The Carpathians Patrice M. Dabrowski, 2021-10-15 In The Carpathians Patrice M. Dabrowski narrates how three highland ranges of the mountain system found in present-day Poland, Slovakia and Ukraine were discovered for a broader regional public. This is a story of how the Tatras, Eastern Carpathians and Bieszczady Mountains went from being terra incognita to becoming the popular tourist destinations they are today. It is a story of the encounter of Polish and Ukrainian lowlanders with the wild, sublime highlands and with the indigenous highlanders: Goral, Hutsuls, Boikos and Lemkos, and how these peoples were incorporated into a national narrative as the territories were transformed into a native national landscape. The set of microhistories in this book occur from about 1860 to 1980, a time in which nations and states concerned themselves with the frontier at the edge. Discoverers not only became enthralled with what were perceived as their own highlands but also availed themselves of the mountains as places to work out answers to the burning questions of the day. Each discovery led to a surge in mountain tourism and interest in the mountains and their indigenous highlanders. Although these mountains essentially a continuation of the Alps in Central and Eastern Europe's most prominent physical feature, politically they are peripheral. The Carpathians is the first book to deal with the northern slopes in such a way, showing how these discoveries had a direct impact on the various nation-building, state-building and modernization projects. Dabrowski's history incorporates a unique blend of environmental history, borderlands studies and the history of tourism and leisure.

Chinese Memories Jean Elizabeth Ward, 2008-02 Chinese Memories is a collection of poems by Poet Laureate Jean Elizabeth Ward. She says the difference is: My poems are not written in stone; they can be changed as time passes along.

Arcadian Visions Allan R. Ruff, 2015-10-31 This book is about Arcadia and the pastoral tradition, what it has meant for successive generations and their vision of the landscape as well as the implications this has had for its design and management. Today the concept of Arcadia and way it has shaped our landscape is dimly perceived and little understood by landscape architects and those responsible for the management of land. This is in marked contrast to previous centuries when the vision of Arcadia and the pastoral was implanted by education among the more privileged in society. Young men spent many hours translating and learning by rote the words of Virgil and other classical authors and on the Grand Tour they would be introduced to work of painters like Poussin and Claude and their interpretations of the ideal pastoral landscape. Today Arcadia holds as powerful an influence as at any time in the past and it is important that we plan our urban environment in ways that harmonize with the natural world.

Arcadian Visions provides an alternative landscape history for all those involved with the landscape either through its design management use or enjoyment It begins by examining the origins of Arcadia and the pastoral in the classical poetry of Theocritus and Virgil and the effects of and on Christianity before outlining its development in renaissance Italy and subsequently in the Netherlands America and England It concludes by looking at how Arcadian ecology is bringing about a reappraisal of the pastoral in the 21st century
