Kirkus Reviews, 1988. Adult books are categorized by genre: i.e. fiction, mystery, science fiction, nonfiction. Along with bibliographic information, the expected date of publication and the names of literary agents for individual titles are provided. Starred reviews serve several functions. In the adult section, they mark potential bestsellers, major promotions, book club selections, and just very good books. In the children's section, they denote books of very high quality. The unsigned reviews manage to be discerning and sometimes quite critical.

Work and Family, 1991. Nutrition, Health, and Safety for Preschool Children. Roberta Larson Duyff, Susan C. Giarratano, Mary F. Zuzich, 1995. Provides an overview of nutrition, health, and safety that emphasizes their interrelationship and the influences of heredity and the environment on each. Part 1 discusses food patterns and how they form basic facts about nutrients and guidelines for healthful eating. Part 2 contains chapters on growth and development and nutrition influences on this process, as well as chapters on the nutritional needs of infants, toddlers, preschoolers, and children with special nutritional needs. Part 3 contains chapters on general health policies and procedures in the child care setting and on infectious diseases affecting children. Also discusses safety concerns including providing safe environments for young children and teaching and practicing behaviors that promote children's safety. Part 4 provides general guidance on teaching children about nutrition, health, and safety. Contains a chapter on curriculum with advice on lesson planning and a chapter on ways to involve parents in the nutrition, health, and safety program.

Families, Schools, and Communities Together for Young Children. Donna Lee Couchenour, Kent Chrisman, 2008. Families, Schools, and Communities Together for Young Children 3e is a book geared to meet national standards relating to forming family and community partnerships in teacher preparation programs and reflects current research and best practice in education. The book has two sections: Understanding Families and Application to Educational Settings, covering current and contemporary issues faced by families. The third edition adds a complete chapter on fostering family involvement in academic content areas including math, literacy, science, and social studies. This new chapter contains specific ideas and strategies for increasing family involvement in the community and in schools, as well as learning at home. New information is included about working with military families, addressing issues of childhood obesity, teaching children about financial literacy, and managing money and advocacy efforts for children and families.
