Earl Hamner James E. Person (Jr.), James E. Person, 2005 Since Spencer's Mountain I have followed Earl Hamner's career with much interest and much satisfaction having picked a winner Harper Lee author of To Kill a Mockingbird Earl Hamner one of America's best loved storytellers has never been the subject of a full length study Earl Hamner From Walton's Mountain to Tomorrow fills that gap A native Virginian Hamner once said Even though families are said to be shattered these days and God is said to be dead if people can revisit the scenes and places where these values did exist possibly they can come to believe in them again or to adapt some kind of belief in God or faith in the family unit or just getting home again This vision of what makes for a whole life permeates all of Hamner's work It is present in the novel Spencer's Mountain upon which The Waltons was loosely based and in his screenplays such as the work he is perhaps most proud of Charlotte's Web It is even present in such unlikely places as the eight scripts he contributed to the classic television series The Twilight Zone and the tales of cold blooded betrayal and boundless ambition depicted on Falcon Crest In Earl Hamner From Walton's Mountain to Tomorrow readers will discover the integrated nature of his career finding that there is no real conflict between the warm folksiness of The Waltons the offbeat fantasies of his Twilight Zone scripts the unscrupulous ethics displayed on Falcon Crest and the myriad other novels and scripts he has written and TV programs he has produced Instead readers will find that there is a pervasive theme running throughout Hamner's work that of a man forever taking a backward glance at his roots for direction in finding what makes life worthwhile Upon learning that this book was being written Hamner told one of his friends I can't imagine anyone wanting to read a book about me much less write one about me Readers of this book will find Hamner's doubts indeed misplaced They will also discover a delightful individual who has enjoyed a long accomplished career as a storyteller laboring for a worthy goal that posterity may know of an age and a people whose legacy has not through silence been permitted to pass away as if a dream

Looking Back-- at Live Television and Other Matters Delbert Mann, 1998 John Williams Film Music Journalist and Historian Adjunct Instructor in Film Music History Tim Greiving, 2025 John Williams is the most famous film composer of all time. He wrote as many universally well-known tunes as the Beatles or Beethoven, if not more. His themes for Jaws, Star Wars, Indiana Jones, E.T. Jurassic Park, and Harry Potter are beloved around the world by multiple generations. This is the first major biography achieved with unprecedented access to Williams and new interviews with Steven Spielberg and Yo Yo Ma among many others. Television Directors, Race, and Gender Jonathan J. Cavallero, 2024-07-17 This book challenges the predominant framing of US television as a writer's or producer's medium by suggesting that television directors are a vital component of TV artistry. Looking beyond a perspective that favors the narrative and economic aspects of television but undervalues the medium's formal elements, the book explores how directors use the visual and aural to contribute layers of meaning that add to the thematic development of television texts. Starting from the belief that television aesthetics partially reveal the ways in which directors and their collaborators contribute to the overall thematic development of a program, the author offers five case studies that map out the ways that directors have contributed to television drama throughout the medium's approximately 80-year history. By devoting special attention to the presence and voices of directors from marginalized backgrounds, the book creates opportunities to discuss television from perspectives that emphasize issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion. This original and insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of television studies, television production, and media production, critical media studies, media authorship, gender studies, and race and media.

Two of her most popular films, Guys and Dolls (1955) and Spartacus (1960), were international box office hits, and in her seven-decade-long career, she collected numerous awards and honors, including a Golden Globe, an Emmy, and two Oscar nominations as Best Actress.
