

A movie poster for the film 'L'or du ciel'. It features a close-up of a man and a woman. The woman, Judith, is in the foreground, looking directly at the camera with a slight smile. She has dark hair and is wearing a dark, possibly black, dress with a ruffled collar. She is also wearing a necklace with a large, dark, oval-shaped pendant. The man, Michael, is behind her, his face partially visible as he looks towards the camera. The background is dark and out of focus. The title 'L'or du ciel' is written in a large, elegant, cursive script across the middle of the poster. In the bottom right corner, there is a small circular logo with a stylized 'M' and 'J' inside. The overall tone is romantic and sophisticated.

French Pulpit Oratory, 1598-1650 Peter Bayley,2011-08-11 This 1980 text was the first full length study of seventeenth century pulpit oratory since 1863 and the first to treat both Catholic and Protestant preaching The first part opens with a general discussion on the sermon as a literary form followed by a survey of ideas on preaching and the practical arts of preaching circulating in late Renaissance Europe Of the central chapters on the sermons themselves two are concerned with the style and complex formal structures of the sermons while two examine in turn the major themes of illusion and nature and the imagery associated with them The second part is a descriptive catalogue of extant sermons and some funeral orations of the period which provided a great deal of information never previously collected The book made a significant contribution both to the study of a neglected period of French literature the Baroque and to comparative studies of the sermon The History of Our Lord as Exemplified in Works of Art Anna Jameson,1864 A Reexamination of Lord
