Silva-Filho, Luca Tateo, 2019-05-28 This book advances our theoretical understanding of the human experience By overcoming dualities such as the relationship between reflection and action it allows a more in depth analysis of how concepts constitute complementary parts of the complex human thinking to be developed Presenting texts written by leading philosophers and psychologists it provides a comprehensive overview of the current state of theoretical elaboration which is then used to discuss the place and value of reflection in moral and epistemic scenes These topics are accessible to experts and young scholars in the field alike and offer scope for further reflections that could improve our understanding beyond the existing models and isms The novelty of the book is in the dialogue established between several perspectives e g philosophers and psychologists Europe America and Asia etc The contributions of philosophers and psychologists establish a fruitful dialogue so that readers realize that disciplinary divisions are overcome through dialogue and the common object of inquiry the way human beings reflect and act in their everyday experiences Bibliographic Index , 1983 College Reading Lee Vogel, Lee V. Kolzow, Jane Lehmann, 1988 Emphasizing strategies not skills this dynamic text demands active responses and encourages readers to see reading as a search for meaning Comprehensive in scope the book gives readers proven strategies to replace nonproductive passive approaches that stand in the way of successful reading Subject Catalog, 1976 Library of Congress, 1976 National Union Catalog , 1978 Teacher's Manual , 1976 The Publishers' Trade List Annual , 1977

Routledge International Handbook of Consumer Psychology Cathrine V. Jansson-Boyd, Magdalena J. Zawisza, 2016-11-18 This unique handbook maps the growing field of consumer psychology in its increasingly global context With contributions from over 70 scholars across four continents the book reflects the cross cultural and multidisciplinary character of the field Chapters relate the key consumer concepts to the progressive globalization of markets in which consumers act and consumption takes place The book is divided into seven sections offering a truly comprehensive reference work that covers The historical foundations of the discipline and the rise of globalization The role of cognition and multisensory perception in consumers judgements The social self identity and well being including their relation to advertising Social and cultural influences on consumption including politics and religion Decision making attitudes and behaviorally based research Sustainable consumption and the role of branding The particularities of online settings in framing and affecting behavior The Routledge International Handbook of Consumer Psychology will be essential reading for anyone interested in how the perceptions feelings and values of consumers interact with the decisions they make in relation to products and services in a global context It will also be key reading for students and researchers across psychology and marketing as well as professionals interested in a deeper understanding of the field

Towards a Radical Redefinition of Psychology Miller Mair, 2014-10-10 The World Library of Mental Health celebrates the important contributions to mental health made by leading experts in their individual fields Each author has compiled a career long collection of what they consider to be their finest pieces extracts from books journals articles major theoretical and practical contributions and salient research findings Miller Mair clinical psychologist and psychotherapist devoted his life to developing a psychology that provided a radical alternative to the behavioural and latterly cognitive behavioural approaches that have dominated the field He presented this work in a wide range of publications and conference papers and prior to his untimely death in 2011 he had selected a number of these for a volume of his collected works This book is based upon Miller s selection and includes several previously unpublished papers as well as others that are now out of print Miller was considerably influenced by George Kelly s personal construct psychology as is apparent in most of his writings However his papers on psychology and psychotherapy also draw upon an extraordinarily wide range of other fields of knowledge including imagery metaphor storytelling and narrative rhetoric discourse and conversation poetry and spirituality These concerns are reflected in the contributions selected for this volume which also demonstrate the variation in his style of writing from the more conventionally academic to the personal and poetic as he developed a poetics of experience and a stance of conversational inquiry Miller s final publication was entitled Enchanting psychology and it is hoped that this volume will provide an antidote to the disenchantment that many readers may feel with mechanistic and reductionist approaches in psychology and its clinical applications and more generally in health service rhetoric and policies As these writings vividly demonstrate a clinical psychologist and psychotherapist can and should also be a poet artist and storyteller The volume will be of value to readers previously unfamiliar with Miller s ideas but also to those who know his work who will find here the first published selection of his papers High School Behavioral Science ,1975
