Historical Dictionary of Laos Martin Stuart-Fox, Simon Creak, 2023-02-06 Laos has the smallest population the weakest military and despite rapid economic growth in recent years one of the lowest levels of per capita income in mainland Southeast Asia Yet a glance at the map reveals its strategic location between China and Cambodia and Thailand and Vietnam As Laos was formerly a crossroads for trade routes the socialist government of the Lao People's Democratic Republic seeks to transform the country into a prosperous crossroads at the heart of this rapidly developing region Historical Dictionary of Laos Fourth Edition provides an in depth examination of one of the least known countries in Southeast Asia through a detailed chronology comprehensive introduction and extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 1 000 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book will be an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Laos

Embodied Nation Simon Creak, 2017-08-31 This strikingly original book examines how sport and ideas of physicality have shaped the politics and culture of modern Laos Viewing the country's extraordinary transitions from French colonialism to royalist nationalism to revolutionary socialism to the modern development state through the lens of physical culture Simon Creak's lively and incisive narrative illuminates a nation that has no reputation in sport and is typically viewed even from within as a country of cheerful but lazy people Creak argues that sport and related physical practices including physical education gymnastics and military training have shaped a national consciousness by locating it in everyday experience These practices are popular participatory performative and above all physical in character and embody ideas and ideologies in a symbolic and experiential way Embodied Nation takes readers on a brisk ride through more than a century of Lao history from a nineteenth century game of tikhi an indigenous game resembling field hockey to the country's unprecedented outpouring of nationalist sentiment when hosting the 2009 Southeast Asian Games En route we witness a Lao Vietnamese soccer brawl in 1936 the fascist inspired body ethic of the early 1940s the novel modes of military masculinity that blossomed with national independence the spectacular state theatrics of power represented by Olympic inspired sports festivals and the high hopes and frequent failures of socialist sport in the 1970s and 1980s Of central concern in Creak's narrative are the twin motifs of gender and civilization Despite increasing female participation since the early twentieth century he demonstrates the major role that sport and physical culture have played in forming hegemonic masculinities in Laos Even with limited national sporting success Laos has never won an Olympic medal the healthy toned and muscular form has come to symbolize material development and prosperity Embodied Nation outlines the complex ways in which these motifs through sport and physical culture articulate with state power Combining cultural and intellectual history with historical thick description Creak draws on a creative array of Lao and French sources from previously unexplored archives newspapers and magazines and from ethnographic writing war photography and cartoons More than an imagined community or geobody he shows that Laos was also a body at work making substantive theoretical contributions not only to Southeast Asian studies and history but to the study of the physical culture nationalism masculinity and modernity in all modern societies American War Machine Peter Dale Scott, 2010-11-16 This provocative thoroughly researched book explores the covert aspects of U S foreign policy Prominent political analyst Peter Dale Scott marshals compelling evidence to expose the extensive growth of sanctioned but illicit violence in politics and state affairs especially when related to America's long standing involvement with the global drug traffic Beginning with Thailand in the 1950s Americans have become inured to the CIA's alliances with drug traffickers and their bankers to install and sustain right wing governments The pattern has repeated itself in Laos Vietnam Italy Mexico Thailand Nigeria Venezuela Colombia Peru Chile Panama Honduras Turkey Pakistan and now Afghanistan to name only those countries dealt with in this book Scott shows that the relationship of U S intelligence operators and agencies to the global drug traffic and to other international criminal networks deserves greater attention in the debate over the U S presence in Afghanistan To date America's government and policies have done more to foster than to curtail the drug trade The so called war on terror and in particular the war in Afghanistan constitutes only the latest chapter in this disturbing story

