Ship That Died Of Shame:

The Ship that Died of Shame and Other Stories Nicholas Monsarrat,1959 The Ship that Died of Shame ,1954

The Ship that Died of Shame Nicholas Monsarrat,2014-04-22 Crime Mystery Adventure Thrills all to be found in this short story collection commencing with The Ship that Died of Shame where a former Navy gunboat is used for smuggling by ex servicemen down on their luck in post war society A further nine stories complete a volume which contains many twists and turns and hard hitting drama British War Films, 1939-1945 S. P. MacKenzie,2001-02-01 The cinema was the most popular form of entertainment during the Second World War Film was a critically important medium for influencing opinion Films such as In Which We Serve and One of Our Aircraft is Missing shaped the British people s perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939 1945 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis Structures of Desire Tony Williams,2000-08-10 Examines the cultural historical and ideological factors influencing British cinema during World War II and the postwar years with attention to male female relationships as well as to utopian desires for a better postwar world Short Story Index ,1965 British Film Noir Guide Michael F. Keaney,2015-05-20 This work presents 369 British films produced between 1937 and 1964 that embody many of the same filmic qualities as those black films made in the United States during the classic film noir era This reference work makes a case for the inclusion of the British films in the film noir canon which is still considered by some to be an exclusively American inventory In the book s main section the following information is presented for each film a quote from the film the title and release date a rating based on the five star system the production company director cinematographer screenwriter and main performers and a plot synopsis with author commentary Appendices categorize films by rating release date director and cinematographer and also provide a noir and non noir breakdown of the 47 films presented on the Edgar Wallace Mystery Theatre a 1960s British television series that was also shown in the United States Prosthetic Agency Gill Plain,2023-07-13 This book addresses the legacy of World War II on male identity and reinvention It considers some of the many ways in which popular culture of the time sought to mediate these difficult transitions exploring films popular fiction memoir and biography The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash,2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world s foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries three stars good four stars excellent five stars masterpiece and yes author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut In addition to a precis each film s entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing recommended acceptable cautionary and unacceptable Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre i e animated drama sports mystery adventure etc as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author s private collection The naval war film Jonathan Rayner,2013-07-19 This book undertakes a unique coherent and comprehensive consideration of the depiction of naval warfare in the cinema The films under discussion encompass all areas of naval operations in war and highlight varying institutional and aesthetic responses to navies and the sea in popular culture The examination of these films centres on their similarities to and differences from the conventions of the war genre and seeks to determine whether the distinctive characteristics of naval film narratives justify their categorisation as a separate genre or sub genre in popular cinema The explicit factual bases and drama documentary style of many key naval films such as In Which We Serve They Were Expendable and Das Boot also requires the consideration of these films as texts for popular historical transmission Their frequent reinforcement of establishment views of the past which derives from their conservative ideological position towards national and naval culture makes these films key texts for the consideration of national cinemas as purveyors of contemporary history as popularly conceived by filmmakers and received by audiences The New Imperial Histories Reader Stephen Howe,2020-07-24 In recent years imperial history has experienced a newfound vigour dynamism and diversity There has been an explosion of new work in the field which has been driven into even greater prominence by contemporary world events However this resurgence has brought with it disputes between those who are labelled as exponents of a new imperial history and those who can by default be termed old imperial historians This collection not only gathers together some of the most important influential and controversial work which has come to be labelled new imperial history but also presents key examples of innovative recent writing across the broader fields of imperial and colonial studies This book is the perfect companion for any student interested in empires and global history Screening the Past Tony Barta,1998-08-20 Film and television have been accepted as having a pervasive influence on how people understand the world An important aspect of this is the relationship of history and film The different views of the past created by film television and video are only now attracting closer attention from historians cultural critics and filmmakers This volume seeks to advance the critical exploration scholars have recently begun Barta begins by addressing the various ways the past is screened for our understanding and relates the art of film to other media The essays that follow deal primarily with the changing perspectives of political and social developments and changing concepts of ideology gender or culture in films and television programs made for historically shaped reasons Chapters by filmmakers explore issues of context and intent in their own projects Scholars and general readers interested in film and cultural studies will find this an important volume

British Cinema and the Second World War Robert Murphy,2005-08-15 The author provides a decade by decade analysis of every film ever made in Britain about World War II It provides a comprehensive account of how Britain has portrayed the war through films Seagulls in My Soup Tristan Jones,2014-05-27 Join Tristan Jones as he tells tales of the humorous and fascinating adventures that his Saga of a Wayward Sailor began Discover more anecdotes and unexpected adventures aboard a converted lifeboat ketch cruising the coasts of the Balearic region with Tristan his one eyed three legged dog Nelson and the prim Bishop s sister Sissie St John It s a prolific prose journey of surprising arrivals machine gun thwarting and ship saving escapades of a wayward sailor and his motley crew Kine weekly ,1955 The Journal of the International Brotherhood of Boiler Makers, Iron Ship Builders, and Helpers of America ,1902 Side-stepping Saints George Clarke Peck,1918 Canadian Literature ,1959 Memories from a Sinking Ship Barry Gifford,2011-01-04 Winner of the 2007 Christopher Isherwood Foundation Award for Fiction Reminiscent of Mark Twain s Huckleberry Finn and Ernest Hemingway s Nick Adams stories Memories from a Sinking Ship travels the landscape of a turbulent world seen through a boy s steady gaze Like Twain s Mississippi River and Hemingway s Big Two Hearted Gifford s Chicago New Orleans and the highways and byways between offer us mesmerizing lives lost in the kaleidoscope of postwar America in particular those of Roy s adrift and disappointed mother and his hoodlum father Scene, Channel 2 and 17 ,1982
