Mountain Saint and Water Dragon: A memorial posy of my shabby dwarf house Johnson K. Gao,2016-12-18 It is an English translation of an ancient Chinese poem Lou Shi Ming by Liu Yu xi A D 772 842 in Tang Dynasty which means a memorial posy of a shabby chamber The first two lines of that poem consist of only eight Chinese characters with the meaning in English as A mountain does not necessary to be high as long as there lives a saint it will get good fame A water body does not necessary to be deep as long as there exists a dragon it will demonstrate vital spirit He submitted his English translation version to the Best Poets 2016 which will be published soon Further more due to the reason that ancient Chinese could be rather difficult to understand by western people or even modern Chinese people in order to let more people world widely to know that ancient poem he used Google translation site and converted his English version and vernacular Chinese language version into German Japanese French Russian Spanish six languages

Canadian Children's Literature ,1995 Ethnic Minority Women's Writing in France Claire Mouflard,2020-11-17 In Ethnic Minority Women

s Writing in France Mouflard argues that the identity politics surrounding the immigration discourse of early twenty first century France were reflected in the marketing and editing practices of the Metropole s key publishers specifically with regards to non white French women s literature Echoing the utopic Black Blanc Beur model of integration which surfaced during the 1998 soccer World Cup select publishers fashioned unofficial literary categories based on neocolonial racial and gender stereotypes either lauding integrated Beur authors or exploiting Black political dissenters Concurrently metropolitan women writers in their autobiographies autofictions and manifestoes problematized notions of French multiculturalism and literary hierarchies thereby exposing the dangers of utopian thinking Mouflard ultimately reveals that the absence of the Franco Vietnamese identity from the Black Blanc Beur paradigm enabled authors of Southeastern Asian origin to establish themselves outside of the era s reductive multicultural utopia within a realm directly adjacent to litt rature fran aise if not in a newly designed truly multicultural French literature category Overall Mouflard s research highlights the discrepancies between France s official discourse on immigration and the actual identity formation processes created by the institutions and exploited by influential publishers in the years leading to the historic 2005 banlieue civil unrest

The Dragon and the Rainbow Robert Blust,2023-08-21 Modernization and conversion to world religions are threatening the survival of traditional belief systems leaving behind only mysterious traces of their existence This book based upon extensive research conducted over a period of nearly four decades brings scientific rigor to one of the questions that have always attracted human curiosity that of the origin of the dragon The author demonstrates that both dragons and rainbows are cultural universals that many of the traits that are attributed to dragons in widely separated parts of the planet are also attributed to rainbows and that the number and antiquity of such shared traits cannot be attributed to chance or common inheritance but rather to common cognitive pathways by which human psychology has responded to the natural environment in a wide array of cultures around the world    The World Book Year Book ,1996    Nuit blanche