Contesting Visions of the Lao Past Christopher E. Goscha, Søren Ivarsson, 2003 Laos's emergence as a modern nation state in the 20th century owed much to a complex interplay of internal and external forces Arguing that the historiography of Laos needs to be understood in this wider context this study considers how the Lao have written their own nationalist and revolutionary history on the inside while others the French Vietnamese and Thais have attempted to write the history of Laos from the outside for their own political ends As nationalist historiography like the formation of the nation state does not emerge within a nationalist vacuum but rather is created and contested from inside and out this incisive volume's approach has applications and implications far beyond Laos Vientiane Marc Askew, Colin Long, William Logan, 2006-12-07 This book is a rich exploration of the country's political social and cultural history and geo political development from its creation to the present day Memory in the Mekong Will Brehm, Yuto Kitamura, 2022 This is a pathbreaking work at the intersection of international relations the politics of education and the construction of historical memory Highly recommended Kanishka Jayasuriya Murdoch University Australia This edited collection explores the possibilities perils and politics of constructing a regional identity The Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN a multinational institution comprised of 10 member states is dedicated to building a Southeast Asian regional identity that includes countries along Southeast Asia's Mekong River delta Cambodia Thailand Vietnam Laos and Myanmar After successfully establishing an economic community in 2015 where capital and people can freely move across national borders ASEAN and its partners now aim to develop a sociocultural community that is fully functional in a wide range of sectors by 2025 As part of this vision ASEAN wishes to construct a regional identity by uniting over 600 million people which will be achieved partly through national school systems that teach shared histories In this text the contributors critically examine the many questions that arise in the face of this significant change What does an ASEAN identity look like Is it even possible or desirable to create a common identity across the diverse peoples of Southeast Asia Given the divergent memories of history how would a regional identity exist alongside national identity Memory in the Mekong grapples with these questions by exploring issues of shared history national identity and schooling in a region that is frequently underexamined and underrepresented in Western scholarship Contributors Will Brehm Bich Hang Duong Yasushi Hirosato Yuto Kitamura Somsanit Larvankham Rosalie Metro Thongdeuane Nanthanavone Vong on Phuaphansawat Anna Zongolowicz A New History of Southeast Asia M.C. Ricklefs, Bruce Lockhart, Albert Lau, 2010-11-19 A new comprehensive one volume history of Southeast Asia that spans prehistory to the present Ricklefs brings together colleagues at the National University of Singapore whose expertise covers the entire region encompassing political social economic religious and cultural history Opening with an account of the ethnic groups and initial cultural and social structures of Southeast Asia the book moves through the early classical states the arrival of new global religions and the impact of non indigenous actors The history of early modern states and their colonial successors is followed by analysis of World War II across the region Offering a definitive account of decolonisation and early post colonial nation building the text then transports us to modern day Southeast Asia exploring its place in a world recovering from the financial crisis The distinguished author team provide an authoritative and accessible narrative drawing upon the latest research and offering detailed guidance on further reading A landmark contribution to the field this is an essential text for scholars students and anyone interested in Southeast Asia Cultures at War Tony Day, Maya H. T. Liem, 2018-08-06 The Cold War in Southeast Asia was a many faceted conflict driven by regional historical imperatives as much as by the contest between global superpowers The essays in this book offer the most detailed and probing examination to date of the cultural dimension of the Cold War in Southeast Asia Southeast Asian culture from the late 1940s to the late 1970s was primarily shaped by a long standing search for national identity and independence which took place in the context of intense rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union with the Peoples Republic of China emerging in 1949 as another major international competitor for influence in Southeast Asia Based on fieldwork in Burma Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam the essays in this collection analyze the ways in which art literature film theater spectacle physical culture and the popular press represented Southeast Asian responses to the Cold War and commemorated that era s violent conflicts long after tensions had subsided Southeast Asian cultural reactions to the Cold War involved various solutions to the dilemmas of the newly independent nation states of the region What is common to all of the perspectives and works examined in this book is that they expressed social and aesthetic concerns that both antedated and outlasted the Cold War ones that never became simply aligned with the ideologies of either bloc Contributors Francisco B Benitez University of Washington Bo Bo Burmese writer SOAS University of London Michael Bodden University of Victoria Simon Creak Australian National University Gaik Cheng Khoo Australian National University Rachel Harrison SOAS University of London Barbara Hatley University of Tasmania Boitran Huynh Beattie Asiarta Foundation Jennifer Lindsay Australian National University

Woman between Two Kingdoms Leslie Castro-Woodhouse,2020-12-15 Woman between Two Kingdoms explores the story of Dara Rasami one of 153 wives of King Chulalongkorn of Siam during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Born in a kingdom near Siam called Lan Na Dara served as both hostage and diplomat for her family and nation Thought of as a harem by the West Siam s Inner Palace actually formed a nexus between the domestic and the political Dara s role as an ethnic Other among the royal concubines assisted the Siamese in both consolidating the kingdom s territory and building a local version of Europe s hierarchy of civilizations Dara Rasami s story provides a fresh perspective on both the sociopolitical roles played by Siamese palace women and Siam s response to the intense imperialist pressures it faced in the late nineteenth century Thanks to generous funding from the Andrew W Mellon Foundation through The Sustainable History Monograph Pilot the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories

Border Economies in the Greater Mekong Sub-region M. Ishida,2013-07-26 A group of internationally recognised experts examine the recent trends of cross border movements of people goods and economic activity at fifteen major borders in the Greater Mekong Sub region with the aim of predicting the long terms future for this region

Post-war Laos Vattana Pholsena,2006 Three decades after the conclusion of the civil war that brought the communist Pathet Lao to power the leaders of the Lao People s Democratic Republic are still searching for a compelling and unifying national identity As detailed in Postwar Laos a rigorously researched cogently argued and pathbreaking book Laotian nationalism is caught between the rhetoric of preservation and the desire for modernity Using fine grained analysis of substantial ethnographic and archival material Vatthana Pholsena sheds light on the politics of identity the geographies of memory and the power of historical narrative in contemporary Laos Pholsena pays particular attention to the country's ethnic minorities who had been marginalized politically administratively and symbolically by the French colonial government which ruled for fifty years and by its Royal Lao successor Many members of these minorities fought for the Lao People's Liberation Army in the country's civil war 1960-1975 though and were thus exposed to the processes of modern politics The first book to examine the impact of such forces on Laos's ethnic minorities and their perception of Laotian nationalism Postwar Laos also refines established theories of nationalism Pholsena addresses a weakness common to all the tendency to deny agency to individuals who may in fact interpret their relationship to and place within the nation in a variety of ways that change according to time and circumstance Postwar Laos offers a new perspective on the history of Southeast Asia and more broadly on the formation of national identity that will be welcomed by historians political scientists sociologists ethnographers and cultural anthropologists alike
