The Gospel of Church Janine Giordano Drake, 2023-09-29 In The Gospel of Church Janine Giordano Drake traces the rivalry between organized labor and the American churches from 1880 to 1920 highlighting how the rise in labor and agricultural movements at the turn of the century ran parallel with low church attendance high circulation rates of socialist newspapers and outdoor revivalism as communities animated by a shared commitment to a Christian Commonwealth took the place of formal religion for thousands of working people Social Gospel ministers efforts to assert their authority over industrial affairs directly undermined workers efforts to bring about social democracy in the United States

Manufacturing Freedom Elena Shih, 2023-04-25 Sex worker rescue and rehabilitation programs have become a core focus of the global movement to combat human trafficking Manufacturing Freedom offers an ethnographic exploration of two American anti trafficking organizations that offer vocational training in jewelry production to women migrants in China and Thailand as a path out of sex work Activists brand this jewelry a slave free good and then sell it to consumers in the United States generating racialized circuits of commerce and morality centered around promises of freedom from enslavement and redemptive wages for former sex workers whom these organizations universally label as victims of trafficking Workers by contrast often contest the trafficking label and object to the moral and disciplinary processes that ensnare them in a pernicious global web of anti trafficking rescue In this novel study Elena Shih argues that these anti trafficking rescue and rehabilitation projects profit off persistent labor abuse of women workers and imagined but savvily marketed narratives of redemption thereby generating a transnational moral economy of low wage women s work that obfuscates relations of race gender national power and inequality

Liberationist Christianity in Argentina (1930-1983) Pablo Bradbury, 2023 Understanding the movement to be dynamic and highly diverse this book reveals that ecclesial and political conflicts especially over Peronism and celibacy were at the heart of the construction of a liberationist Christian identity which simultaneously internalised deep tensions over its relationship to the Catholic Church It first situates the rise of a revolutionary Christian impulse in Argentina within changes in society in Catholicism and Protestantism and in Marxism in the 1930s before analysing how the phenomenon coalesced in the late sixties into a coherent social movement Finally the book examines the responses of liberationist Christians to the intense period of repression under the presidency of Isabel Per n and the rule of the military junta between 1974 and 1983

Liberal Christianity and Women's Global Activism Amanda Izzo,2018-01-30 Religiously influenced social movements tend to be characterized as products of the conservative turn in Protestant and Catholic life in the latter part of the twentieth century with women s mobilizations centering on defense of the traditional family In Liberal Christianity and Women s Global Activism Amanda L Izzo argues that contrary to this view liberal wings of Christian churches have remained an instrumental presence in U S and transnational politics Women have been at the forefront of such efforts Focusing on the histories of two highly influential groups the Young Women s Christian Association of the USA an interdenominational Protestant organization and the Maryknoll Sisters a Roman Catholic religious order Izzo offers new perspectives on the contributions of these women to transnational social movements women s history and religious studies as she traces the connections between turn of the century Christian women s reform culture and liberal and left wing religious social movements of the 1960s and 1970s Izzo suggests that shared ethical theological and institutional underpinnings can transcend denominational divides and that strategies for social change often associated with secular feminism have ties to spiritually inspired social movements

Liquor Store Theatre Maya Stovall,2020-10-09 For six years Maya Stovall staged Liquor Store Theatre a conceptual art and anthropology video project included in the Whitney Biennial in 2017 in which she danced near the liquor stores in her Detroit neighborhood as a way to start conversations with her neighbors In this book of the same name Stovall uses the project as a point of departure for understanding everyday life in Detroit and the possibilities for ethnographic research art and knowledge creation Her conversations with her neighbors which touch on everything from economics aesthetics and sex to the political and economic racism that undergirds Detroit s history bring to light rarely acknowledged experiences of longtime Detroiters In these exchanges Stovall enacts an innovative form of ethnographic engagement that offers new modes of integrating the social sciences with the arts in ways that exceed what either approach can achieve alone
