Short History Of Scientific Ideas To 19:

A Short History of Scientific Ideas to 1900 Charles Singer, 1959 A Short History of the Drug Receptor Concept C. Prüll, A. Maehle, R. Halliwell, 2009-06-25 The concept of specific receptors for drugs hormones and transmitters lies at the very heart of biomedicine This book is the first to consider the idea from its 19th century origins in the work of John Newport Langley and Paul Ehrlich to its development of during the 20th century and its current impact on drug discovery in the 21st century

Representations of the Natural World in Old English Poetry Jennifer Neville, 1999-03-13 This book examines descriptions of the natural world in a wide range of Old English poetry Jennifer Neville describes the physical conditions experienced by the Anglo Saxons the animals diseases landscapes seas and weather with which they had to contend She argues that poetic descriptions of these elements were not a reflection of the existing physical conditions but a literary device used by Anglo Saxons to define more important issues the state of humanity the creation and maintenance of society the power of individuals the relationship between God and creation and the power of writing to control information Examples of contemporary literature in other languages are used to provide a sense of Old English poetry s particular approach which incorporated elements from Germanic Christian and classical sources The result of this approach was not a consistent cosmological scheme but a rather contradictory vision which reveals much about how the Anglo Saxons viewed themselves
