Helsing, Johanna Ilmakunnas, 2025-10-28 This volume explores the practices of shopping in Europe during the long eighteenth century a period during which consumption choices expanded to encompass much larger groups than before Shopping functioned as an act of social distinction where retail practices not only reflected and reinforced social aspirations and identities but also were a means of creating relationships through shared information and exchanges Bringing together ten diverse case studies the collection provides in depth insights into the transformation of shopping practices across Western and Northern Europe The production of made to order goods gave way to a range of ready made objects that could be viewed browsed and touched in shops booths workshops and markets Together the chapters highlight a crucial historical nuance the concept of shopping as understood in England with its associations of pleasure and socialising did not exist in other major European languages during this period From actors in Stockholm to aristocrats in Paris this study rigorously contextualises the practice of consumption leaving readers with an enriched understanding of how shopping shaped identities and social relationships throughout eighteenth century Europe This collection is an essential resource for scholars students and non specialists interested in the material culture economy everyday life and social dynamics of Europe during the long eighteenth century Shopping for Enlightenment, 2017-06-24 To Find and Wake the Dreamer Hugh Cook, 2005-12-01 A fast moving fantasy novel a no holds barred novel written on an adult level about the war on terror In the city state of Oolong Morblock where a certain proportion of the people have a natural ability to cause themselves to explode in effect making them potential suicide bombers Ibrahim Chess tries to find the middle road to steer a course of moderation and sanity in a world which is going mad and where the civil peace is threatened by the increasingly intolerant fanaticism of the conflict between the minority group to which Ibrahim belongs the astrals and the city state s dominant group the norms Note this book contains some disturbing scenes If you do not find something in this book to disturb you then you are a seriously disturbed person Are you a person of exquisite good taste Then sorry but you are disqualified as a reader This book pretty much takes the attitude that boundaries especially boundaries of taste are there to be breached You have been warned

Top Ten Myths About Enlightenment Helen Hamilton,2021-06-29 So many myths and stories occur about enlightenment that we can find ourselves chasing after an impossible goal We may waste years along the pathway to enlightenment pursuing what we think it is and not what it actually is This book is unique and original in that it offers readers the chance to navigate through the stories myths and legends without getting trapped Find out the pitfalls and traps along the way and stop trying to reach some ideal that probably dos not exist Awakened beings have kept to a very simple path which is described for you here Each time you read the next myth you will feel more empowered to wake up fully to the truth of what you are You will begin to see that the great beings of the past and present that have transcended the mind were just ordinary human beings They had no superhuman abilities or powers but simply worked with what they had Each myth is clearly explained and clear guidance is given as to how to navigate around it Never before has enlightenment been so clearly and simply described and available for everyone The Art of Spiritual Peacemaking James Twyman,2012-06-01 A collection of sacred wisdom inspired by an encounter between James Twyman and Jeshua Ben Joseph also known as Jesus at Israel s Dead Sea in 2003 Ten Spiritual Lessons I Learned At The Mall , Maps Toward Spiritual Enlightenment Andre Watson,2009-10 Shopping Malls and Other Sacred Spaces Jon Pahl,2008-12-29 Christian historian Sidney Mead has observed In America space has played the part that time has played in older cultures of the world In Shopping Malls and Other Sacred Spaces Jon Pahl examines this provocative statement in conversation with what he calls the spatial character of American theology He argues that places are always imaginatively constructed by the human beings who inhabit them Sometimes this spatial theology works to our benefit other times it poses spiritual risks What happens when our banal clothing of the sacred violates our genuine need for comfort and intimacy Or when we remember that the fleeting pleasures of a shopping trip or a Disneyland escape are designed to fill someone else s pocket rather than the spiritual emptiness in our own hearts Pahl develops several ways to clothe the divine from within the Christian tradition He introduces a theology of place that reveals aspects of God s character through biblical metaphors drawn from physical spaces such as the true vine the rock and the living water Accessible and thought provoking this enlightening book provides a better grasp of our particularly American way of lending religious significance to spaces of all kinds Easternization of the West Colin Campbell,2015-11-17 In this provocative and groundbreaking book Colin Campbell shows that the civilization of the West is undergoing a revolutionary process of change one in which features that have characterized the West for two thousand years are in the process of being marginalized to be replaced by those more often associated with the civilizations of the East Moving far beyond popular trends Campbell assembles a powerful range of evidence to show how Easternization has been building throughout the last century especially since the 1960s Campbell demonstrates how it was largely in the 1960s that new interpretations in theology political thought and science were widely adopted by a new generation of young culture carriers This highly original and wide ranging book advances a thesis that will be of interest to scholars in many disciplines in the humanities and social sciences

The Inquisitor in the Hat Shop Federico Barbierato, 2016-03-03 Early modern Venice was an exceptional city Located at the intersection of trade routes and cultural borders it teemed with visitors traders refugees and intellectuals It is perhaps unsurprising then that such a city should foster groups and individuals of unorthodox beliefs whose views and life styles would bring them into conflict with the secular and religious authorities Drawing on a vast store of primary sources particularly those of the Inquisition this book recreates the social fabric of Venice between 1640 and 1740 It brings back to life a wealth of minor figures who inhabited the city and fostered ideas of dissent unbelief and atheism in the teeth of the Counter Reformation The book vividly paints a scene filled with craftsmen friars and priests booksellers apothecaries and barbers bustling about the city spaces of sociability between coffee houses and workshops apothecaries and barbers shops from the pulpit and drawing rooms or simply publicly speaking about their ideas To give depth to the cases identified the author overlays a number of contextual themes such as the survival of Protestant or crypto Protestant doctrines the political situation at any given time and the networks of dissenting groups that flourished within the city such as the free metaphysicists who gathered in the premises of the hatter Bortolo Zorzi In so doing this rich and thought provoking book provides a systematic overview of how Venetian ecclesiastical institutions dealt with the sheer diffusion of heterodox and atheistical ideas at different social levels It will be of interest not only to scholars of Venice but all those with an interest in the intellectual cultural and religious history of early modern Europe
