Movements Of Power Ancient Sector:

Theories of the Labor Movement Simeon Larson, Bruce Nissen, 1987 A collection of readings respecting both the history a labor theories and the variety of theoretical points of view concerning the labor movement Respecting both the history a labor theories and the variety of theoretical points of view concerning the labor movement this collection of readings includes selections by Karl Marx V I Lenin William Haywood Georges Sorel Stanley Aronowitz John R Commons Sidney and Beatrice Webb Thorstein Veblen Henry Simons and John Kenneth Galbraith among others Intending this as a text for classroom use Larson and Nissen have arranged the readings according to the social role assigned to the labor movement by each theory The text s major divisions consider the labor movement as an agent of revolution as a business institution as an agent of industrial reform as a psychological reaction to industrialism as a moral force as a destructive monopoly and as a subordinate mechanism in pluralist industrial society Such groupings allow for ready comparison of divergent views of the origins development and future of the labor movement Foundations of the World Christian Movement: A Larger Perspective, Reader ,

Critical Risks of Different Economic Sectors Dmitry Chernov, Didier Sornette, 2019-12-03 This book explores the major differences between the kinds of risk encountered in different sectors of industry production including agriculture and services and identifies the main features of accidents within different industries Because of these differences unique risk mitigation measures will need to be implemented in one industry that cannot be implemented in another leading to large managerial differences between these broad economic sectors Based on the analysis of more than 500 disasters accidents and incidents around 230 cases from the production sector and around 280 cases from the service sector the authors compare the risk response actions appropriate within different sectors and establish when and how it is possible to generalize the experience of dealing with risks in any given industry to a wider field of economic activity This book is mainly intended for executives strategists senior risk managers of enterprise wide organizations and risk management experts engaged in academic or consulting work By setting out clearly the sector differences in risk management the authors aim to improve the practice of general risk assessment with regard to identifying and prioritizing risks and of risk control with regard to planning appropriate mitigation measures Jesus Movement Ekkehard

Stegemann, Wolfgang Stegemann, 1999-08-01 This work by two New Testament scholars is the first comprehensive social history of the earliest churches Integrating the historical and social data they locate the ancient Galileans Judeans and the Jesus movement in their respective matrices The Stegemanns deal with such issues as conflict between the messianic communities and the rest of Judaism religious pluralism social stratification group composition gender division ancient economics and urban rural distinctions Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2002 The Social Basis of European Fascist Movements Detlef Mühlberger, 2015-10-16 Between 1919 and 1945 most countries in Europe spawned some form of fascism Some have become considerably more notorious than others this book first published in 1987 sets out to analyse the social forces that went into the making of the fascist parties of the major European countries and to show the similarities and differences in their constitution as well as to suggest reasons for their different degrees of penetration and success Few books have surveyed the whole field the team of contributors engaged in the present enterprise offer a systematic and thorough survey of the social characteristics of European fascist movements a subject of central importance to social and political history

Asia's Environmental Movements in Comparative Perspective Alvin Y. So,Lily Xiao Hong Lee,2020-10-07 Exploring one of the most dynamic and contested regions of the world this series includes works on political economic cultural and social changes in modern and contemporary Asia and the Pacific Rethinking the Labour Movement in the 'New South Africa' Franco Barchiesi,2019-01-15 Title first published in 2003 In recognition of the power of organised labour the ANC Government elected in 1994 granted South Africa s unions unprecedented legal and constitutional rights Despite these gains the country s unions have faced a fresh set of challenges many of them emanating from their political allies in Government From Parliament to the factory floor South Africa s unions are now confronted with threats as dangerous as those they confronted when organising illegally in the heyday of apartheid The purpose of this book is to examine how South African unions have responded and how well prepared they are to meet the challenges that confront them in the new millennium

Asia's Environmental Movements Alvin Y. So,Lily Xiao Hong Lee, Lee F. Yok-Shiu,2017-07-12 Adopting a comparative perspective this book traces the social political economic and cultural conditions under which environmental movements have emerged and assesses the transformative capacities of these movements

Re/presenting Class J. K. Gibson-Graham,Stephen Resnick,Richard Wolff,Julie Graham,Katherine Gibson,2001-06-15 Twelve theoretical and historical essays emanate from a novel shared poststructuralist conception of political economy

