Shooting a Texas Tease R. Buck Kearney, 2001-06-19 West Texas is a white hot cauldron boiling over with a lust for money and power Trapped in the flames of passion searing the Permian Basin KPER television news reporters Erin McCartney and Sean Ryan battle to survive while exposing the drug smuggling political corruption and sinful scandals rocking the city of Midessa Texas They are caught in a deadly crossfire between the crime and the corruption and their news director Scott Sangsue who demands total obedience and unquestioning loyalty Just how far will the men and women of KPER TV go to save their jobs and satisfy Sangsue s hunger to be number one How much are they willing to sacrifice their lives their morals their principles When rookie television journalist Sean Ryan enters KPER TV he is swallowed by the cut throat competition of television news Suddenly everything he knows and believes is being challenged by a world turned upside down Will he succumb to the sexual temptations of Amer Chienne and Celeste Will he be killed by the criminals or the cops in their drug war Will he abandon his journalistic principles to save his job In the end is he any better than Sangsue

True Stories of CSI Katherine Ramsland, 2008-09-02 The bestselling forensic psychologist examines the true crimes that inspired the television smash hit C S I Katherine Ramsland follows the evidence and revisits some of the most absorbing episodes of the phenomenally popular C S I television franchise and explores the real life crimes that inspired them She also looks into the authenticity of the forensic investigations recreated for the dramatizations and the painstaking real life forensic process employed in every one of the actual cases from notorious mass murderer Richard Speck to the massacre of Buddhist monks in an Arizona Temple to a baffling case of apparent spontaneous combustion

ROAM: Twilight Over the Empire Cole Fox, 2020-04-01 The Crimson Twilight fleet descends on an unsuspecting universe Major RONALD NOVAK his new team and the crew of the Fugitive are the only ones aware of the coming attack But are already too late to send a warning to the outer systems The galactic reign of the Empire is on the verge of collapse A surprise attack at a scale unlike anyone has ever witnessed is about to be unleashed Caught up in a universe he doesn t belong in the fate of his new home thrust unfairly onto his shoulders Can Ronald find his place in this new dimension or will he perish in this universal conflict

School Shootings RJ Parker, 2014-12-16 When kids suffer abuse at home from parents and siblings they often then go to school and suffer bullying from peers and an endless series of dictates from teachers They begin to feel trapped as they can t avoid abuse no matter where they are In addition when they see that the authority at home is part of the problem and authority at school is either unconcerned or useless at helping them they gradually realize that authority is fundamentally two faced as it is not based on kind guidance as officially stated but instead is based on controlling and exploiting the less powerful No Killing In The Hallways depicts some of the worse school shootings in history including Virginia Tech Columbine The University of Texas Sniper The Ecole Polytechnique Massacre Red Lake High School Shootings The Beslan School Hostage Crisis plus more

African Americans and Criminal Justice Delores D. Jones-Brown, Beverly D. Frazier, Marvie

Brooks,2014-07-15 Does justice exist for Blacks in America This comprehensive compilation of essays documents the historical and contemporary impact of the law and criminal justice system on people of African ancestry in the United States African Americans and Criminal Justice An Encyclopedia comprises descriptive essays documenting the ways in which people of African descent have been victimized by oppressive laws enacted by local state and federal authorities in the United States The entries also describe how Blacks became disproportionately represented in national crime statistics largely through their efforts to resist legalized oppression in early American history and present biographies of famous and infamous Black criminal suspects and victims throughout early American history and in contemporary times Providing coverage of law and criminal justice practices from the precolonial period including the introduction of African slaves up to practices in modern day America this encyclopedia presents a frank and comprehensive view of how Americans of African descent have come to be viewed as synonymous with criminality This book represents an essential learning resource for all American citizens regardless of race or age

Angel of Death David Liles,2008-10      The Taliban Don't Wave Robert Semrau,2012-08-16

Captain Robert Semrau s military trial made international headlines a Canadian soldier serving in Afghanistan arrested for allegedly killing a grievously wounded Taliban soldier in the field The trial and its outcome are a matter of public record What you are about to read about the tour of duty that inspired this book is not What you are about to read is an emotionally draining and mind snapping firsthand account of war on the ground in Afghanistan It s raw and explosive Names have been changed to protect the brave and not so brave alike What you are about to read is an account of soldiers who live fight and die in a moonscape of a country where it s sometimes hard to tell your friend from your enemy It s about trying to hold it together when a mortar attack is ripping your friends and allies apart and your world unravels before your eyes Rob Semrau wrote this book to tell us about the sheer hell that is the Stan but also to recognize the incredible courage and compassion he witnessed in the heat of battle The soldiers you are about to meet and the events that befall them will linger on in your mind long after you have closed these pages

