Divergent Worlds Amitav Acharya, Manjeet S. Pardesi, 2025-01-14 A study of why the ancient Mediterranean and Indian Ocean took different paths to peace and stability and its lessons for international order today In this book Amitav Acharya and Manjeet S Pardesi compare the interplay of power and ideas in the ancient Mediterranean and Indian Ocean to explain why the two regions took divergent paths to peace and stability While the ancient Mediterranean order was shaped by the hegemony of Rome the Indian Ocean developed an open and inclusive international order without the dominance of any single power Moreover the Indian Ocean provides a more robust example of the peaceful spread of ideas and culture in contrast to the ancient Mediterranean where Hellenization or the spread of Greek ideas was often accompanied by violence and imperialism Applying the divergent experiences of the two regions the authors argue that the history of the Indian Ocean before European colonization offers a more useful framework for reshaping world order as the U S and Western dominated Liberal International Order comes to an end The Indian Ocean framework points to an alternative model of order building a multiplex rather than a multipolar approach that could sustain efforts to build peace and stability in the emerging Indo Pacific region

Southeast Asia between China and Japan Lam Peng Er, Victor Teo, 2011-11-15 Triangular relations which frame China and Japan as two sides of an isosceles triangle usually focus on the United States as the significant third side This edited book examines another relatively underexplored set of triangular relations those between China Japan and Southeast Asia The region comprised of eleven small and medium size states is often considered inconsequential in the tempestuous world of international politics where political clout economic prowess military strength and soft power matter most Often seen as easily dominated by extra regional great powers this volume reconsiders the region s relationship with China and Japan their two Asian neighbours to the northeast which also happen to be the world s second and third largest economies While China and Japan do compete for turf in Southeast Asia states in the region do not perceive themselves as strategic pawns of these two great Asian powers but instead as proactively engaging China and Japan in the region The country specific case studies of this book collectively support the thesis that the Southeast Asian states actively seek to manoeuvre between China and Japan for their own advantage and at the same time grapple with developments in Northeast Asia through regional integration efforts Through the establishment of benchmark norms and values Southeast Asia attempts to socialise China and Japan and other external powers to the ASEAN way Indeed Southeast Asia as a region is now the driver of East Asian multilateralism and regionalism and the East Asian reality is that Southeast Asia is a major political economic and cultural player in its own right vis vis the great powers Zheng He's Maritime Voyages (1405-1433) and China's Relations with the Indian Ocean World, 2014-08-07 Zheng He's Maritime Voyages 1405 1433 and China's Relations with the Indian Ocean World A Multilingual Bibliography provides a multidisciplinary guide to publications on this great navigator's activities and their impact on Chinese and world history Admiral Zheng He commanded the fifteenth century world's largest fleet In the course of seven voyages made between 1405 and 1433 his massive ships visited over thirty present day countries in Asia and Africa Those voyages reflected and reinforced the development of complex networks of trade migration cultural exchange and political interactions between China and the Indian Ocean world This bibliography lists sources in thirteen languages including both scholarly studies and popular works like Gavin Menzies's controversial bestsellers claiming the Chinese sailed around the world before Columbus Relevant translations transliterations and annotations are provided to aid the reader Bandung Revisited See Seng Tan, Amitav Acharya, 2008 The 1955 Asian African conference the Bandung Conference was a meeting of 29 Asian and African nations that sought to draw on Asian and African nationalism and religious traditions to forge a new international order that was neither communist nor capitalist It led six years later to the non aligned movement Few would dispute the notion that the inaugural meeting in 1955 was a watershed in international history but there is much disagreement about its long term legacy and its significance for present day international affairs Determining the what why and how of this monumental event remains a challenge for students of the Conference and of Third World international politics Was it a post colonial ideological reaction to the passing of the age of empire or an innovative effort to promote a new regionalism based on mutual goodwill and strong regional ties Were its principles of peaceful coexistence a rhetorical flourish or a substantive policy initiative Did the Conference help define North South relations And in what way did the Conference contribute to the regional order of contemporary Asia Back cover Rise Of China And India, The: A New Asian Drama Peng Er Lam, Tai Wei Lim, Prapat Thepchatree, 2009-05-29 The most remarkable phenomenon in Asia in the 21st century is arguably the economic rise of China and India Amazingly the two most populous countries in the world are uplifting millions of their citizens annually from poverty through rapid economic growth What is the impact on the region given the ascendance of China and India There are at least two possible outcomes the rise of the two great Asian powers may challenge the US and instill fear among the smaller countries in Asia or China and India will act as new economic dynamos that will benefit the region even if US economic presence in the region is to decline in the future This book explores the opportunities and obstacles to a harmonious region underpinned by the rise of China and India China, the European Union and the Developing World Jan Wouters, Jean-Christophe Defraigne, Matthieu Burnay, 2015-02-27 China the European Union and the Developing World provides a comparative analysis of Chinese and EU influence across five different regions of the developing world Asia Pacific South and Central Asia the Middle East and North Africa Sub Saharan Af Cambodia's China Strategy Chanborey Cheunboran, 2021-06-21 This book explores the tensions within Cambodia's foreign policy between a tight alignment with China on the one hand and Cambodia's commitment to the Association of the Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN as well as its delicate foreign policy diversification towards other major powers on the other hand It traces the long history of Cambodia's quest for survival from its bigger and historically antagonistic neighbours the Thai and the Vietnamese and its struggle for security and independence from the two neighbours and external major powers particularly the United States and China It discusses Cambodia's geopolitical predicaments deriving from its location of being sandwiched between powerful neighbours and limited strategic options available for the Kingdom The book also assesses recent developments in Cambodia's relations with its neighbours and their implications for Cambodia's increasingly tight alignment with China in recent years It considers the extent to which the ruling regime in Cambodia depends on strong relations with China for its legitimacy and survival and argues that there are risks and danger for Cambodia in moving towards an increasingly tight alignment with China