The Dynamics of Social Movements in Hong Kong Stephen Wing Kai Chiu,Tai Lok Lui,2000-01-01 Studies of Hong Kong society have long focused one sidedly upon economic prosperity and political stability Contributors to this volume redress this imbalance by taking a critical view of Hong Kong s political development from the perspectives of social conflict and collective action Instead of looking at Hong Kong from the top this volume documents the active role played by local actors from below political groups student activists trade unions women groups environmentalists and community organizers and their impact on social and political development in Hong Kong society in the context of political transition and democratization economic restructuring and an emergent local identity

How Chiefs Come to Power Timothy K. Earle,1997 This book is basically about power how people came to acquire it and the implications that contrasting paths to power had for the development of societies Earle argues that chiefdoms being a regional polity with governance over a population of a few thousand to tens of thousands of people and with some social stratification possessed the same fundamental dynamics as those of states and that the origin of states is to be understood in the emergence and development of chiefdoms His arguments are developed by three case studies Denmark during the Neolithic and early Bronze Age 2300

1300 BC the high Andes of Peru from the early chiefdoms through the Inka conquest AD 500 1534 and Hawai i from early settlement to its incorporation in the world economy AD 800 1824 After summarizing the cultural history of the three societies over a thousand years he considers the sources of chiefly power the economy military power and ideology and how these sources were linked together Leading the Hare Krishna Movement Angela R. Burt,2024-05-27 This book examines issues of leadership and succession in the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON which was founded in by A C Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada in 1966 After the founder s death in 1977 the movement was led by a group of gurus in a zonal system until their authority was challenged and reformed in the mid 1980s At the heart of the book is an exploration of the developments conflicts and defining characteristics of leadership in ISKCON in this decade Themes of hierarchy status power and authority and the routinisation of charisma are shown to be keys to understanding the events of the time With careful analysis of interviews and documentary evidence the research offers a unique insight into ISKCON as an organisation and the broader religious community in which ISKCON is located The book will be of particular interest to scholars of new religious movements and those concerned with religious leadership The Cooperative Movement Richard C. Williams,2016-03-23 Richard Williams surveys the history of the cooperative movement from its origins in the 18th century and deals with the theory of cooperation as contrasted with the Standard Economic Model based on competition The book contains the results of field studies of a number of successful cooperatives both in the developed and developing world It includes insights from personal interviews of cooperative members and concludes by considering the successes and challenges of the cooperative movement as an alternative to the global neo colonialism and imperialism that now characterizes free market capitalist approaches to globalization The book considers democratic and local control of essential economic activities such as the production distribution and retailing of goods and services It suggests that cooperative approaches to these economic activities are already reducing poverty and resulting in equitable distributions of wealth and income without plundering the resources of developing countries The Third Movement, Or, Stages in the Evolution of the Human Mind and Society Amlan Datta,1983 The labour movement in Lebanon Lea Bou Khater,2022-02-22 The labour movement in Lebanon Power on hold narrates the history of the Lebanese labour movement from the early twentieth century to today Bou Khater demonstrates that trade unionism in the country has largely been a failure for reasons including state interference tactical co optation and the strategic use of sectarianism by an oligarchic elite together with the structural weakness of a service based laissez faire economy Drawing on a vast body of Arabic language primary sources and difficult to access archives the book s conclusions are significant not only for trade unionism but also for new forms of workers organisations and social movements in Lebanon and beyond The Lebanese case study presented here holds significant implications for the wider Arab world and for comparative studies of labour This authoritative history of the labour movement in Lebanon is vital reading for scholars of trade unionism Lebanese politics and political economy

Political Power In Ecuador Osvaldo Hurtado, 2019-06-26 This book is a study of politics and the changing configuration of power in a developing country in which political domination during the past 155 years has almost without exception coincided with economic hegemony

Street-Level Democracy: Political Settings at the Margins of Global Power Jonathan Barker, 1999-12-01 Using colourful and detailed case material Street Level Democracy introduces a new method of researching everyday politics It is a wide ranging book that traces the conflicts between global power and local action People in farming communities town mosques city markets and fishing communities suffer the effects of wrenching change but live far from the centres of power From Britain and small town USA to Nigeria India and Nicaragua citizens everywhere grapple with the politics of everyday life