Justice Required Robert J. Durán,Oralia Loza,2025-10-07 Police have remarkably broad discretion to use deadly force Evidence shows that more than 1 000 shooting deaths occur each year at the hands of the police in the United States disproportionately in minority communities and often under questionable circumstances Despite public outrage there continue to be obstacles to assessing the extent of bias and addressing the harms of police violence including a lack of transparency and limitations on access to data Justice Required is a groundbreaking quantitative and qualitative investigation of police violence Robert J Dur n and Oralia Loza provide a comprehensive data analysis of all police shootings in Denver Colorado over nearly forty years highlighting persistent patterns of racial and ethnic inequality They examine the institutional and political dynamics that thwart efforts to hold police officers accountable after controversial incidents Dur n and Loza contextualize the data with regional comparisons and enliven the analysis with vivid storytelling Justice Required argues that while police shootings are typically treated as a criminal justice issue they should be understood as a public health problem Rigorous and urgent this book provides evidence based data driven solutions to prevent further loss of life and promote accountability

As the FBI agent Jake Mott brought a swift and brutal end to a hostage crisis, he unwittingly ignited a vendetta that had been smoldering for generations in the hearts of a grieving mother and her devoted son. Decades later, Jake found himself back in the fray, called from his retirement to train a new batch of recruits at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia. Now his enemies' long-standing quest for revenge is poised to imperil both Jake and his family as well as the students at the Academy and the very Bureau itself.

Impossible Julia Sykes, 2019-08-22. Claudia: My life was irrevocably changed that night. The night I was taken, I saved a man's life, but at what cost to myself? Can I convince him to save me in return? I hate him for what he's done to me. But the longer I'm trapped with him, the harder it is to cling to that hatred. He is an enigma of a man, one who is shockingly arrogant, sweetly contrite, and frighteningly aggressive by turns. And the pain in his eyes is a mirror for my own. The longer I remain in his grip, the more confused I become. Is my freedom worth betraying him? Sean: My captive is beautiful, cunning, and defiant. The alluring combination pleases the monster in me. I want to conquer that defiance and take possession of her beauty. I crave to claim her innocence and keep it for myself. But the man I am knows nothing could be more wrong. I have to decide which is stronger: the monster or the man. Either way, one thing's for certain: I'm never letting her go.

Reports from the Commissioners Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1837. The Deepcut Review Nicholas Blake, Deepcut Review, 2006-03-29. Nicholas Blake QC was appointed on 15th December 2004 to review the circumstances surrounding the deaths of four soldiers at Deepcut between 1995 and 2002. The Review covers in detail the deaths of three soldiers: Sean Benton, Cheryl James, and Geoff Gray; the fourth death, that of James Collinson, was subject to an outstanding inquest and so was not investigated in detail, nor are the inquest results. The Review also deals with aspects of Army policy on recruitment and training over a ten-year period and matters relating to the

Training Regiment at Deepcut The review has concluded that on the balance of probabilities the deaths of Sean Benton Cheryl James and Geoff Gray were self inflicted and that the opportunity for self infliction was afforded by the policy of frequently assigning trainees to armed guard duty at Deepcut unsupervised by experienced soldiers or members of the Military Provost Guard The Review does not feel that a public inquiry into the immediate or broader events surrounding the deaths is necessary Sean Benton who had attempted self harm on at least two occasions in the months before he died had had disciplinary problems in his Army career had been notified that his discharge from the Army was being applied for and had previously been denied access to a weapon on guard duty on the day of his death he obtained the weapon from another trainee under false pretences There was no evidence that Cheryl James or Geoff Gray posed a risk of self harm and no certainty as to what might have led them to their actions They had both performed frequent armed guard duties at remote locations which might have made them unhappy and combined with other personal factors may have made them more susceptible to self harm at the time of their deaths There was no evidence of bullying in any of the three cases Factors contributing to the deaths might have been the training environment at Deepcut causing low morale through poor accommodation limited recreational facilities and the balance between privacy and dormitory life unsupervised access to weapons supervision of trainees discipline bullying and informal sanctions ventilation of grievances poor instructors The Review makes 34 recommendations covering recruitment screening of recruits and parental involvement training for minors and the length of training provisions for minors during training supervisory ratios the quality of instructors information on standards of conduct collective responsibility making and responding to complaints investigating complaints record keeping an ombudsman for the armed forces guard duty sudden deaths disclosure and confidentiality whether there is a need for a public inquiry
