior copy of the manuscript followed by the Egyptian editor is by far the most carefully printed and edited of the three and offers on the whole the least corrupt and most comprehensive text of the work I have therefore adopted it as my standard or basis of translation and have to the best of my power remedied the defects such as hiatuses misprints doubtful or corrupt passages etc which are of no infrequent occurrence even in this the best of the existing texts by carefully collating it with the editions of Boulac and Breslau to say nothing of occasional references to the earlier Calcutta edition of the first two hundred nights adopting from one and the other such variants additions and corrections as seemed to me best calculated to improve the general effect and most homogeneous with the general spirit of the work and this so freely that the present version may be said in great part to represent a variorum text of the original formed by a collation of the different printed texts and no proper estimate can therefore be made of the fidelity of the translation except by those who are intimately acquainted with the whole of these latter Even with the help of the new lights gained by the laborious process of collation and comparison above mentioned the exact sense of many passages must still remain doubtful so corrupt are the extant texts and so incomplete our knowledge as incorporated in dictionaries etc of the peculiar dialect half classical and half modern in which the original work is written One special feature of the present version is the appearance for the first time in English metrical shape preserving the external form and rhyme movement of the originals of the whole of the poetry with which the Arabic text is so freely interspersed This great body of verse equivalent to at least ten thousand twelve syllable English lines is of the most unequal quality varying from poetry worthy of the name to the merest doggerel and as I have in pursuance of my original scheme elected to translate everything good and bad with a very few exceptions in cases of manifest mistake or misapplication I can only hope that my readers will in judging of my success take into consideration the enormous difficulties with which I have had to contend and look with indulgence upon my efforts to render under unusually irksome conditions the energy and beauty of the original where these qualities exist and in their absence to keep my version from degenerating into absolute doggerel

One Thousand and One Nights. Illustrated Jonathan Scott, John Payne, Richard Francis Burton, Andrew Lang, Julia Pardoe, 2022-03-31 This book contains a complete collection of Middle Eastern folk tales compiled in Arabic during the Islamic Golden Age It is often known in English as the Arabian Nights The work was collected over many centuries by various authors translators and scholars The thing common to all the editions of the Nights is the initial frame story of the ruler Shahryar and his wife Scheherazade and the framing device incorporated throughout the tales themselves Jonathan Scott 1811 Translation John Payne 1884 Translation Richard Francis Burton 1885 Translation Andrew Lang 1885 Translation Julia Pardoe 1857 Adaptation

The Death of the Book John Lurz, 2016-07-01 An examination of the ways major novels by Marcel Proust James Joyce and Virginia Woolf draw attention to their embodiment in the object of the book The Death of the Book considers how bookish format plays a role in some of the twentieth century's most famous literary experiments Tracking the passing of time in which reading unfolds these novels position the book's so called death in terms that refer as much to a simple description of its future vis vis other media forms as to the sense of finitude these books share with and transmit to their readers As he interrogates the affective physical and temporal valences of literature's own traditional format and mode of access John Lurz shows how these novels stage intersections with the phenomenal world of their readers and develop a conception of literary experience not accounted for by either rigorously historicist or traditionally formalist
