Promised Land David Stebenne,2021-07-20 Explains how the American middle class ballooned at mid century until it dominated the nation showing who benefited and what brought the expansion to an end      Managing the Environment, Managing Ourselves Richard N. L. Andrews,2020-03-17 In the third edition of this definitive book Richard N L Andrews looks back at four centuries of American environmental policy showing how these policies affect contemporary environmental issues and public policy decisions and identifying key policy challenges for the future Andrews crafts a detailed and contextualized narrative of the historical development of American environmental policies and institutions This volume presents an extensively revised text with increased detail on the 50 year history of the modern environmental policy era and updated through the Obama and Trump administrations      The Spirit of Green William D. Nordhaus,2021-05-18 From a Nobel Prize winning pioneer in environmental economics an innovative account of how and why green thinking could cure many of the world s most serious problems from global warming to pandemics Solving the world s biggest problems from climate catastrophe and pandemics to wildfires and corporate malfeasance requires more than anything else coming up with new ways to manage the powerful interactions that surround us For carbon emissions and other environmental damage this means ensuring that those responsible pay their full costs rather than continuing to pass them along to others including future generations In The Spirit of Green Nobel Prize winning economist William Nordhaus describes a new way of green thinking that would help us overcome our biggest challenges without sacrificing economic prosperity in large part by accounting for the spillover costs of economic collisions In a discussion that ranges from the history of the environmental movement to the Green New Deal Nordhaus explains how the spirit of green thinking provides a compelling and hopeful new perspective on modern life At the heart of green thinking is a recognition that the globalized world is shaped not by isolated individuals but rather by innumerable interactions inside and outside the economy He shows how rethinking economic efficiency sustainability politics profits taxes individual ethics corporate social responsibility finance and more would improve the effectiveness and equity of our society And he offers specific solutions on how to price carbon how to pursue low carbon technologies how to design an efficient tax system and how to foster international cooperation through climate clubs The result is a groundbreaking new vision of how we can have our environment and our economy too Democracy Unbound David B. Reynolds,1997 David Reynolds explains how grassroots activists are translating mass discontent into new people driven parties in America This is the first and only book to look beyond the superficial media coverage of Ross Perot to the real movement for fundamental change Your Library ,1927 The FDR Years William D. Pederson,2009 Born in 1882 in New York Franklin Delano Roosevelt entered public service through the encouragement of the Democratic Party and won the election to the New York Senate in 1910 This book details his administration at the height of the Great Depression as he valiantly led the nation with the phrase The only thing we have to fear is fear itself How to Avoid a Phd (Penalty for Hardworking Dummies): Wishing I Were an Autodidact Tamara I. Hammond,2022-11-13 This book is the result of decades long academic research and 25 years of emergence in the myth of the American dream In reality a small minority of ultra rich corporations have complete control over the government and mercilessly exploit the majority of Americans The author debunks the illusion of meritocracy heavily promoted by ubiquitous propaganda Through the mainstream media PR and academia the legend is sold to the American people and the world as an equal opportunity for all Packaged in glamorous fabricated stories the myth is glorified by Hollywood and legitimized by multiple mainstream news channels that are owned by five companies which control the narrative At the same time higher education is designed to enslave graduates with enormous debts in order to keep them obedient In the complete absence of adequate opposition these institutions create and maintain a plutocracy while purporting to represent freedom and democracy The Tennessee Valley Authority Tim Culvahouse,2007-06-14 In the wake of the Great Depression one of President Franklin Roosevelt s most successful New Deal programs was the formation of the Tennessee Valley Authority a federal government owned corporation created in 1933 to revitalize the Tennessee River Valley This book includes essays by experts in the fields of architecture landscape architecture graphic design industrial design and the fine arts Featuring new photography by Richard Barnes The Tennessee Valley Authority interweaves technical political aesthetic and cultural concerns to complete a missing chapter in the study of modern American architecture and design      The Forces of Economic Globalization Katherine Lynch, Katherine L. Lynch, 2003-01-01 Increased economic interdependencies and trade flows between states innovations in information technology and computer networks a global shift toward market economies and regional and multilateral trade arrangements have all led to an increasingly globalized world economy The Forces of Economic Globalization Challenges to the Regime of International Commercial Arbitration examines some of the challenges facing the regime of international commercial arbitration in the contemporary global economy It considers the debates concerning the transformation of the global order and the role of nation states within the context of international commercial arbitration Issues discussed include the transformative effect of economic globalization the role of the epistemic community and the increased institutionalization within the international arbitral regime the nationalization of international commercial arbitration and the denationalization and harmonization trends the competitive nature of legislative reform convergence and divergence in the international arbitral process multilateralism and regionalism market modernization and transnationalism globalization and lex mercatoria and the development of online arbitration schemes in cyberspace This book seeks to analyze the inner penetration of a form of world polity or transnational order comprised of part epistemic community institutional networks national laws and multilateral conventions norms rules principles and transnational ideology on the traditional notion of state sovereignty within the international arbitral regime The book will interest practitioners and academics with an interest in international commercial arbitration      Indians and the American West in the Twentieth Century Donald L.
