Ballots and Breakups Sunita Aron,2019-06-24 Winning elections is not everything what is crucial for the good health of a robust democracy is forming a government From strategically devised pre poll alliances to hastily stitched together post poll associations noted journalist Sunita Aron has travelled the length and breadth of the country painstakingly documenting the drama and dharma of coalition politics in India The result of her exhaustive research and insightful analysis Ballots and Breakups is a cracker of a read As Indian voters deliver fractured verdicts political parties resort to constructing fragile coalitions by hook or by crook The hapless casualties of this relentless quest for power are the Indian voters and this book is for them as the writer eloquently exhorts for the need of common guidelines on the formation of a government in the case of a hung house A gripping take on coalition politics in India Aron charts a riveting tale of modern Indian politics that has all the masala of a Bollywood potboiler but the ending the writer asserts has to be happy like that of any Hindi film stable governments and a prosperous society even in a hung house

Socialist India ,1970 Drama of Democracy Lisa Björkman,2025-09-02 The performative arts of political communication and representation in Mumbai In an era of global political passions many have wondered whether some sort of natural affinity exists between political style and substance Does liberal democracy speak the language of rationality and sincerity while political emotion imagery and embodiment properly belong to authoritarianism Taking an ethnographic approach to the relationship between political form and political content Drama of Democracy explores the material substance of representations things like heady crowds and rousing images together with language based forms of political communication such as public oration and community meetings Drawing on a decade of research in the city of Mumbai Lisa Björkman shows that embodied performance is the very site and substance of representation and demonstrates how Mumbaikars evaluate performative bids to represent The ethnographic accounts demonstrate the extraordinary fluency in this evaluative work in Mumbai where people from all walks of life are remarkably astute at navigating and assessing political signs and representations endlessly discussing and debating possible meanings of the city's dense material semiotic ecologies whether words or images cash or crowds flyers or flowers In Mumbai Björkman argues the evaluative criterion of representation is not whether something is sign or substance or even whether people are deemed to utter truths or falsehoods Rather what matters is whether and how a performance activates and actuates the social relations and political subjectivities that it professes to display Drama of Democracy highlights Mumbaikars communicative fluency and theatrical acumen to offer a conceptual toolbox through which contemporary political churnings around the globe might be understood

Make Me a Man! Sikata Banerjee,2012-02-01 Make Me a Man argues that ideas about manhood play a key role in building and sustaining the modern nation It examines a particular expression of nation and manliness masculine Hinduism This ideal which emerged from India's experience of British imperialism is characterized by martial prowess muscular strength moral fortitude and a readiness to go to battle Embodied in the images of the Hindu soldier and the warrior monk masculine Hinduism is rooted in a rigid us versus them view of nation that becomes implicated in violence and intolerance Masculine Hinduism also has important connotations for women whose roles in this environment consist of the heroic mother chaste wife and celibate masculinized warrior All of these roles shore up the us versus them dichotomy and constrict women's lives by imposing particular norms and encouraging limits on women's freedom Sikata Banerjee notes that the nationalism defined by masculine Hinduism draws on a more general narrative of nation found in many cultures If the outcomes of this narrative are to be resisted the logic of masculinity armed manhood and nation need to be examined in diverse contexts

Trading Power Priyam Gandhi-Mody, 2020-12-01 IN OCTOBER 2019 THE ASSEMBLY elections held in Maharashtra saw a decisive mandate in favour of the pre poll Mahayuti alliance of the Bharatiya Janata Party and the Shiv Sena against the Maha Aghadi alliance of the Nationalist Congress Party and the Indian National Congress But what followed shook the very foundations of democracy With the Shiv Sena unexpectedly staking claim to the chief minister's post and the BJP unwilling to give in to their demand the battle for the coveted top spot began in earnest and President's Rule was imposed in the state Featuring swiftly shifting alliances the abandonment of long held party ideologies dynastic bombast and overnight reversals the high octane drama culminated in Uddhav Thackeray of the Shiv Sena taking oath as chief minister of Maharashtra on 28 November 2019 The BJP the single largest party in the legislature with almost double the seats of the second in line Shiv Sena found itself side lined and left without power Recounting in dramatic detail the high stakes battle for political control of a crucial state Trading Power throws into sharp focus the manipulations and narrow motivations that rule politics in the country today ultimately leading to a gross betrayal of the people's mandate
