harrowing events of April 14 1912 when the British ocean liner RMS Titanic went down in the North Atlantic Ocean a book that inspired a classic movie of the same name In The Night Lives On Lord takes the exploration further revealing information about the ship s last hours that emerged in the decades that followed and separating myths from facts Was the ship really christened before setting sail on its maiden voyage What song did the band play as water spilled over the bow How did the ship s wireless operators fail so badly and why did the nearby Californian just ten miles away when the Titanic struck the iceberg not come to the rescue Lord answers these questions and more in a gripping investigation of the night when approximately 1 500 victims were lost to the sea

Meeting the Other in Norse Myth and Legend John

McKinnell,2005 Close examination of the significant theme of other worldly encounters in Norse myth and legend including giantesses monsters and the Dead A particular recurring feature of Old Norse myths and legends is an encounter between creatures of This World gods and human beings and those of the Other giants giantesses dwarves prophetesses monsters and the dead Concentrating on cross gendered encounters this book analyses these meetings and the different motifs and situations they encompass from the consultation of a prophetess by a king or god to sexual liaisons and return from the dead It considers the evidence for their pre Christian origins discusses how far individual poets and prose writers were free to modify them and suggests that they survived in medieval Christian society because like folk tale they provide a non dogmatic way of resolving social and psychological problems connected with growing up succession from one generation to the next sexual relationships and bereavement

Jamie Rumbolt: The Sparrow Crew Jamie Rumbolt,2024-10-09 Jamie Rumbolt The Sparrow Crew Yes I put my name on the cover If I had time back I would just call it The Sparrow Crew But like you we can not get back time that has passed Time passed that is what we are looking at when we go to the stars How long would it take to terraform a world The crew of the sparrow travel s around terraforming worlds Along the way you meet spy s pirates marines rangers also bugs that will make you laugh With a creature that they thought it was a bug that can end worlds is it a creature Or did an alien send it out to end mankind will the crew of the sparrow make it out alive or will they never meet How far well the crew of the sparrow go along with their friends on the out worlds just to stay alive Who or what is behind it

American Classic Screen Features John C. Tibbetts,James M. Welsh,2010-09-28 First appearing in 1976 American Classic Screen was the publishing arm of The National Film Society Intended for scholars and general readers interested in films from the golden age of cinema and beyond the magazine ran for a decade and included original interviews profiles and articles that delved deep into the rich history of Hollywood Contributors to the magazine included noted academics in the area of film studies as well as independent scholars and authors eager to expand the world of cinema Since the periodical s demise however many of the essays and articles have been difficult to find at best and in some cases entirely unavailable In American Classic Screen Features editors John C Tibbetts and James M Welsh have assembled some of the most significant and memorable essays and critical pieces written for the magazine over its ten year history This collection contains fascinating accounts of Hollywood history including articles on Marilyn Monroe's first screen test John Ford's favorite film Olivia De Havilland's lawsuit against Warner Bros Walt Disney's unfinished projects and Stanley Kubrick's early noir classics as well as such articles as The Rise and Fall of the California Motion Picture Company Red Alert Images of Communism in Hollywood Uncensored Garbo and The Lost Movie of Errol Flynn This volume also contains in depth examinations of classic films including Birth of a Nation The Big Parade The Jazz Singer King Kong and Citizen Kane This compendium of essays recaptures the spirit and scholarship of that time and will appeal to both scholars and fans who have an abiding interest in the American motion picture industry

Dark Light Ken MacLeod, 2004-06-01 In this science fiction sequel to Cosmonaut Keep a human and his friends travel to another planet to interrogate gods and solve a mystery Intelligence it turns out is rare on planetary surfaces It thrives everywhere else from the Oort cloud fringes of star systems to the magma furnaces beneath planetary crusts And among the most powerful of the galaxy's intelligences there are profound differences of opinion about how to deal with surface life forms such as human beings For untold light years from Earth the powers that rule the universe have been for millennia plucking humans and other intelligent beings from Earth and forcibly resettling them in a number of star systems close to one another leaving them to develop on their own A few generations ago a small cadre of humans from Earth's twenty first century arrived in this Second Sphere on their own power the first humans ever to do so Their descendants have formed the Cosmonaut class that dominates Mingulay Now two hundred years later Gregor Cairns and a small group of associates have rediscovered faster than light travel and traveled to the star system next door They're determined to find more of the original mysteriously long lived cosmonauts They want answers And for those answers they intend to interrogate the gods
