Baptist Theology James Leo Garrett, 2009 This title offers a comprehensive analysis of Baptist theology Embracing in one common trajectory the major Baptist confessions of faith the major Baptist theologians and the principal Baptist theological movements and controversies this book spans four centuries of Baptist doctrinal history Acknowledging first the pre 1609 roots patristic medieval and Reformational of Baptist theology it examines the Arminian versus Calvinist issues that were first expressed by the General Baptists and the Particular Baptists that dominated English and American Baptist theology during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries from Helwys and Smyth and from Bunyan and Kiffin to Gill Fuller Backus and Boyce and that were quickened by the awakenings and the missionary movement Concurrently there were the Baptist defense of the Baptist distinctives vis a vis the pedobaptist world and the unfolding of a strong Baptist confessional tradition Then during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the liberal versus evangelical issues became dominant with Hovey Strong Rauschenbusch and Henry in the North and Mullins Conner Hobbs and Criswell in the South even as a distinctive Baptist Landmarkism developed the discipline of biblical theology was practiced and a structured ecumenism was pursued Missiology both impacted Baptist theology and took it to all the continents where it became increasingly indigenous Conscious that Baptists belong to the free churches and to the believers churches a new generation of Baptist theologians at the advent of the twenty first century appears somewhat more Calvinist than Arminian and decidedly more evangelical than liberal Hospitality and the Other Author, Amos Yong,2015-03-04 Saving and Secular Faith Brian Albert Gerrish,1999 What does it mean to live by faith Answers are more elusive than ever Beginning with a rich discussion of the Reformation legacy historian theologian B A Gerrish responds that if we release our thinking from sectarian partisan lenses we find that faith denotes a multitude of impulsestrust doubt fidelity and confidenceand is a fundamental human posture It undergirds not only saving faith but also secular varieties in other religious traditionsand even outside religions We all literally live by faith in every phase of our lives Gerrish s prolegomenon to theology goes on to ask what then is the use of belief How in fact do we come to faith And how are religious and secular faith related especially in relation to Jesus Christ Gerrish opens up the notion of faith to encompass the discovery of personal meaning in one s existence and the theological drive to articulate the deepest drives of the human self Encyclopedia of Religious Controversies in the United States George H. Sullivan SJ,2002-09-03 When in 1949 Fr Leonard Feeney SJ accused the Archbishop of Boston Richard J Cushing of heresy for holding that Jews and Protestants could be saved he backed up his charge by producing passages from the writings of fathers of the church such as St Augustine of eminent theologians such as St Thomas Aquinas and from the decrees of popes and councils to prove that it was a dogma of faith that there is no salvation outside the Catholic Church He did seem to have the weight of evidence on his side and it was not easy to see how the modern idea that non Catholics can be saved could be reconciled with the church s traditional doctrine that excluded them from salvation Many in the Catholic Church have felt that while Feeney must surely have been wrong the questions he raised were never satisfactorily answered Is it really a dogma of Catholic faith that there is no salvation outside the church Can the optimism of Vatican II about the universal possibility of salvation be defended as an example of homogeneous development of doctrine Or would it be more honest to say that the Catholic Church has recognized that its previous teaching was mistaken The author is convinced that the only way to answer such questions is by a thorough study of the history of Christian thought about the salvation of those outside the church Rev Sullivan makes this historical study a lively reading experience while drawing conclusions that will impact ecumenical thinking for years to come Is There Salvation Outside the Catholic Church? Jean Vincent Bainvel,1920 Is There Salvation Outside the Catholic Church? Jean Vincent Bainvel,S.
