Long Walks In The Afternoon Poems:

Long Walks in the Afternoon Margaret Gibson, 1982-11-01 With a quiet eloquence the poems in Long Walks in the Afternoon follow the deep imagination's long tap into the dark inward toward the still and radiant center of the self But Margaret Gibson's poetry is not self-serving or isolationist She writes out of the firm conviction that our personal griefs held energies that can move is to reach beyond ourselves and join with others in common struggle Beginning with poems that struggle against illusion egotism and emptiness the collection progresses to poems that challenge violence social violence against women political violence in east Asia and Chile and in Radiation the violence that still reverberates from the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki We made the scars and the radiant air We made people invisible as numbers We did this In a final section the desire to know and claim the self is transformed in a sequence of elegies into the passion to lose myself in work and in love and in the world to be no one The meditative mood of Gibson's poems becomes a movement against isolation a wrestle with our roots and common bonds and a way of challenging the self to be more openly aligned with creative forces and to speak out against dishonesty injustice chaos and war I Love the Beach, Poetry, Long Walks, Night Runs, Riding My Bike, Sunsets and Smelling My Own Feet... Edwin Estuya, 2011-03-30 this is a summary of his daily thoughts which he wrote every night He loves the beach poetry long walks night runs riding his bike sunsets and smelling his own feet though this is not a perfect commercial grade book this is a story of a person's life a true story of his wanderings his convictions his passions his dreams his frustrations his love yes these thoughts come from his heart this is his story of his road to greatness if there's ever one for him a true story to tell the whole world and the ones left behind Made Thing: an Anthology of Contemporary Southern Poetry, 2nd Ed (p) Leon Stokesbury, 1999 The second edition features twelve new poets as well as new work by Donald Justice T R Hummer Dave Smith Pattiann Rogers Andrew Hudgins Henry Taylor Gerald Barrax Rodney Jones and others Among the new additions are Mark Jarman Cathy Smith Bowers and Charlie Smith Many teachers realize that the best way to get their students to relate to poetry is to show them poems that contain landscapes and subjects they understand and can identify with Leon Stokesbury has put together a richly varied collection used in classrooms not only in the South but all over the country as a means of studying the important influence of southern poetry on American literature With the publication of the second edition of The Made Thing Stokesbury has marked the end of the twentieth century and the rise to prominence of southern writers This collection serves as a substantial sampling of poets whose works span more than five decades and who explore the rich personal and cultural history that extends beyond the boundaries of the South Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora, Amber Vogel, 2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor's place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised it boasts 604 entries nearly double the earlier edition's written by 264 scholars For every figure major and minor from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive concise up to date information Here in one convenient source are the South s novelists and short story writers poets and dramatists memoirists and essayists journalists scholars and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty first century What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate Editors Joseph M Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary s original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged For almost every writer found in the previous edition a new biography has been commissioned Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject Where the Angels Come Toward Us David St. John,1995 For almost twenty years from the publication of his seminal and highly influential collection of poems Hush to the appearance of the stunning Study for the World s Body New and Selected Poems David St John has been considered one of the most accomplished and innovative of all American poets Here for the first time David St John has selected from essays and reviews written over the course of his career about many of the major figures of our time W S Merwin Philip Levine Mark Strand Charles Wright Donald Hall Marvin Bell Donald Justice Jorie Graham and dozens of others and brought them together with six uncompromising and refreshingly candid interviews about the craft of poetry and the state of poetry today Always passionate about the poets he loves and always provocative in his poetic judgements David St John has given us a lucid and exciting volume of prose that all readers of poetry can turn to for both pleasure and instruction Back cover