Imagined Geographies Geoffrey C. Gunn, 2021-09-03 Imagined Geographies is a pioneering work in the study of history and geography of the pre 1800 world In this book Gunn argues that different regions astride the maritime silk roads were not only interconnected but can also be construed as imagined geographies Taking a grand civilizational perspective five such geographic imaginaries are examined across respective chapters namely Indian Arabic Chinese Japanese and European including an imagined Great South Land Drawing upon an array of marine and other archaeological examples the author offers compelling evidence of the intertwining of political cultural and economic regions across the sea silk roads from ancient times until the seventeenth century Through a thorough analysis of these five geographic imaginaries the author sets aside purely national history and looks at the maritime realm from a broader spatial perspective He challenges the Eurocentric concept of center and periphery and establishes a revisionist view on a decentered world regional history This book will definitely interest history lovers from all around the world who want to know more about how their forebears viewed their respective region and how their region fits into world history with local uniqueness Gunn takes large themes and makes them understandable He is not afraid to make the grand statement and to look at the sweep of history all in one arc I admire that greatly this is not history for the faint of heart But it is history well done and history that can show the forest from the trees Eric Tagliacozzo John Stambaugh Professor of History Cornell University This is one of the most ambitious and insightful books that I have read on pre Modern maritime Asia The author offers fascinating perspectives on how this vast region was imagined charted and experienced over many centuries That requires mastery of an immense range of scholarship and primary sources His aim is to knit this watery world together into a conceptual whole This mission is accomplished with style and discipline Andrew R Wilson John A van Beuren Chair of Asia Pacific Studies U S Naval War

College The Political Culture of East Asia Oleg Pakhomov, 2022-03-15 This book explores the phenomenon of total power in East Asia with particular attention to China Korea and Japan It shows how total power enables an examination of regional experience as a part of global context in order to demarcate the connections with other countries and regions that have similar political cultures such as those in Central Asia the Middle East and East Africa Moreover it elucidates that the phenomenon of total power unpacks the interrelations not only between different countries but also between political economic religious or cultural aspects of the region as a whole and of each country in particular This book takes East Asia as a classic example of where total power has achieved the highest forms of development during traditional periods in the form of absolute economic dependence of society on the state ideologically enshrined by a system of moral obligations toward supreme power that allowed for the establishment of a monopoly on forced labour and the appropriation and distribution of social products The author emphasizes the importance of exploring the tradition of total power with reference to the ongoing global crisis of European democracy In doing so the book shows that democratization has not brought qualitative changes to the political culture of East Asia An essential interdisciplinary read for scholars studying political science particularly East West relations this book situates East Asian political culture within a global context Modern China Bruce A. Elleman, S. C. M. Paine, 2019-02-18 Now in a fully updated edition this accessible text provides a balanced history of modern China in a global context Through years of living and research in China Taiwan Japan and Russia the authors are deeply qualified to understand China s internal dynamics as well as its foreign relations over centuries Arguing that modern Chinese history cannot be understood without a deep appreciation of the outside factors that have influenced the country the authors focus on China s near neighbors especially Japan and Russia They also emphasize the tragic role of almost endless warfare throughout Chinese history Providing a unique comparative approach the authors bridge the cultural divide separating Chinese history from Western readers trying to understand it Specifically geared to the teaching requirements of the semester system the book is divided into four parts and a total of twenty eight chapters corresponding either to two chapters per week in a fourteen week semester or one chapter per week in a two semester course The ASEAN Miracle Kishore Mahbubani, Jeffery Sng, 2017-03-08 The Association of Southeast Asian Nations is a miracle Why In an era of growing cultural pessimism many thoughtful individuals believe that different civilizations especially Islam and the West cannot live together in peace The ten countries of ASEAN provide a thriving counter example of civilizational co existence Here 625m people live together in peace This miracle was delivered by ASEAN In an era of growing economic pessimism where many young people believe that their lives will get worse in coming decades Southeast Asia bubbles with optimism In an era where many thinkers predict rising geopolitical competition and tension ASEAN regularly brings together all the world s great powers Stories of peace are told less frequently than stories of conflict and war ASEAN s imperfections make better headlines than its achievements But in the hands of Kishore Mahbubani and Jeffery Sng the good news story is also a provocation and a
