day of glory on July 1 1863 when this young and untried regiment staged a magnificent defense at McPherson's farm Although this bright promise quickly faded into more typical regimental experience the story of the regiment's service under the indomitable Joshua Chamberlain remains worth telling Drawing on the service records of more than 800 soldiers as well as diaries letters and other primary sources this book details the 149th's battles from brigade to company level from the charges at Gettysburg to the assault at Petersburg Focus is on the development mood and character of a regiment as it undergoes changes in leadership loss of reliable veterans and the increased individual desire for survival as brutal battles

Europe exhibit a weakening of political will and Laqueur reveals how the media and the academic community have been unwilling to accept the fact of diminished U S stature in the Western world Reordering the World Duncan

States young people are bombarded with messages that they must go to college in order to secure their place in the middle class Those who are most disadvantaged in society are the most frequent recipients of this rhetoric because people believe that education is the one ticket that can save them from poverty Like the belief that there is only one avenue for salvation from hell to heaven the notion of salvific education presents a single answer to the problem of inequality if you want to be saved from poverty and oppression you must go to college In this book Hannah Adams Ingram interrogates the presumed promise of education and argues that the myth itself perpetuates rather than alleviates social inequality The Myth of the Saving Power of Education asks educators to reclaim the liberative potential of education and asks Christians to repent of judging individual worth based on the same merits as the secular market system The English Historical Review Mandell Creighton, Justin Winsor, Samuel Rawson Gardiner, Reginald Lane Poole, Sir John Goronwy Edwards, 1917
