Long Shadowed Forest:

Long-Shadowed Forest Helen Hoover, Adrian Hoover, 1998 A beloved naturalist's guide to the northern wilderness around her remote cabin Helen Hoover is one of those rare writers who can describe the natural world warmly intimately and affectionately without being in the least sentimental or childish Paul Gruchow In 1954 Helen Hoover and her husband Adrian left their careers and the big city life of Chicago to live in a small cabin in the north woods that border Minnesota and Canada Living without electricity telephone or a car the Hoovers became part of the environment peacefully coexisting with their wild neighbors The Long Shadowed Forest is the amazing record of the Hoovers relationship with deer mice birds squirrels moose and other creatures of the forest First published in 1963 these stories of daily life in the woods and vivid descriptions of a fascinating variety of plants and animals delighted readers for years and have an enduring popularity The Long-shadowed Forest Helen Hoover, 1981-01-01 A beloved naturalist's guide to the northern wilderness around her remote cabin Helen Hoover is one of those rare writers who can describe the natural world warmly intimately and affectionately without being in the least sentimental or childish Paul Gruchow In 1954 Helen Hoover and her husband Adrian left their careers and the big city life of Chicago to live in a small cabin in the north woods that border Minnesota and Canada Living without electricity telephone or a car the Hoovers became part of the environment peacefully coexisting with their wild neighbors The Long Shadowed Forest is the amazing record of the Hoovers relationship with deer mice birds squirrels moose and other creatures of the forest First published in 1963 these stories of daily life in the woods and vivid descriptions of a fascinating variety of plants and animals delighted readers for years and have an enduring popularity The Long-shadowed Forest Helen Hoover, 1963 The original typescript of Hoover's book published in 1963 with the author's autograph corrections Some pages are handwritten At top of first page is Hoover's address at Gunflint Lake Grand Marais Minnesota The Long-shadowed Forest Helen Hoover, 1963 The life of forest lake and stream as observed with pleasure and precision by the author whose home is in the North Woods of Minnesota The Long-Shadowed Forest. Illustrated by Adrian Hoover Helen Hoover, 1963 Her Place in the Woods David Hakensen, 2025-09-10 The biography of one of Minnesota's most beloved nature writers from her career in the city to her rustic cabin on Gunflint Lake During the late 1950s through the early 1970s Helen Hoover's stories and essays of life in the wilderness on northern Minnesota's Gunflint Lake published in popular magazines and several bestselling books including The Gift of the Deer in 1966 and A Place in the Woods in 1969 found millions of fans and earned her accolades alongside nature writers like Sigurd Olson Rachel Carson Sally Carrighar and Calvin Rutstrum Hoover's own unlikely history of leaving a corporate career in Chicago for a small cabin without electricity or running water with no interest in hunting or fishing is just one chapter of the remarkable life that David Hakensen describes in Her Place in the Woods This first complete biography illuminates how Helen Hoover 1910-1984 made a place for herself and for countless readers in as she put it the world of her time Hoover defied convention Self trained and without an academic degree she worked in the male dominated metallurgical field as a researcher at International Harvester where she solved a long standing problem with the manufacture of discs for farm implements and earned a patent She and her husband Adrian a commercial artist had long dreamed of moving to a remote cabin in the woods As they started the long return drive to Chicago after a summer spent on Gunflint Lake they finally made the leap quitting their jobs with a long distance phone call from Grand Marais and figuring out the rest as they went The Hoovers were woefully unprepared for life off the grid and slowly learned how to convert sheds into chicken coops and fend off bears Social encounters presented their own challenges with Helen s fiery personality leading to clashes with hunters and other Gunflint neighbors Gradually the Hoovers settled into the rhythms of their remote homestead and Helen would craft a prolific literary livelihood from her keen observations of nature and encounters with animals in the surrounding woods Her Place in the Woods captures both an awakening to the power and fragility of the natural world and the efforts and talents of an extraordinary woman defining herself as a writer Though Helen Hoover would move on from the secluded North Woods as she wrote in her final book The Years of the Forest From this time on it would be both here and with me wherever I might be as long as I should live
