A Russian Doll & Other Stories Adolfo Bioy Casares, 1992-09-17 This collection of traditional and experimental stories by Argentinian novelist Bioy Casares The Adventures of a Photographer in La Plata offers sophisticated seamless prose as well as magical realism and biting political satire Publishers Weekly A Russian Doll and Other Stories is the ninth collection of short fiction by one of this century's premier Argentinian writers who with his fellow countrymen Julio Cortázar and Jorge Luis Borges helped change the world's perception of Latin American literature Bioy Casares's narratives are elegant and urbane his style precise and streamlined as he paces his characters through seriocomic traps of fate ensnared by love impelled by lust ambition or plain greed even metamorphosed by pharmaceuticals These are not stories in a psychological mode but like the image of the Russian doll of the title piece are carefully wrought congeries of intractable selves within selves

The Female Artist in Academia Anastasia Kamanos, 2019-11-07 This book delves into the conflicts contradictions and paradoxes inherent in the lives of women who as artists and academics seek to connect their personal and professional lives in their work It explores how creativity and the pursuit of self knowledge relate to their lives and arises from the author's own experience as a woman writer and academic Inquiries into creativity and feminist critical and cultural theory provide the framework for examining how the identity of the female artist is shaped within the patriarchal institution of academia These inquiries allow a deeper understanding of the impact of this institution on the life and work of the female artist both within and beyond academia As an auto ethnographic study Kamanos distinctive voice is developed through narratives journals letters and a development of personal metaphors as well as with a dialogue with others As performative text the narratives map a process of transformation that traces the artist's path from silence to voice This book has important implications for women in higher education as self study is revealed to be an essential methodological instrument for the articulation of alternative authentic perspectives of marginalized and under represented women Moreover the acknowledgement of the academic artist paradigm in teacher education opens the path for a re viewing of the metaphors of self denial impersonation and masks that are part of the landscape of teacher knowledge Selected Stories Adolfo Bioy Casares,1994 Fifteen stories by an Argentinian writer mixing the fantastic with the real The subjects range from love to madness The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute,John Grant,1999-03-15 Like its companion volume The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction this massive reference of 4 000 entries covers all aspects of fantasy from literature to art
