Long-Distance Parents & Grandparents Don Brosious, 2021-04-02. Let's face it, parenting is hard. We often struggle wondering if we're doing the best we can for our kids. It's so much pressure knowing that you only get a short window of time to prepare them to become responsible, healthy, and emotionally balanced adults. This book is your ultimate guide, containing over 70 sections of advice and activities to help you get started and keep going with great quality distance contact.

Parenting from Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance Maria Rosario T. De Guzman, Jill Rena Brown, Carolyn P. Edwards, 2018. An increasing number of families around the world are now living apart from one another, subsequently causing the defining and redefining of their relationships, roles within the family unit, and how to effectively maintain a sense of familial cohesion through distance. Edited by Maria Rosario T. de Guzman, Jill Brown, and Carolyn Pope Edwards, Parenting From Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance uniquely highlights how families, both in times of crisis and within normative cultural practices, organize and configure themselves and their parenting through physical separation. In this volume, readers are given a unique look into the lives of families around the world that are affected by separation due to a wide range of circumstances, including economic migration, fosterage, divorce, military deployment, education, and orphanhood. Contributing authors from the fields of psychology, anthropology, sociology, education, and geography all delve deep into the daily realities of these families and share insight on why they live apart from one another, how families are redefined across long distances, and the impact absence has on various members within the unit. An especially timely volume, Parenting From Afar and the Reconfiguration of Family Across Distance offers readers an important understanding and examination of family life in response to social change and shifts in the caregiving context.

Creating Effective Parenting Plans John Hartson, Brenda Payne, 2006. According to these pediatric psychologists, the best interest of the child calls for a developmentally appropriate parenting plan that is custody that accurately reflects the child's physical and psychological development. Even now, this concept often faces courtroom challenges as it can conflict with the traditional lawyer-client relationship. This book explores developing alternate parenting schedules or custody with the child's best interest and developmental needs considered first.
